Mr. Ed. Elder died in Toronto on Saturday last of Tuberculosis. The young man had been in the sanitarium at Weston for a year. The funeral took place to Chatsworth on Monday. The deceased young man was about 30 years of age.

The Advance had a chatty letter from Mr. W. G. Duncan of Washington State. Mr. Duncan, in addition to his duties as representative in the Washington Legislature, is president of a big land company known as the Washington and California Investment Company. This is added evidence of the trust reposed in an old Artemesia boy.

Married—On Wednesday, December 23rd, at the residence of W. F. Nelson, Esq., "The Pines", Peterboro, Ont., brother of the bride, by the Rev. J. C. Wilson, of Toronto, father of the groom, assisted by the Rev. Robert Pogue, of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Rev. J. S. Ivison Wilson, B. A., B. D., of Haileybury, Ont., and Arletta, only daughter of the late Robt. Nelson, Esq., of Uxbridge, Ont.

It was thought there would be no Farmers' Institute meetings in this riding this winter, but the Department has decided to give three meetings—one each at Heathcote, Kimberley and Flesherton, on Jan. 25 and 26 respectively. The speakers will be R. L. Moorehouse of Cairo, A. E. Westwood of Oakland, and Mrs. H. W. Parsons of Cochrane. See advertising matter for full particulars. The Flesherton meeting will be Jan. 26 at 2 and 7 p. m.

At the village Council meeting Monday evening the following officials were appointed. Assessor, John Wright; Auditors, Geo. Mitchell, Jos. Blackburn; Board of Health, Dr. Carter, J. P. Ottewell and the Reeve. C. Munshaw and W. Buskin were appointed a committee to have full control over the fire apparatus and get it licked into good working order. The resignation of W. H. Thurston as Clerk was accepted and a new clerk will be appointed at next meeting. Owing to the large enrolments of this office no doubt there will be a scramble for this position. The salary paid is $35.

The Royal Scarlet Chapter of Artemesia District will meet in their Chapter Room, Clayton's Hall, on January 14th. As this is the annual business meeting of the year, a full attendance is requested. By order of the W. C. in C. Geo. H. Cairns, Comp. Scribe.

Maxwell L. O. L. No. 666 held their annual meeting in the hall on December 29th. The following election of officers took place after which the brethren enjoyed a fowl supper. W. M., Herb Clark; D. M., Wm. Hall; Chap., Wm. Lawler; Rec.-Sec., Alex Morrison; Fin.-Sec., A. N. Brownridge; Treas., Marshall Kerton; D. of C., Chas. Kerton; 1st Lect., Hartley Arnott; 2nd Lect., Ernest Hayes; Com., M. Morrison, Wm. McQuay, L. Blakley, L. Lepard and W. Morrison.

Mrs. Colwell Carson, who lived with her son, Wesley, on the homestead, Meaford Road, died on Monday evening of this week at the age of 82 years. The deceased lady was born in Co. Tyrone, Ireland, and married the late Colwell Carson, immediately before migrating to Canada. After spending a couple of years in the township of Vaughan, they came to Artemesia about fifty years ago, being among the early settlers. The children are: Wm. and Wesley of this township, and Mrs. S. Dezell and Mrs. Wm. Atkins of Owen Sound. The deceased lady was highly respected by all who knew her and was a member of the Methodist church for many years. The funeral took place to Irwin's burial ground on Wednesday.

The repeated concert given in the Methodist church Wednesday evening of last week was not largely attended owing to the dark, rainy night and the numerous other seasonable attractions, but the concert was fully better than the original. Two of the selections were especially worthy of mention and were greatly enjoyed by those present. Mr. R. Wilcock and Mrs. Mark Wright sang that rather quaint and pathetic duet, the Miserere from Il Trovatore. Both were in good voice and the rendering was a superb thing. We all hope to hear this number sometime again. The other selection referred to was a duet by Misses Pearl and Muriel Henderson, "I'll dream of you," which was heartily enjoyed. These young ladies have sweet voices, to which the selection was admirably suited.

