RURAL WET DELIVERY

After the Mississippi's flood waters had topped the levee at several points near St. Loius, the postman had to splash twice (or more) to deliver letters to this mailbox on the city's outskirts.

Tough War Map Paper Developed

Paper you can write on and erase satisfactorily when it's soaking wet has been developed for use in war maps.

Maps printed on this paper, the United States Commerce Department announced recently, retain their strength after being soaked with water or oil, trampled in the mud, subsequently washed with soap and water or dipped in gasoline.

The paper now is being produced commercially in quantities sufficient to meet the armed forces' needs.

Reservations Now For Sea Voyages

Whatever the future of the transatlantic air services may be there is still a demand for sea voyages.

The Cunard Line is being kept very busy with reservations in the Queen Mary and the Queen Elizabeth for first voyages after the war.

Both liners are now in "battle dress," but they will be put into normal commission as soon as possible after the war.

The Queen Elizabeth has yet to make a commercial voyage. Her first trip will be regarded as her maiden voyage, and the Cunard office in New York has an impressive passenger list already in reservations.

Modern Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

1. Is a high centerpiece in good taste on the dinner table?

2. Is it necessary that one return a first call, even if one does not desire to continue the acquaintance?

3. Is it necessary that one acknowledge a written invitation to a tea?

4. If a bride is wearing a veil over her face, what is the proper time to raise the veil?

5. Is it correct to spread jelly on bread when at the table?

6. Where is the proper place to write the date in a social letter?

Answers

1. No; the centerpiece should be low enough so that the view of persons sitting on opposite sides of the table is not obstructed. 2. Yes; and this first call should be made within ten days. 3. One is not obliged to do so. 4. At the conclusion of the ceremony, and it is considered the duty of the maid of honor when she hands back the bouquet to the bride. 5. No; the correct way is to eat a portion of bread followed by a bit of jelly, which is conveyed to the mouth on the tip of the fork. 6. It is usually written on the last page, at the left of the signature.

Have You Heard?

Smith: "What's this check stub, one pullover—$25? I don't want to appear like a cheapskate, but isn't that a lot of money for a pullover?"

Wife: "The man on the motorcycle said it was the regular price."

Smith: "You got it from a man on a motorcycle?"

Wife. "Yes, I went through a red light, and he drove up and said, 'Pull over.'"

—o—

The despondent business man climbed wearily into his luxurious car.

"Where to, sir?" the chauffeur asked.

Drive off a cliff, James," was the reply; "I'm committing suicide."

—o—

With his usual long-wndedness, the bore was describing one of his hair-breadth escapes.

"There was I," he said, "on a lonely road, miles from anywhere, with a blazing car. What do you think I did?"

One weary listener stifled his yawns long enough to reply: "Took a long breath and blew it out!"

—o—

"When I was travelling in Russia they showed me a bed twenty feet long."

"Well, I dunno—sounds like a lot of bunk to me."

WHAT SCIENCE IS DOING

Vivicillin ⅛

A new drug that may well play an important role in checking invasion casualties and reducing the death toll has been developed in London laboratories. The drug, known as vivicillin ⅛ is a development of penicillin and can be produced in large quantites at comparatively low cost.

Recent experiments conducted in Wellhouse Hospital, Barnett, London, have shown it to be effective in septicemia and hemophilia cases, as well as in cases where burns had endangered the lives of patients.

The results astonish doctors, who, however, make no extravagant claims at this stage of the new drug's efficacy.

A statement issued at the hospital emphasized that vivicillin is not a cure-all, although it has been used with encouragng results and its application in wider fields is expected.

"Penicillin is not available for use by civilian hospitals and medical practitioners, and it would appear that the chief value of vivicillin lies in its comparatively low cost of manufacture and ease of production in quantity, making it available to a large mass of the population so far unprovided for."

The drug also has been used with remarkable success in cases of peritonitis and acute mastoiditis, where one to four injections were made. In several cases of infected burns and septic wounds the drug has been administered externally with excellent results, it was reported.

Nazi Glider Tug Has Five Motors

For months, fliers who returned from trips over Germany with reports of a five-motored German plane were pooh-poohed for their pains, says Newsweek. But now Allied officials know definitely that such a craft exists. One was shot down, along wtih the two gliders it was towing, over France. The monstrosity is actually two Heinkel 111 bomber-fuselages hitched together by a long wing and unconnected anywhere else. The fifth motor is mounted in the middle of this wing. In performance, it's apparently slow, but powerful. However, reports which have not yet officially been confirmed say a bomber version of this glider tug has been in service over England.

2,500 Home Defence Troops 'Go Active'

More than 2,500 home defence troops stationed at Vernon, B.C. have volunteered for active service overseas, Major-Gen. G. R. Pearkes, general officer commanding-in-chief of Pacific Command, said last week in an address congratulating the volunteers on their appeals to "go active."

"A month ago there were less than 400 active servicemen in the four battalions at Vernon station," Gen.Pearkes said. "Today more than 2,500 ofifcers, N.C.O.'s and men have volunteered."

Sousa's band was heard only once by his mother. It made her so nervous that she never went to hear it again.

THE BEST OF FRIENDS

Friendship, just a perfect friendship, has sprung up between white rabbit and young fox at San Francisco zoo. Here, the usually amicable pair are having slight argument about who is to get first bite of carrot. Dispute was easily settled.

Protecting Clothing From Clothes Moth

There are two main points to be observed in the protection of household articles subject to damage by moths. The articles to be stored should be thoroughly clean, and the receptacle in which they are placed should not have the slightest hole or crack through which a moth might enter. If there be such a means of entrance, the trunk, box, drawer, bag or whatever receptacle is used, is not moth-proof.

Washable articles before being stowed away should be washed. Clothing, blankets, and such-like articles, should be thoroughly brushed. Preferably, where possible, they should be sent to the dry cleaners before being placed in storage. To reduce the chance of infestation, moth balls or other repellent may be used. In trunks or boxes they may be scattered about, but a much tidier way is to obtain pin-up medallion repellents which may be bought at most stores. They may be pinned in cupboards, and on the inside of the lids of trunks and boxes. The fumes from these chemicals are deadly to insects, and being heavier than air they penetrate to the bottom of the receptacle. Particularly with bags, it is easy to suspend the repellent near the top of the bag above the hanger, and away from the clothes. Where naphthalene flakes can be obtained, an effective method is to enclose an ounce or two in a home-made cheese cloth bag and suspend it from the top. Moth balls may be used in the same way.

Poles Flee Reich In German Plane

Two young Poles with prewar pilot training escaped form Germany in a Nazi training plane and landed in Sweden recently.

The youths said they dressed in stolen German uniforms and presented themselves at the Breslau Flying School, claiming they had orders to make a test flight. The Germans, they said, fueled the plane for them and 3½ hours later they landed in Sweden.

YOU NEVER KNOW WHAT 'DUDS' may cost. Baby chicks that don't live to maturity can run up quite a bill for feed and lodging and brooder-room before they "kick the bucket". And the sad part is these "quitters" take up space and care that might otherwise be given to worthwhile specimens so that every day the "duds" live increases loss. You avoid much risk when you get chicks that are Government Approved from blood-tested breeders, of promising livability, from Tweddle Hatcheries. Start all the chicks you can handle; there'll be a market for every one of them—and for their eggs—and get Tweddle Chicks. Day old and older—non-sexed, pullets and cockerels of all popular breeds. Send for 1944 catalogue and reduced prices for May and June delivery. Prompt delivery guaranteed, also bargains in started chicks. Tweddle Chick Hatcheries Limited, Fergus, Ontario.
