Dear David,

My Watchman-Warder usually brings a few small surprises but the last edition carried the grand daddy of them all. Congratulations on your nomination to Lindsay's "Citizen of the Year", a title I am sure you richly deserve. Since you have spent a lifetime writing about and publishing photos of other people, it is only fair that you should have your day on the front page.

I have just returned from the Quebec International Bouspied (my 10th) where I received a scroll and badge of the life member in the Bleeders Club there - a very nice token. I met a couple of Lindsay Earls there, one a neighbour of Ralph Wakelin.

Helen and I celebrated our silver wedding anniversary last year but took a trip through the U.S. and didn't get to Lindsay. We may make it this year and if we do will stop in and say "hello".

The best of good health to you and congratulations once again Sincerely, David L.
