THE PREACHER IS COMING

Rev. I. R. Dean, one of Toronto's greatest preachers, will hold a series of meetings in Flesherton beginning Monday, Jan. 25. The first week's meetings will be held in the Methodist church. Dr. R. H. Henderson, now of Toronto, writes: "It is a rare privilege that the people of Flesherton and vicinity will have of hearing one of the best Bible teachers and preacher's of to-day. Those who will hear his first address will be anxious to hear every address he has the privilege of giving." The singing will be conducted by Prof Wright, who is preparing special music for the occasion. Song service every evening at 7.45. Mr. Dean's first week's subjects are:

Monday night—The Gospel, what it is and what it can do.
Tuesday night—Your photograph as drawn by the Divine Artist.
Wednesday night—The law and its limitations.
Thursday night—Works, their place in the Christian.
Friday—Salvation and Rewards.

A Red Cross Appeal

80 Gerrard St. East,
Toronto, January 15, 1914

Mr. W. H. Thurston,
Editor "Advance",
Flesherton, Ont.

Dear Sir:—

No doubt you will be surprised to hear from me, but I am writing to ask a favor of you which I am sure you will be only too glad to grant.

Since my visit to Flesherton last fall, I have become a member of the Toronto Home Guards, and a member of the 109th King's Own Regiment of Guards. At our weekly parade last night we were addressed by Dr. Browne Lansdone, who has been on the firing line in France in charge of the hospital work of the French army. He is making an appeal for supplies of any kind that can be used in the hospitals in the way of clothing, bedding or bandages. These need not necessarily be new goods by any means, but any old cast off clothing, whether boots or any article of clothing which has been cast aside would be gratefully received.

A committee has been formed, consisting of our colonel and other officers, who are today waiting upon the Board on Control to endeavour to have the Mayor proclaim a "parcel day" when clothing and supplies of this nature can be gathered together and shipped to France.

I might state that the hospitals of Northern France are catering to the wants of not only the French soldiers, but to British and Belgian soldiers as well. The conditions there, as stated by Dr. Browne Lansdone, are appalling. He has cited cases where two or three hundred men are lying wounded in one hospital with no more than 65 blankets available for use. Soldiers are dying for the want of antiseptic bandages and other necessaries to carry on the work of a hospital.

I, myself, am unable to make an explanation of the affairs that exist there. No doubt, you have learned a good deal of the position there from perusal of the daily papers. The speech of Dr. Browne Lansdowne last night, however, brought home to us the need for necessary action immediately. I am requesting that you put this matter before the people of Flesherton and ascertain if a collection of the above mentioned articles can be obtained and packed and shipped to Toronto. I am satisfied that I can obtain free transportation of these goods over the C.P.R.

The shipment should be consigned to Col. W. T. Stewart. 109th Regiment, King's Own Guards, 9a Wellington St. E. It might be possible to obtain supplies of this kind in a place like Flesherton easier than in a city like Toronto, where there are continual demands for articles of this kind.

I might state that the Salvation Army and other charitable institutions are continually collecting articles of this nature for distribution. In consequence it is harder to obtain articles. I am one of those who are not satisfied to sit in idleness while others are risking their lives in the defence of our country. While I am prohibited by circumstances from taking a more active part, I wish to ameliorate their position as far as possible. I know no other way in which I can be of more assistance.

Trusting you will give this matter your careful consideration, if I am not asking too much of you, I beg to remain,

Yours very truly,
B. E. FIELD.

McMullen--Anderson

The home of Mr. and Mrs. David McMullen of Feversham was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Jan. 13, when their eldest daughter, Evelyn J., and William A. Anderson of Chesley were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The bride, attired in white silk and bridal veil with a wreath of orange blossoms, entered the parlor on the arm of her father while the wedding march was being rendered by Mrs. B. Madill of Sault Ste Marie. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. J. F. G. Morris of Singhampton in the presence of a great number of friends and relatives. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful pearl sunburst, and to the organist a pearl brooch. The many other beautiful presents received by the bride was an eloquent token of the high esteem in which she was held. Among the friends present from a distance were: Mrs. Fred Jaffrey and daughter, Helen, of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Anderson of Chesley; Miss Stella and Mr. Wilfred McEachern of Clarksburg; and Mrs. B. Madill, Sault Ste Marie. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, after spending a week among relatives here, will be at home to their friends in Chesley on Jan. 24. We join in wishing the newly wedded couple a long, happy and prosperous matrimonial career.

