An assault case from Irish Lake was tried here before James McMullen, J.P., one day last week. Frank Sullivan charged Angus Campbell, Angus McDonald and James Connelly with having played the German by all three attacking him. Campbell was fined $5 and costs; Angus McDonald $2 and costs, and Connelly was dismissed. The case appears to have been a wanton attack and the fines would have been heavier only Sullivan asked for leniency as he only desired protection.

Friday night last saw the justice mill here working overtime on liquor cases, with Magistrates McMullen and McTavish attending to the hopper. Constable Cook had seized four hampers of liquor at the station, all addressed to different parties—three of them local and one to a Feversham citizen. The three local cases were returned to the consignees and the Feversham case was confiscated as it contained twice the amount that the law allows, and had it been seized on the premises of the consignee would have made him liable to a $300 fine. Another case was that of a Eugenia man who was charged with being intoxicated in a local option municipality. This was not proven to the satisfaction of the magistrates and he was dismissed. It was nearly eleven o'clock when court adjourned.

Wants to Fight at seventy

An old man aged 70 years, living near Marmion in Sullivan Tp., tried to enlist with the 37th battalion at Owen Sound, says the Chesley Enterprise. He was refused on account of his age, but has been so stirred by the sinking of the Lusitania, that he declares he will go down to Toronto to try to enlist, and if refused there will pay his own passage to England and cross over to the continent to take a pot shot at the Huns.

Exciting Man Hunt At Owen Sound

Owen Sound, June 3.—After an exciting chase lasting all day and several exchanges of shots, the police, aided by a posse, arrested two men alleged to be among the most dangerous criminals who have been in Owen Sound in years. Robert J. Bell is now in jail with a bullet hole in one hand, while John Williams is uninjured, but in jail safely.

For the past month the town has been subjected to a series of burglaries which have baffled the police. Last night Bell and Williams, who, it is alleged, have been responsible for these, went into Forbes Miller's garage, it is said, stole a motorcycle and set out tandem for Meaford. In the morning the police were notified, and were soon on the track of the two men. Mr. Miller, the owner of the garage, joined in the chase, with two chums.

The motorcycle stalled a few miles out toward Meaford, and as they were repairing it, the pursuers came into sight, whereupon Bell and Williams took to the bush. The whole police force went after them, and the search for them covered several miles of hill and farm through Sydenham township. Shortly after noon P. C. Thompson and P. C. Bone encountered the wanted men near Annan, and as soon as they got close Bell drew an automatic and opened fire, Williams following suit. The police drew their guns, and a spirited exchange of shots followed, Bell being shot through the hand. But the two got away into some dense evergreen bush. Meantime Chief Foster enlisted the aid of several citizens with rifles, who came in an an automobile and began a systematic search of the bush.

About 6 o'clock the hunted men came to the shore of the harbor, where it is about four miles wide, and taking a rowboat from the shore, set out to cross to the western side. As they went they were seen by P. C. Carson, who enlisted the aid of the owner of a motorboat which was coming into the harbor. With one of the posse, John McKeen and Carson set out, and shortly after overtook the fleeing men, first sending a rifle bullet over their heads to stop them. Before surrendering themselves the two threw away their automatics. They were strangers in Owen Sound, and had been here but a few weeks.

Mr. James Catney, of Fordwich, has in captivity a pure white robin. There is no doubt as to its genuineness, as it was hatched in Mr. Catney's garden under his personal supervision. Both the parent birds were ordinary robins as were also the fellow nestlings."

Harry C. Hewson, eldest son of Judge Hewson, Gore Bay, was accidently killed by C. P. R. train at Locust Hill on Tuesday of last week. He was endeavoring to board a moving train and was thrown under the wheels. Both legs were severed. He was rushed to Toronto hospital but expired before he reached there.

"The War Summary"

Almost from the very day the great European war began in August last, the outstanding feature in Canadian journalism covering the conflict has been "The War Summary" daily on pages 1 and 2 of THE GLOBE. In the concisest possible form the writer has given his readers a pen picture of the developments in all parts of the world. While the details of the movements along the extended frontiers have not been overlooked, the readers of THE GLOBE have been enabled to follow intelligently and with confidence the general outlines of the stupendous conflict. "The War Summary" of THE GLOBE is reproduced daily by several papers throughout the Dominion.

The Editorial Page

THE GLOBE on its editorial page has striven to place before the public in proper perspective the broad background of the titanic struggle. This series of articles has attracted the attention not only of the Canadian people, but of leading men and journals in all parts of the world. The causes leading up to the war, the elements entering into its conduct, and the results likely to flow from the cessation of hostilities have been dealt with in that bold and clear-cut form characteristic of THE GLOBE'S editorial page.

News Service

The above features, in addition to a cable and letter service from the front unmatched in Canada, have placed THE GLOBE far in the lead of Canadian papers, and partly explain the phenomenal increase of 33 1-3 per cent. in THE GLOBE'S circulation during recent months.

Other Features

The sporting pages, the financial and commercial pages, the woman's pages, etc., etc., with the additional pages in Wednesday's issue devoted to "Farm and Country Life," are maintained at a high standard of excellence, a standard that has justified THE GLOBE in its title of Canada's National Newspaper, and has given it by many thousands the largest circulation of any morning paper in the Dominion.

Local and City Papers

By all means take your local paper, but in the field of metropolitan newspapers THE GLOBE unquestionably offers you the greatest value to be had in Canada. Order it to-day. 25 cents per month—one dollar for four months—three dollars per year.

P.S.—According to Lord Kitchener, the big war has only begun.

Child Fatally Scalded

A most distressing accident, which resulted fatally, occurred at William Menary's, Amaranth, on Friday afternoon, when his eldest child, Margaret Ruth, four years of age, stumbled into a pot of boiling water. The mother had just lifted the vessel off the stove, and was putting in some wood when the child walked across the floor and stumbled into the water. Owing to unusually weak eyes the little tot could not see the dish. She was terribly scalded from the abdomen to below the knees and although every energy was exerted to relieve her suffering and preserve her life, the shock was too much. The grief and sorrow to the family can be readily appreciated, and this is no doubt intensified because of the unusual care bestowed on the girl because of her affliction.—Grand Valley Star.
