A friendly hockey match which attracted considerable attention was pulled off on the rink here Thursday evening of last week between Proton and Flesherton juniors. The game was rather slow and too one-sided to create any wild enthusiasm. The Proton lads are handicapped by not having a proper rink on which to play, but they put up a brave fight nevertheless, but played a losing game to the bitter end, when the score stood 15 5 in favor of Flesherton.

Artemesia Council met in special session on Saturday for the purpose of closing certain roads wanted for the hydro-electric development at Eugenia. Mr. Pope, secretary of the commission, and Mr. McCormick, buyer, were present. An agreement was reached, as explained in the following resolution: Moved by A. Cameron, seconded by W. Aldcorn, "That the Reeve and Clerk are hereby authorized to execute a deed of the roads to be closed under bylaw 788 to the Hydro Electric Power Commission of Ontario in consideration of the sum of $2600 and the execution by the said Commission of an agreement to indemnify the municipality for any damages on account of closing the said roads, the said agreement to be subject to approval of the township solicitor and to be ratified by Act of the Legislature and sign the agreement giving effect to the above."

The Advance man had the great pleasure on Saturday of viewing the great military parade in Toronto when nine thousand troops were in line—the great est military parade that Toronto has ever seen. This mass of troops, four miles long, will not soon be forgotten. With pauses it took exactly one hour and twenty minutes to pass a given point. The remarkable thing about it was that throughout the entire route there was no cheering for the boys in khaki, and the Toronto papers marvel at that—but they need not, for of the 250,000 spectators there were probably very few whose heart strings did not stretch almost for some son or relative in the ranks and the occasion was too serious for such frivolities as cheering. That was left for the return of the troops, "When Johnny comes marching home," crowned with laurels of victory. The last important military parade the writer saw in Toronto was when the troops returned from the Northwest rebellion, and "Gat" Howard rode his gathering in the procession. Patched and dirty, that was a hard looking lot of troops, but there was no lack of cheering on that occasion. The air was rent with the howls of the mob. The affair of Saturday was of such magnitude that that old time parade was dwarfed into insignificance, and we imagine with what air-splitting shouts their welcome home will be. The sad thought about it, and the thought that bridled the tongues of spectators, was that many—very many—of them will not come back.

Then we have the usual stock of all kinds of parlor, bedroom and dining room furniture—desks, chairs, odd pieces, secretaries—Oh! there is too much to enumerate. Come in and go over our stock yourself. Always happy to show goods and to demonstrate that our prices are as low as the lowest.

We are prepared to furnish flowers and floral designs for funerals, weddings, or social gatherings, having arranged with the Dale estate of Brampton to handle their business here.