Lyons—Wiley

An interesting and very happy event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Wiley on Wednesday evening, January 6, at 6 o'clock, when their second daughter, Annie, was united in marriage to Mr. Wesley Lyons of Markdale. Rev. Mr. Marshall of Rocklyn conducted the ceremony in the presence of some sixty invited guests—relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties. The bride wore a dainty gown of tan broche satin-de-chene, while the bridesmaid, Miss Vera Lanktree, was dressed in a similar costume. Mr, Jas. Wiley, brother of the bride, supported the groom, and Mrs. W. T. Wiley, sister in law of the bride, played the wedding march. After the ceremony and usual congratulations a sumptuous wedding supper was served and the evening then spent in music, games and social intercourse. The happy couple will reside on the groom's farm near Markdale, known as the Coleman homestead; and the very best wishes of a large circle of friends go with them. Those who attended the wedding from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Quinton, Walters Falls; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Lyons, Ottawa; Mr. and Mrs. Will Lyons, Harkaway; Mr. John Wiley and daughter, Mary, Maxwell; Miss Nancy McAfee, Meaford; Mr. Albert Spaul and mother, Thornbury; Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Clugston, Rocklyn; Mr. and Mrs. McKennet, Mrs. Thomas Brown and daughter, Ursula, Miss Carry Lyons and Mr. McKennet, Markdale.

When Britain Wins Turkey Goes

Speaking at the Mansion House on Lord Mayor's day, Mr. Asquith in reviewing the international situation, dwelt specially on relations with Turkey. In relating the circumstances which placed the Turks among our enemies in this war he said:—

My Lord Mayor, I wish to make it clear not only to my fellow-countrymen, but to the outside world, that this is not our doing. It is in spite of our hope and efforts, and against our will (cheers). It is not the Turkish people; it is the Ottoman Government that has drawn the sword, and I do not hesitate to predict that it will perish by the sword. It is they and not we who have rung the death-knell of the Ottoman Dominion, not only in Europe, but in Asia. With this disappearance as a conquering and devastating caste will disappear, as I hope and believe, the blight which for generations past has withered some of the fairest regions of the earth.

These words of Britain's Premier were not spoken with prophetic intent, nor are they in any way related to prophecy in the popular mind; and yet when Britain realizes her anticipations in this awful war, no outcome will be more momentous than that which frees the oppressed subject of the Sultan, and which at the same time will end that long period in which "Jerusalem shall be trodden under the foot of the Gentiles"

Perhaps no utterance of the period is more pregnant with meaning than these words of the great statesman who holds the helm in the greatest crisis of Britain's history.

Behind the dark war clouds God is ripening His own great purposes, and by the world's travailing pains bringing near the birth the new "Day of God." In these days Issael may well look up, for her deliverence is coming near. The Christian too in the midst of surrounding gloom discerns through the night of sorrow the consummation of hopes in the appearance of the Day Star, and the rising beams of the Sun of Righteousness.

Already Jewish feet outnumber those of the Turk in the streets of the Holy City, and when the emancipation of that land of Abrahamic Covenant from the rule of the Moslem takes place, Israel will not long stay away from the possession of her covenant rights. Britain is fighting to vindicate her honor in connection with a "scrap of paper" that bears her name and her official seal. There are other written agreements which bear the Name and sealed with a divine oath which may be vindicated at the same time.

The uprising of Israel is to synchronize with the downfall of the Turk, and the Second Advent of the world's absent King will follow very speedily.
