County Sale of Live Stock

The first sale of pure bred live stock to be held under the auspices of the Grey County Cattle Breeder's Club was held in Markdale on St. Patrick's day. The sale was not as big a success as would liked to have been by the officers and breeders but it was a good start and it is hoped will pave the way for a bigger and better sale another year.

There were on the sale list some 25 Shorthorns and 7 Herefords of good breeding and mostly in good condition. There were a few that should have been in better condition but this was due to the short notice of the arrangement of the sale. The Shorthorns brought an average of $76 and the Herefords $81.

The highest priced Shorthorn was Prince Victor by Spicy Victor out of the cow Countess. Prince Victor is a good growthy low set thickly fleshed smooth animal that will make a good sire in some herd. He was bought by Victor Bowes and shipped to his brother in Calgary. He was consigned to the sale by the Hon. Dr. Sproule. Another good bull to leave the county was Broadhooks Stamford consigned by Thos. Mercer and sold to J. M. Gardhouse for $100. The dam of this bull is Annie Stamford from one of the best strains of Shorthorns in Scotland and is an exceptionally good milker. The sire of the bull is Broadhooks Golden Fame from the famous Cruickshanks families. Prince Claret, consigned by S. J. McKnight of Epping is of the fashionable Nonpareil families. He is a nice red thickly fleshed bull and is still in the county of Grey, having been bought by Marshall Abercrombie of Meaford for $75. A nice smooth light roan heifer, Tube Rosette, consigned by Thos. Scarf of Durham was sold to Wes Bell of Markdale for $75. She is from the famous Beatrice families and should be a valuable asset in Mr. Bell's herd. A few of the other animals consigned were Aberdeen Broadhooks consigned by Hon. Dr. Sproule and sold to Wm. Meads, Priceville, for $80; Roan Baron, consigned by Thos. Mercer and sold to S. J. McKnight for $70; Broadhooks Banker, consigned by Donald McIlvride, Varney, and sold to W. T. Ellis, Kimberley, for $55; Duke of Leicester, consigned by Thos. Scarf and sold to John Fawcett, Markdale, for $60; Prince of Oaklawn, consigned by Wm. and Jas. Sutherland, Walters Falls, and sold to A. E. Williams, Shelburne, for $90; and the cow Queen Starling 2nd, consigned by Sam Wright, Markdale, and sold to W. R. Ellis, Markdale, for $60.

In the Herefords the bull Homer brought the highest price, $150. He was consigned by R. S. Lee of Chatsworth and is a good bull, having always been a champion in the show ring. He has proven to be a sire of exceptional merit and Robt. Branley is to be congratulated on having purchased such a good animal. Williamsford Bess, a daughter of Homer, was also consigned by Mr. Lee and sold to Wm. Burnett, Priceville, for $85. She is a fine individual and will make a good foundation animal in Mr. Burnett's herd. The two animals, Saugeen Boy and Likely Lad, consigned by the Wstson Bros. of Saugeen Junction, were sold to W. H. Hunter of Orangeville for $78 and $95. These animals should have stayed in the county. Allindale and Lord Kitchener, consigned by Sam Batchellor of Saugeen Junction, sold to F. A. Walker and And. Irving of Markdale. They brought $50 and $78 respectively and will be heard from again as they are good animals. A sweet little heifer, consigned by A. E. Caulfield, Mount Forest, sold to S. J. McKnight for $50.

While unloading ice one day last week Jos. Lewatte, an Adjala farmer, slipped while in act of handling one of the blocks To save himself he put out his hand and the block fell on the member, crushing it badly. It was found necessary to call in Dr. Dunning to dress the hand.

Address and Presentation

On Friday evening, March 19th, friends and neighbors to the number of about 80 assembled at the home of Mr. Jas. Carson and family on the 8th line, to bid them farewell prior to their leaving for their new home at Cypress River, Manitoba.

During the course of the evening an address was read by Mr. Fred Pedlar while Mrs. Wm. Magee and Mrs J. Parliament presented the several members of the family with the following gifts:—To Mr. Carson a suit case, to Geo. a fountain pen, and to Misses Jennie and Maggie each a handsome set of glassware. Mr. Carson, though taken by surprise replied in a neat speech thanking those present on behalf of himself and family for their expressions of friendship and good wishes. Lunch being served, a few hours were spent very pleasently in games, music etc. The following is the address :—

To Mr. James Carson and Family,—We, your neighbors and friends, knowing of your intended departure from our midst, have met here in your home this evening, partly to add one more to the many pleasant meetings in social intercourse we have spent together, and also to express our regret because of your removal from among us. Among the many excellent qualities you possess we will always remember your geniality, broad-minded hospitality and large heartedness, so characteristic of all your family. We ask you to accept these gifts as a slight token of our regard and appreciation of you all as friends, trusting that through them in future years, though you may be far removed from us, you will be reminded of your many friends here. Our earnest wish is that continued prosperity and all good gifts of a kind Providence may attend you where your future home may be found. Signed on behalf of your friends and neighbors on the 8th line.—A. Cameron, J. Parliament, Wm. Magee.

Beaverton, Ont. March 19—Going home from school, the seven year-old son of Andrew Miller was run over by a C. P. R. train and cut in two. The accident occured about seven miles north east of Beaverton.

Thos. Collins died recently in Clandeboye, Ont., aged 100 years and 3 months. He is said to have learned to play the piano when 99 years of age.

A peculiar case was tried at last session of Arthur Division Court. Joseph Phelan had a mortgage of $100 on some property of Grace church. A portion of the principal of this mortgage had been paid off by the Ladies' Guild of the church, of which Mrs Wilkins was treasurer. In 1911 Mrs. Wilkins claimed that she had paid Mr. Phelan $100 on the principal and received a receipt which in breaking up of her home in Arthur, prior to the family's moving to Toronto in 1912 had been lost. The payment of this amount, Mr. Phelan denied having received. The church therefore sued these parties jointly, leaving it to the court to decide which was mistaken. The case occupied several hours, and there was considerable contradictory evidence, Jury brought in a verdict against Mrs. Wilkins.—Star.

A regrettable fire occurred on Monday night last when the Capstan Inn on the beach near the mouth of the river went up in smoke with contents. About 8.30 several residents by the river noticed the hotel was on fire but nothing could be done to save it. The inn was erected three years ago and from the beginning was well patronized and Mr. McLean was forced last year to build an annex for increased accomodation demanded by summer tourists. This also was destroyed. All the furniture was left in the building last fall including the piano and the premises were carefully inspected and every match removed so as to avoid all danger from mice. The building and contents were valued at $12,000, and insured for a little over $7,500.—Stayner Sun.

Seven children from one family were taken into the custody of the Children's Aid society last week by the county agent, Mr. A. E. Trout. The family lived on a 50 acre farm within two miles of Holland Centre and were living under most undesirable conditions. The father appeared to be a shiftless sort, and since the death of the mother two years ago affairs around the home have been going from bad to worse. The education of the children was being neglected, two of them having attended school only about 15 days last year. The oldest girl, 16 years of age, had been in a church only once in her life, others have never been there at all. The agent protested several times to the father who promised to improve conditions, but recent developments of a serious nature in the home made immediate action necessary, with the result that Mr. Trout went out and coralled seven of the nine children amid the stormy protest of the enraged parent. The children are now being cared for at the Children's Shelter.—O.S. Sun.

Mr. Frank Kennedy, a former Orangeville boy, has been appointed to the responsible pasition of assistant manager of the Bell Telephone Co's Toronto exchange.
