Toronto Line North

Beautiful weather at present.

March entered like a lamb, but alas the lion followed immediately.

Miss Elva Lever, teacher at Duncan, spent Saturday and Sunday at her parental home here.

Mrs. Wm. Davis of "Sunnyside Farm" gave a quilting bee to her neighbors on Friday of last week.

La grippe is prevalent in this community.

Mr. Russell Lever has returned to his home in the west after two months' visit with his parents here. He is prospering in the west and may good luck still be his companion.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Kennedy and children of Toronto are spending the winter months at "Sunnyside Farm".

Harold Lever of Markdale visited a few days with Harold Lever in this vicinity.

Councillor Brown has purchased a handsome white horse. Say girls, we'll go some now.

A number of young folks from this line spent a very pleasant evening at the home of Mr. Harry Quigg on the west back line.

It was just the other day that I heard a couple of boys remark that they were too shy to take a girl for a skate. Never mind, next year is leap year boys.

Mrs. Thos. Lever received the sad news of the death of her mother, Mrs. Jos. Clarke, of Weyburn, Sask., on February 23. She had been living with her son, Joseph, for the past four years. She was hale and hearty until about a week before her death. One dark night she ventured out and fell on the ice. When found life was almost gone. She was carried into the house and never recovered. After that the only words she said was "I am alright." Mrs. Clarke was an old resident of this line. She was in her eighty-seventh year, and hoped to return to Ontario again before her death. She leaves to mourn her loss two sons and two daughters:—Mrs. Thos. Lever, Flesherton; Mrs. Chas. Wyce, Weyburn; J. A. Clarke, Michigan, U. S ; and J. W. Clarke, Weyburn, Sask.

Heathcote

Sorry to report that Mrs. Fred Hutchinson is ill.

Miss Susan White, who has been visiting with Mrs. George Reekie for the past month, returned to her home on Friday last to nurse her sister, Mrs. Gekell, who is ill.

Rev. and Mrs. Young entertained J. H. Gardiner and family one evening last week.

The Ladies Guild held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. (Rev.) Young on Tuesday last. A very interesting meeting was held by the ladies while the good men spent the few hours storing away ice for summer use.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Isaac and little son, Cecil, who have been visiting at the parental home here during the past winter, returned on Saturday last to their home in the West.

Mr. George Douk and wife, who have been visiting with friends here, returned on Tuesday to their home at Brandon.

Robert Fleming and sister, Mrs. Noble, from the West, are here visiting with their brother, James Fleming.

We are sorry to learn of the death of N. C. Hewson on Sunday, March 7, at his home in Thornbury. His many friends in this part mourn his sudden demise.

Mrs Wm. Loughead is improving.

Quite a number from here attended the funeral of the late Walter Loucks on Thursday last.

Mrs. Robert Fawcett of Duncan visited with Mrs. J. H. Gardiner on Wednesday of last week.

Wilfred Andrews, the young man who ended his life by his own hand in Thornbury last week, died early on Thursday morning and was buried on Friday. While it is reported that he went through many thousands of dollars it would be interesting to know how many in our sister town had a hand in the "distribution of the funds." While we truly regret the sad end of Wilfred Andrews, we trust that others may profit by his folly.—Express.
