The frost of Thursday night last does not appear to have done as much damage as was anticipated. It will affect the hay and clover crop slightly but not materially. Fruit of all kinds appears to have pulled through all right here.

A cablegram was received at The Advance office Sunday evening from Arnold Thurston, announcing the safe arrival in England of the troopship Missanabie, which sailed from Montreal on Thursday, May 20. The voyage was a swift and pleasant one.

Rev. T. Ford Barker, for fourteen years a missionary in Turkey, occupied the Methodist pulpit both morning and evening on Sunday last. At the evening service he spoke for an hour and twenty minutes to an intensely interested audience.

The citizens of Flesherton, through the Red Cross Society, have presented the following soldier boys now at the front, or on the way, with wrist watches: Bert Jamieson, T. Davis, W. Wilcock, Emerson Bellamy and Arnold Thurston. These useful little instruments will be forwarded to the boys.

Thomas Pallister, a farmer living near Berkeley, and at one time residing near this village, disappeared from his home on Tuesday of last week. Searching parties kept up the hunt until Friday when the missing man was found dead in a field not far from his home. Heart failure was the cause of death.

Later word received from Bert Jamieson announces that he has been removed from Boulogne hospital to London. A letter from Bert last week announced his improvement and showed that he was quite cheerful. His removal would denote that he continues to recover from the effect of the gas.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church have presented the church with a new combination organ. The instrument is a good one, listed at $1150, and was delivered last week. It was heard at the service on Sunday for the first time and pronounced very satisfactory. It is sweet in tone and of good volume.

Constable John Hales suffered a painful accident on Saturday while working on a verandah. One of the beams on which he was standing broke and precipitated him to the ground. He was picked up unconscious and carried to his home. Dr. Little was summoned and found a couple of ribs broken. It will be some days before the constable will again be able to take up his duties.

Markdale Baseball team journeyed down here on Monday night for a game with the locals and were defeated by the score of 11-4. This was one of the best games of the season and some very snappy fielding was done by both teams. McAuley was opposed to Walden in the box, and had it over his opponent like a tent and easily deserved his victory. In a game with Orange Valley on Friday night last the best the boys could do was a tie 12-12, when the game was called on account of darkness. This game will likely be played off next week.

Walkerton

Nora Ernst, a young Walkerton girl, was arrested by Chief Ferguson at the home of Jack Lundy on Saturday night, about 12 o'clock, and on being brought before Magistrate Tolton, was remanded to the jail here until Saturday afternoon next at 3 o'clock, when she will be tried on a charge of vagrancy.

Mr. J. A. Mitchell, passenger conductor on the local G. T. R. line, was arraigned before Magistrate Tolton in Walkerton on Thursday last, on the charge of fishing on the mill-pond, Mildmay, without permission from the Saugeen Fishing Club, who control the fishing rights on the pond. The conductor admitted his guilt and was fined $10 and costs or a total levy of $18, for this minor offence.

While Mr. Herman Becker of Walkerton was working at his trade as a bricklayer in Kincardine on Tuesday of last week, the scaffold on which he was standing gave way and precipitated him to the ground, some twenty-five feet below. In falling Becker badly scratched his face on some of the boards, but the worse was yet to come, for lighting on his side and shoulder he was so badly bruised and battered that he has since been laid off work. From the nature of the mishap, however, he would seem to have been fortunate in escaping without any broken bones or other serious injury.

Mr. Alphonse Basil Klein, for twenty-two years junior judge of Bruce County, has been promoted to the position of senior judge, succeeding the late Judge William Barrett. The announcement of his appointment was officially made known last week, and the many friends of the Judge throughout the country are now congratulating him on his promotion. The new junior judge of the county is Mr. A. M. Greig, a well-known barrister of Almonte, Lanark County, and who will now have charge of the Division Court circuit of Bruce, which for nearly a quarter of century Judge Klein has been traversing. Mr. Greig is making preparations to move to Walkerton to take up his new duties.

