Ceylon Clippings

J. Chislett has returned from a three-weeks' visit with Glenelg friends,

Mrs. Bolton moved the past week into the residence lately purchased from E. Purdy.

Mrs. Cummins and Miss Kate McDonald left Wednesday to attend the funeral of their aunt a' Arthur.

Charles Stuart, teacher at Embro, called on his brother here Thursday last.

Mrs. Ellis, Kimberley, also visitd her brother, G. Stuart.

J. W. Cushnie, Toronto, is a visitor at R. Cook's.

Miss Willa McLeod of Toronto spent Easter under the parental roof.

Mr. Griffin, teacher here, is spending vacation with his mother in Toronto.

James McMullen is visiting with his sons in Toronto, and Fred McMullen, Toronto, visited with his mother here.

Miss Sarah Hazard, Owen Sound, spent Easter with her mother on Stone's Line. Mrs. Hazard accompanied her daughter back to Owen Sound for a few days' visit.

Ella Whittaker has returned from Durham.

Miss H. Coleman, Owen Sound, spent Easter with her friend, Miss Ness Collinson.

Mrs. Bailey, Toronto, spent over Sunday at S. Rand's.

Lena Legate, teacher at Irish Lake school, visited with her mother here.

Helen Gibson, Toronto, arrived Friday and will assist in waiting on her mother, who has been ill.

Mr. Parks and Miss Renison of Toronto are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Piper.

Roy Fletcher and Wells Whittaker of Kingston university have enlisted to go to the front, and spent the Easter holidays with their respective parents. They returned Tuesday to Toronto. Robert Tucker, a former resident of this place, now of Kingston university, has also enlisted and spent Easter with his mother at Paisley.

Mrs. Torrey of Lauriston is waiting on her mother, Mrs. Piper, who had her leg broken [particulars elsewhere—Ed.]

Mrs. J. McMillan returned Saturday to resume her studies at Guelph.

The service in the hall on Sabbath afternoon was well attended. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Kerr, gave a very instructive Easter sermon. The hall was very prettily decorated by friends for the occasion with daffodils, carnations, ferns and other plants. Miss Emma Whittaker rendered a very sweet solo.

Mrs. D. Hincks, R.R. 1, is slowly recovering from a severe illness from pneumonia. We are also pleased to report Mr. Hincks about again after an attack of pleurisy.

Riverdale

The glorious spring time is here again and generally speaking it is as welcome as the flowers in May.

Mr. F. Cutting and sister, Miss Mildred, spent Easter with friends in Toronto.

Our Public school teacher, Miss McGill is holidaying at her parental home, Erin.

Judging from reports the maple syrup making industry this season to date has been rather poor.

Gravel Road, Osprey

Winter is hanging on well this year.

The people of the gravel road will be much pleased to see the smiling face of Miss Wright back again after Easter.

Mrs. D. Henry of Toronto is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Morrison; also Miss Baker is spending the holidays with the Misses Morrisons.

We understand Mr. Herb Neil has been improving his house, getting ready for his lady friends return in a short time. No camping out this summer, Herb.

There was a slight mistake in the coon story last week, as the prices stated were rather large. They took the market price and said nothing. Honesty is the best policy after all.

Mr. S. Clayton of Badgero called on Mr. J. Radley one day last week.

Skating is about over for this spring, but Sornberger's pond is very good yet.

Wodehouse Doings

Spring still lingers in the lap of winter.

The Easter service at New England on Sunday afternoon was quite a disappointment. Ed Fawcett of Heathcote, who was to take the service failed to get here and after a short prayer and song service, the meeting was brought to a close.

The sick are but slowly recovering. Mrs. Best, who has been very ill the past month is no better and slight hope is entertained for her recovery.

Stanley Wiley of Toronto Vetinary College is holidaying with his parents here.

Mrs. Edgar Donnelly left Monday for Collingwood to spend some time with her sister, Miss Annie Gilray, who underwent a serious operation in the hospital there on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Cherry were in Clarksburg on Sunday, the latter's brother-in-law, Mr. Clarke, having suffered two paralaytic strokes, with little hope of his recovery.

Mr, and Mrs. W. Lyons and Miss Vera Lanktree of Markdale visited friends here over Sunday.

Will Lawson was in Toronto a few days the past week.

