Vandeleur Happenings

On June 18, 1890, the marriage of Mr. Joseph Buchanan of Vandeleur and Miss Martha Reid of Reaboro was solemnized by Rev. V. W. Dewey of Reaboro Their silver anniversary was celebrated last Friday on the same farm to which Mr. Buchanan brought his bride twenty-five years ago. About sixty guests gathered to present their good wishes to the bride and groom, not forgetting beautiful and useful gifts in silver and chinaware. A pleasant evening was spent in games and felicitous speeches The following guests were present from a distance: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ventress and Master E. Purdy, Bobcaygeon; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reid, Mr. Wm. Reid, Miss K. Reid, Mr. K. Reid and Master E. Reid, Reaboro; Mr. S. H. Buchanan of Owen Sound, and Rev. Jsmes and Mrs. Dudgeon, Flesherton.

Miss Ruby Stone of Stone's Line spent the week end with her friend, Miss M. Leslie of this place.

We are sorry to report Mrs. George Pritchard laid up with an attack of erysipelas.

E. Baker, R Alcox and S. J. Bowles attended the Conservative convention in Durham on Friday last.

The Women are Workers

The Annual meeting of the Centre Grey Women's Institute was held in Clarksburg Armouries on June 16th. Representatives were there from Rocklyn, Kimberley, Heathcote, Badjeros, Vandeleur, Eugenia, Hopeville, Dundalk, Clarksburg, Thornbury, Ravenna, Mill Creek and Flesherton.

President Mrs. Buchanan of Ravenna occupied the chair, and reports were given from each of the branches showing all to be in a flourishing condition.

Each branch has done good work for the Red Cross and Patriotic funds, giving a total of over $1000, and a great many garments were gathered for the Belgian Relief fund, and knitting and sewing and other work was done for the soldiers.

Grey County Convention will be held in Durham on August 26.

The following officers were then elected:—President, Mrs. Buchanan, Ravenna; Vice Pres., Mrs. J. Williams, Eugenia; Sec.-Treas., Mrs. B. Carruthers, Kimberley.

Several splendid papers were given by the Branches.

A dainty lunch was served by the ladies of the Thornbury and Clarksburg Branches. The Farmers Institute who had met downstairs shared in this part of the program. The meeting was closed by singing God Save the King.

Kimberley Budget

Hadden Hutchinson, one of the popular young men of our burg, received a nasty clip on the side of the head from a colt that he was breaking in recently, rendering him unconscious for over 24 hours. We are pleased to report that he is progressing favorably and will soon be around again.

Portlaw

The ladies of Portlaw Red Cross Society are very much elated over the success of their garden party held on Wednesday of last week at T. R. McKenzie's. The weather was ideal and there was a large attendance. A baseball match between Flesherton and Rock Mills teams was called off before the game was completed on account of disagreement. An excellent program was rendered over which Rev. Mr. Kerr presided in a very pleasing and acceptable manner. Among the numbers on the program were spirited addresses by the chairman and Revs. Messrs. Jones and McVicar, recitations by Miss Moore of Wareham, gramophone selections by Mrs. Badgerow and Mr. Blakey, and vocal and instrumental music by the Misses Henderson, Miss Stevens, Miss Acheson, Miss McDowell, Mr. Jones, Mr. D. Blakey, Dr. Murray, and the fourth line string band. All appeared to enjoy themselves, and went away pleased and happy with the satisfaction that they had contributed to a worthy cause. The proceeds amounted to over $86.