Robert Kerr, an automobile agent from the local option town of Kincardine, came into Walkerton on Monday to demonstrate a new Reo car with the object of making a sale here, but patronizing the local bars too freely he became so lit up with booze that his hand, it seems, lost its cunning, and while steaming from Walkerton in a zig-zagging fashion ran off the road into the ditch at Mr. James McCarter's farm, west of town, the force of the impact completely demolishing one of the front wheels, and damaging the car to the extent of about $150.00. The wrecked auto was towed back into town, and a charge of driving an auto while under the influence of liquor was laid by Chief Ferguson against Kerr. The accused admitted his guilt and was fined $50 and costs or a total assessment of $54 by Magistrate Tolton here on Tuesday. Kerr claims, it seems, that this was the first time he was ever the worse of liquor, and as this initial spree proved so costly to his purse, it is not likely that he will soon go up against the booze game again.—Bruce Herald and Times.

CANADA'S NATIONAL NEWSPAPER

P.S.—According to Lord Kitchener, the big war has only begun.

"The War Summary"

Almost from the very day the great European war began in August last, the outstanding feature in Canadian journalism covering the conflict has been "The War Summary" daily on pages 1 and 2 of THE GLOBE. In the concisest possible form the writer has given his readers a pen picture of the developments in all parts of the world. While the details of the movements along the extended frontiers have not been overlooked, the readers of THE GLOBE have been enabled to follow intelligently and with confidence the general outlines of the stupendous conflict. "The War Summary" of THE GLOBE is reproduced daily by several papers throughout the Dominion.

The Editorial Page

THE GLOBE on its editorial page has striven to place before the public in proper perspective the broad background of the titanic struggle. This series of articles has attracted the attention not only of the Canadian people, but of leading men and journals in all parts of the world. The causes leading up to the war, the elements entering into its conduct, and the results likely to flow from the cessation of hostilities have been dealt with in that bold and clear-cut form characteristic of THE GLOBE'S editorial page.

News Service

The above features, in addition to a cable and letter service from the front unmatched in Canada, have placed THE GLOBE far in the lead of Canadian papers, and partly explain the phenomenal increase of 33 1-3 per cent. in THE GLOBE'S circulation during recent months.

Other Features

The sporting pages, the financial and commercial pages, the woman's pages, etc., etc., with the additional pages in Wednesday's issue devoted to "Farm and Country Life," are maintained at a high standard of excellence, a standard that has justified THE GLOBE in its title of Canada's National Newspaper, and has given it by many thousands the largest circulation of any morning paper in the Dominion.

Local and City Papers

By all means take your local paper, but in the field of metropolitan newspapers THE GLOBE unquestionably offers you the greatest value to be had in Canada. Order it to-day. 25 cents per month—one dollar for four months—three dollars per year.

Rod and Gun

"The Glittering Lure" is the title given by Bonnycastle Dale to a story of before-the-season fishing in the opening pages of June Rod and Gun which is published at Woodstock, Ont., by W. J. Taylor, Limited. "Honest Weight" is an amusing tale of two rival fishermen as related by one of the French Canadian guides who accompanied them on their outing after "de beeg wan." "Three Swedes there were" is also a humorous story relating the experiences of a "vulgar, rambling trio" showing how everything turns to ashes to those without a purpose. "Sport in and around the Rocky Mountains" "Carefree Days in Newfoundland," etc., and the regular departments which latter are full of interest to the fisherman and gunner make up a very interesting early summer issue.

For instance we have rockers for mother, easy chairs for father, beautiful pictures and frames for sister, handsleighs for little brother, little rockers, dolls beds and wicker chairs and other things for little sister—something for everybody. Then we have the usual stock of all kinds of parlor, bedroom and dining room furniture—desks, chairs, odd pieces, secretaries—Oh! there is too much to enumerate. Come in and go over our stock yourself. Always happy to show goods and to demonstrate that our prices are as low as the lowest.

We are prepared to furnish flowers and floral designs for funerals, weddings, or social gatherings, having arranged with the Dale estate of Brampton to handle their business here.