Mesdames. J. B. Hutchinson and J. M. Davis visited the latter's daughter, Mrs. Lundy Johnson, at Vandeleur, on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cullis attended the funeral of the latter's aunt, near Toronto, the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith and family have moved to the 11th line, where Mr. Smith has engaged with Thos. Harvey.

Will Brown had a successful wood bee on Monday.

Otto Foy and Miss Lily Abercrombie, of Rocklyn, visited the latter's brother, Bal, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ward, Kimberley, were callers in our burg the past week.

School is closed for Easter vacation, Miss Wiley holidaying at her home at Riverdale.

Miss Ella McArthur, teacher at Cherry Grove, is holidaying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McArthur.

Wm. Abercrombie and daughter of Thornbury are with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Abercrombie, nursing them over their siege of la grippe.

Much sympathy is extended to Mrs. Robt. Brown in the death of her father, Mr. Henry Wyville, townline A. & E. Deceased was in his 57th year. He had la grippe from which he took congestion of the lungs, which developed into pleuro-pneumonia. Hope was still held out for his recovery but he passed away very suddenly early Wednesday morning. A large number from here attended the funeral which took place on Friday afternoon to Ebenezer cemetery. Rev. Dudgeon of Flesherton preached a comforting sermon to the many friends assembled in the church, where the remains were taken before burial. He was assisted by Rev. Phalen, of Markdale, who also assisted in the service at the grave, Mr. Wyville will indeed be long missed in the neighborhood, where he was beloved by all, being of a kindly disposition and hospitable in his home, where his loss is keenly felt by his bereaved wife and family. The sympathy of the community is extended to them, especially the mother and daughter, Laura, the former having her arm broken a short time ago and has not yet recovered from la grippe, while Laura, who had an attack of appendicitis, is in a very delicate state of health.

East Mountain

Some of the people in this part are busy making maple syrup.

Thompson Allen had a very successful wood bee on Friday. In the evening he gave a party to his friends and neighbors.

Chas. Martin, accompanied by J. MacKenzie from Duncan, attended Miss Beecroft's sale at Eugenia on Thursday.

The Misses S. and M. Smart and A. Allen are home from Flesherton High School for the Easter holidays.

Miss Jennie Moon is holidaying at her home in Eady.

Miss Luella Gorley has gone to Markdale to learn the millinery.

Kimberley Budget

Very muddy roads at present.

Henry Lawrence of Trout Creek spent the past week with friends in this vicinity and was the guest of his mother, Mrs Geo. Lawrence of "Silver Brook" farm.

Rev. Fish, a Methodist clergyman of Owen Sound will give a lecture in the Methodist church on Thursday evening, April 15, at 8 o'clock on "Rome in its connection with mixed marriages" and "bilingualism." Everybody welcome. Admission free.

Mr. Allen Watkins who has been visiting friends in our burg for some months returned to his home in the West on Monday last. Allen was a genial chap and made many warm friends while here. Here's that his shadow may never grow less.

The pastor, Rev. Marshall, occupied the pulpit in the Methodist church on Sunday evening last and preached a powerful discourse on Easter.

J. E. Hammond, commercial specialist of the Meaford High School is spending the Easter holidays at his parental home.

Jas. Fawcett is slowly recovering from a severe attack of la grippe.

Harvey Cornfield brought to our burg on Friday last a King Edict colt that was easily the best one we have seen for a long time. Harvey has taken care of the colt all winter and its appearance indicates that he is no amateur as a horse conditioner. Harvey is truly a "chip off the old block," as there are not many men will "put it over" George in handling the ribbons.

Misses Marjory and Annie Hyslop of Eugenia are visiting at present with their aunt, Mrs. James Walker.

Charles Stuart of the Embro public school staff, is spending the Easter holidays at the parental home.

Misses Nellie and Enna Burritt, also Elsie Ferris, who are attending Meaford high school, are holidaying at their respective homes.

Ernest Proctor has purchased the property of John Magee in the south end of the village.

Miss Mae Hutchinson, teacher of the junior department of our public school, and Miss Katie Walters, are visiting at present with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stuart of Thornbury.

Feversham Items

Ira Perigo, who has been in Owen Sound with the second contingent training for several weeks, spent the week end with relatives.

Will Perigo of Toronto spent a few days with friends here last week.

Mrs. A. Stewart and Miss Reta Buskin of Flesherton spent Sunday with friends here.

Miss Mae Whiteoak of Toronto spent the holidays with her parents in this village.

Will Wideman and family have moved from the village to Mr. Hunter's farm on the 8th line.

