VICINITY CHIPS

An epidemic of la grippe is very prevalent among the citizens here at present.

Mr. James Gardiner and daughter, Miss Florence, of Heathcote, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Best.

Mr. Herb Little of Owen Sound visited his brother, Dr. W. T. Little, and other friends here last week.

Mr. C. Thistlethwaite of Emo, Rainy River District, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Thistlethwaite, here.

Misses A. Gaudin and L. McPhail spent Sunday at the former's parental home at Heathcote.

Owing to illness at W. A. Armstrong's the Mendelssohn chorus practice will be held at Dr. Murray's this evening.

Rev. L. W. Thom has moved to Midhurst and his induction into his new charge took place on Tuesday.

The Ladies' Aid of Chalmer's Church donated $10.00 to the Red Cross Fund at their meeting last week.

Lost—Between Flesherton and the Power House in the Valley, an open face watch, 17 Jewel Hamden movement with nickle case. G. B. Welton, Flesherton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Newsome and daughter of Lumsden, Sask., were the guests this week of Mrs. Newsome's brother, Mr. T. Sled of the suburbs.

A thaw started on Friday and lasted until Monday, very materially reducing the amount of snow that had covered the land, and playing havoc with the roads.

The song service in the Methodist church Sunday evening was attended by a very large audience, who appreciated the very excellent program rendered.

Miss T. Hewett of Flesherton has returned home after spending a couple of weeks with Mr. and Mrs. John Milne, Gravel road, Maxwell.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church will hold their annual Irish supper and concert on Wednesday, March 17. Particulars later.

The pupils of Professor M. E. Wright have invitations out for their recital at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Armstrong on Friday evening. The program appears in this issue.

The Advance is empowered to offer the daily and Sunday World until July 1, for the small sum of one dollar. Subscriptions taken at this office. This is strictly cash in advance.

Mrs. Blackburn accompanied two of her music pupils—Shirley Murray and Gladys Dudgeon—to the Toronto Conservatory of Music, where they wrote on their examination.

Hill Bros. of Markdale, who have branch stores at Orangeville, Tara, Alliston and Highgate, have formed a Joint Stock Company Limited, with Mr. F. T. Hill as President.

Division Court was held in Dundalk on Wednesday of last week before Judge Widdifield. Only a couple of cases were heard, the most important being that of Cornfield v. Scully. Mr. Cornfield sued for $99.50 for rental of stable. Several witnesses were heard. The case was dismissed, each party to pay their own costs.

The Dundalk Junior Hockey team played a game with the local juniors here on Wednesday night of last week, winning by the score of 7-3. The game was fast throughout but too much tripping was indulged in and the score by no means is a comparison of the hockey merits of the two teams. Russel Wilson of Dundalk acted as referee.

The Flesherton Midgets went to Markdale on Saturday afternoon for a game with the youngsters of that place. Flesherton's referee disappointed the boys and they had to contend with a Markdale man as referee which very materially helped the Markdale boys to come out on the long end of a 8-6 score.

The McCutcheon Bros. were up before a magistrate in Toronto last week on a charge of western land swindling, and five members of the firm were passed up for trial.

Wanted—For Flesherton High School, 30 cords of green hardwood, beach and maple. Must be good sound body wood, two feet long. J. P. Ottewell, Flesherton.

The At-Home held in the skating rink on Friday evening last, under the auspices of the Red Cross Society, proved very popular with young and old, and a large crowd of skaters took advantage of the fun. The funds of the society were enriched to the extent of $26.

As many have requested Mr. Tom Davis' address, we insert it below. This will find him even if the address is changed later: Pte. Thomas E. Davis, No. 9312, No. 2 Company, 3rd Battalion, 1st Brigade Q. O. R., Bustard Camp, Salisbury Plains, England; Canadian Overseas Contingent.

The annual reception given by the pupils of the Flesherton High school to their parents and friends will take place Friday Evening, Feb. 26 A good programme consisting of a mock trial, etc., will be given. Refreshments served. Diplomas and certificates will be given out to successful candidates. Everybody welcome.

After the new war taxes come into force we will certainly begin to realize that Canada is at war. It will touch everybody and all will have to pay their share. The new taxes may affect the benevolent work which has been so freely subscribed to in the past 7 months. The principal articles affected are: One per cent of Note Circulation of all Banks; One per cent on net premiums of Insurance companies (except Life, Fraternal and Marine); one cent on every telegraph message of fifteen cents; five cents on every five dollar railway ticket to any point in Canada and United States; one cent on all letters and post cards posted in Canada; special stamp taxes on perfumery and wines and other sundries; together with seven and one half per cent increase in general tariff with the exception of the British Preference.

The Flesherton Library Board elected the following officers for 1915-16: Pres., Geo. Mitchell; Sec., Rev. A. McVicar; Treas., H. S. White. A consignment of new books are almost ready for the shelves. Subscriptions—$1.00 a year—are now due for 1915-16. Please augment the membership. Library contents—Religion 38 volumes, Natural Science 45, Useful Arts 3, Literature 292, History 208, Biography 42, Geography and Travel 178, Fiction 286. A long step to greatness is to know great minds. Books give such opportunities. All in the rural districts may secure two books at a time and keep them two weeks. A reading room can be easily provided, if you swell our membership, with magazines, papers and seating accommodation, would be a boon to all waiting for grists, shoppers, etc. Keep your young people on the farm by giving them the comforts and conveniences of the city. It pays ten fold. Try it. Citizens of Flesherton we appeal to you. Let us be strong in mind and spirit if not in material greatness.

Hudson—Heathcote

The home of Mr. James Hudson, 10 th line Osprey, was the scene of a pretty home wedding on Wednesday, February 3rd, when his sister, Elizabeth, was united in marriage to Mr. Harry Heathcote, of Feversham. The bride was attired in white silk and carried a bouquet of white carnations and was given away by her brother James. She was attended by Miss Arlene Buckingham, who wore white silk and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The groom was ably supported by Mr. John Thomson. The Rev. James Phimister, of Maxwell, officiated. After the ceremony and the usual congratulations, the relatives and friends to the number of fifty sat down to a dainty wedding dinner. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents, testifying to the esteem in which the young couple are held. The bride's travelling suit was brown serge. The young couple will reside in Feversham.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, Susan Porteous, beloved wife of John Porteous, who died a year ago today, February 18th, 1914.

We often sit and think of her
When we are all alone,
For memory is the only friend,
That grief can call its own.
More and more each day we miss her,
Friends may think the wound is healed,
But they little know the sorrow,
That lies within our hearts concealed.

—Fanny and Mary.

Christmas Gifts

There is a movement on foot this year for something substantial for Christmas, now that the German flimsy ware is debarred (as it should have been years ago).

Just by way of suggestion we would propose that you call in and examine our stock of furniture suitable for presents, which is unusually full this year. For instance we have rockers for mother, easy chairs for father, beautiful pictures and frames for sister, handsleighs for little brother, little rockers, dolls beds and wicker chairs and other things for little sister—something for everybody. Come in and see the latest thing in dolls beds and rockers.

Then we have the usual stock of all kinds of parlor, bedroom and dining room furniture—desks, chairs, odd pieces, secretaries—Oh! there is too much to enumerate. Come in and go over our stock yourself. Always happy to show goods and to demonstrate that our prices are as low as the lowest.

We are prepared to furnish flowers and floral designs for funerals, weddings, or social gatherings, having arranged with the Dale estate of Brampton to handle their business here.
