Choral practice at Dr. Murray's on Wednesday evening. Five rehearsals only, until the concert, May 21. We need every member present, and every member needs the practice from now until the 21st.

On Tuesday Harry Vought was before Magistrate Ennis on a charge of vagrancy. Vought has been here about two weeks, not working, though paying his way. His strange actions apparently set people thinking. As nothing could be proven against Vought, the case was dismissed—Markdale Standard.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Stewart of Teeswater spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Harrison when on their way to their new home in Owen Sound, where Mr. Stewart takes the position lately vacated by Mr. Ashdown of that place with the C. P. R.

A gang of men started last week to lay out the pole line from the power house to Mount Forest, by way of Durham. This line follows the pipe line up the mountain, then through Eugenia and on to Flesherton and Durham to Mount Forett. The line will branch here and also run to Dundalk and Shelburne. The Owen Sound line will strike the gravel a mile and a quarter this side of Markdale and follow the gravel to Owen Sound. The operation of planting the poles begins this week, these being all in place now from Eugenia to Flesherton.

The city of Guelph has decided that it will not pay any more of the war tax than it can help. Instead of mailing monthly accounts as in the past it will have them delivered by messenger in order to save one cent on each missive. Now, how does that strike the average Canadian? To us it seems like a picayune piece of business. No town outside Toronto has received more attention from the government than Guelph, and to see it thus crawl in order to save a few dollars at the expense of the government is enough to persuade the government to remove the prison farm and agricultural college to some place where the people have exhibited a little more patriotic sentiment than has the Royal City.

Court Vandeleur will celebrate at Vandeleur on Dominion Day. All members are requested to be present at the next regular meeting as there is important business to transact. A15

Division Court was held here by Judge Widdifield Wednesday of last week. There was only one case of any importance tried, that of R. J. Porter of Proton against the executors of the late Frank Moore, damages for cattle eating corn and turnips. Porter was allowed $45.

From the Firing Line

Mrs. Wm. Davis has kindly loaned us the two following letters which she received from her son, Tom, on the firing line last week.

March 13, 1915.

Dear mother—Received your letter this morning dated Feb. 16. We are going back into the trenches to-night; we were in for 9 days, coming out last Tuesday night. We have moved a few times since. Had a bath, clean underwear and now I am feeling fine, We strike some great places to sleep in this country, some times in schools, pool rooms, barns and stables. Any old place seems good enough. We can always sleep. Our Canadian Artillery is raising cane with the Germans to-day, but are getting no reply so far. The weather is getting quite spring like and the farmers have started seeding. Our Battalion suffered a few losses while they were in the trenches. Only one man was killed in my company, he was shot through the head with a rifle bullet. Sometimes they would shell our trenches, but not often they killed, I think, with their shells. Our guns are shaking this old barn this morning. I am afraid it will fall down soon. I am glad you are all well as this leaves me O. K. I have lots of everything.

As ever,
Tom.

March 20th, 1915

Dear mother—Received your letter, also Earnie's, last night, dated March 2nd, and was glad to hear you were all well. We are having fine weather here now, only yesterday there was a heavy snow storm, but today it is all gone and the sun is shining beautifully. We are back in our billet again, after our period in the trenches, which is an old barn partly wrecked by shell fire. Our Canadian artillery is all around us, just firing an occasional shot to let them know we are still alive. The German artillery, it seems, cannot find our guns, but ours seldom miss a shot. When we were in the trenches our guns started to shell their trenches, 300 yards from us, you could see sand bags flying in all directions and they were firing from 1 to 4 miles. The range is directed by aircraft. One day they started to shell our trenches and I'll tell you I took to the dug out like a ground hog. No one was hurt that day. Two rifles were broken and one fellow had the front cut clean out of his great coat. It's just a game of chance. The next fellow to me was shot on a bridge when we were going in, so I stayed with him and bound up his wound and helped to carry him to the dressing station. He's only slightly wounded. To day we get a bath and clean underwear, but not before it's needed.—Tom.

J. J. Carruthers of Avening has a horse called Sandy, which he can start from home about 4 o'clock in the evening, and he will go to the school yard, wait until the children come out and bring them safely home. In the morning his little boy, Harold, 9 years old, will drive him to school, tie up the lines, and Sandy will return.

To show her patriotism, Miss Dorothy Walker, the twelve-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Walker, Meaford, gave a miniature concert at her home on Friday afternoon and charged an admission fee of 5 cents. By this means she raised the sum of seventy cents which she turned over to the Patriotic Fund as a donation. The program consisted of songs, recitations, etc., and was contributed by her girl friends. This method is an unique one and one to be commended in one of her tender years.—Express.

For instance we have rockers for mother, easy chairs for father, beautiful pictures and frames for sister, handsleighs for little brother, little rockers, dolls beds and wicker chairs and other things for little sister—something for everybody. Come in and see the latest thing in dolls beds and rockers.

Then we have the usual stock of all kinds of parlor, bedroom and dining room furniture—desks, chairs, odd pieces, secretaries—Oh! there is too much to enumerate. Come in and go over our stock yourself. Always happy to show goods and to demonstrate that our prices are as low as the lowest.

We are prepared to furnish flowers and floral designs for funerals, weddings, or social gatherings, having arranged with the Dale estate of Brampton to handle their business here.