John Speer of Clarksburg spent a few days with his sisters here.

Our teachers have gone to their homes for the Easter holidays.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. George Pallister to our village.

Mr. Knibbs has sold his property to Robt. McGirr, and has moved onto his farm near Rob Roy.

Died—At the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Geo. Sayers, on Friday, April 2nd, Mrs. Wm. Dand, sr., at the great age of 92 years and 7 months. Mrs. Dand was one of Osprey's early settlers. Her husband died some years ago. A large gathering of friends and neighbors attended the funeral in Feversham on Sunday.

Victoria Corners

Mrs. George Ludlow was called home to Clinton on Saturday to see her mother who is very ill.

Miss Violet Stevens visited over the week end at Hanover with Miss Niergarth.

School is closed for this week.

Mr. H. H. Gallagher visited his sister at Alliston who is suffering from a fall.

Mrs. H. H. Gallagher ran a nail through the palm of her hand one day last week.

Miss Hargrave of Warcham visited Miss Ella Best at Easter.

Eugenia Paragraphs

Easter has passed with beautiful weather. Rev. McVicar treated the people to a fine discourse and the music by the choir was appropriate for the occasion. A grodly number was present.

Millie McMullen, Card Graham and Mrs. L Latimer spent Easter in Toronto

Mrs. Frank Thompson and John Rennison are both on the sick list but are improving.

Mrs. McMullen spent the past week with her daughter, Mrs. Hammond of Priceville

Donalda and Fern Stuart of Kimberley are visiting friends here at present.

Miss Shaw of Toronto is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Williams.

Miss Cooey, who is gone to Ceylon, is much missed by the young people, with whom she was a general favorite.

Mr. and Mrs. Foester entertained their friends to a party on Good Friday evening. All report an enjoyable time.

Mrs. Woodburn has gone to visit her friend, Mrs. Thompson of Flesherton, and attend the wedding of her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs George Cairns of Flesherton spent the week end with Mr. H. Cairns.

Robert Williams, who went to Hamilton to undergo an operation for goitre, is being successfully treated, and his many friends will be pleased to see him home again.

Miss A. Williams is visiting friends in Dundalk.

Annanias and Sapphira must have been resurrected from the dead and are just as busy as they were 1900 years ago.

Mrs. Granger Graham of Toronto and daughter, Eleanor, are visiting her mother, Mrs. W. Armstrong.

We have very bad roads at present, yet our faithful mail carrier never fails to bring us the news every day.

Priceville Jottings

The weather is still cool; signs of a change soon; big blizzard Sunday afternoon.

The roads are still bad, some driving to church on Sunday with cutters, but the going was bad.

The sick are getting a little better, but some are poorly yet.

David Hincks' whole family were laid up for the last couple of weeks, but are getting better again, but Mrs. Hicks still keeps poorly from the effects of pneumonia. She is considered out of danger now.

Arch. McCuaig of Top Cliff attended a meeting of the Grey & Bruce Insurance Co., held at Hanover on Saturday of last week.

Norman McDougall's sale on Tuesday, the 23rd March, went well under the hammer of Auctioneer McPhail.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McLean, townline, Artemesia, a week ago, a son.

A happy event took place at the home of Mrs. Charles McDonald, south line, Glenelg, on the evening of the 24th of March, 1915, when her youngest daughter, Miss Christena, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. James Brown, jr., son of Mr. James Brown, sr., of McWilliams. The ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. J. A. Matheson, M. A., B. A., at six o'clock in the evening. The bride was given away by her brother, Archibald, while Mrs. Zufeldt, sister of the groom played the wedding march. The bride, who was unattended, was very tastefully dressed for the happy occasion. After congratulations, the guests who were near relatives of both parties, sat down to a sumptuous table prepared for the occasion. After all were satisfied, the evening was spent in music, consisting of violin selections by Messrs. Archibald and Charles McDonald, accompanied on the organ by the bride. Mrs. Zufeldt gave some fine instrumental and vocal selections, while Arch. McDonald gave some bag pipe selections. The parties all left for their different homes before the big hour of 12, wishing the young couple long life and prosperity in their voyage. The presents to the happy couple were both costly and numerous. They are now happily domiciled in their cosy home at McWilliams, Glenelg township.—Chronicle.

Percy Scott was sentenced to death for the murder of F. Lewis in Van Horne township, near Dryden, in January.