Up to the present time four Flesherton young men have decided that it is their duty to go and fight for King and Country against the German vandal. Bert Jamieson, son of Mrs. J. Jamieson, and Thomas Davis, son of Mr. Wm. Davis, left with the first contingent as privates and are still at Salisbury. Willie Wilcock has joined the Engineers, but does not expect to go to the front until the third contingent, now in process of formation, sails. The latest to offer his services is Arnold Thurston, who has joined the Intelligence department under Colonel Brown, and will be attached to No. 4 field battery of Canadian artillery. This battery will leave with the second contingent, probably in February. Arnold is one of 19 young students of Toronto University who have volunteered for this work.

The Advance had an interesting visit on Thursday of last week from Mr. John Blythe of Belt, Montana, who was visiting his cousin here, Mrs. Oliver Irwin of the Park House, and other friends. When Mr. Blythe left Thornbury seventeen years ago he only possessed $600 to his name. To-day he is probably worth $25,000. He owns a ranch of 700 acres, on which he ranges 600 sheep and grows great quantities of vegetables for the Great Falls market. The wool from his sheep last spring, which, by the way, are a merino quarter blood, brought him a cheque for $917, or about $1.50 per sheep. He also grows alfalfa in quantity and a variety of barley grown there known as Bald barley, which he extols highly as a hog feed. He has 70 acres under irrigation controlled by his own irrigation plant. Mr. Blythe says that the rainfall in this part of the state is becoming greater of late years. He had a number of interesting photographs, scenic and otherwise, and altogether his visit was quite entertaining and enjoyable. He is well acquainted with a number of men from this section who have made good in Montana, including the Strain boys and a Mr. Brown of Collingwood, and brought messages of greeting from these gentlemen to old friends here.

Feversham L. O. L. No. 1085

The Annual meeting of L. O. L., No. 1085, was held in their lodge room on Wednesday, December 30, 1914. There was a fair turnout of the members. One brother joined by certificate. After the books were audited, showing a balance on hand, and other routine of business was transacted, the worshipful master declared all offices vacant, and called on Bro. Alex. J. Conron, P. C. M., to conduct the election and installation. The following brethren were elected for the ensuing year.

Special Services

Lecturer of Moody Bible Institute Coming.

The pastor of the Methodist church, Rev. Jas. Dudgeon, has arranged with Rev. J. R. Dean, of Toronto, for at least two weeks' special services, beginning Monday, January 25, in the church here. Mr. Dean was one of the Lecturers of the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, some few years ago, and accepted the pastorate of a church in Toronto on condition he would be free to assist anywhere he might receive a call. He will deliver an address every evening but Saturday, and twice on Sunday, February 7th, on Bible Themes. One of his subjects "The Bible and Sinners" he has given five different times in Toronto to large audiences. He is no sensationalist but preaches the word of God in such style as to please all. There will be good singing, arrangements being made with choir master Wright to have something special each evening. There will be no collection at the services but the regular collections on Sunday which go to their usual source. A voluntary offering will be taken on last two nights of meetings for Mr. Dean. This is his own arrangements, stating that be it little or much he will be satisfied This is somewhat different from ordinary Evangelistic services and it is hoped that the community will take advantage of these services.

Christmas Gifts

There is a movement on foot this year for something substantial for Christmas, now that the German flimsy ware is debarred (as it should have been years ago)

Just by way of suggestion we would propose that you call in and examine our stock of furniture suitable for presents, which is unusually full this year. For instance we have rockers for mother, easy chairs for father, beautiful pictures and frames for sister, handsleighs for little brother, little rockers, dolls beds and wicker chairs and other things for little sister—something for everybody. Come in and see the latest thing in dolls beds and rockers.

Then we have the usual stock of all kinds of parlor, bedroom and dining room furniture—desks, chairs, odd pieces, secretaries—Oh! there is too much to enumerate. Come in and go over our stock yourself. Always happy to show goods and to demonstrate that our prices are as low as the lowest.

We are prepared to furnish flowers and floral designs for funerals, weddings, or social gatherings, having arranged with the Dale estate of Brampton to handle their business here.
