Boyd - Swanton

Amid a beautiful floral setting, on the lawn of the bride's parents, the wedding was solemnized of Minnie Marion Swanton, and George Douglas Boyd, on Saturday, July 8th, at 2.30 p.m.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Westcott, of Flesherton United Church, beneath a wide arch, decked with blue delphinium and pink roses. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a long gown of white, marquisette over chenille taffeta, with an inset yoke of funch lace. Her filmy veil fell in soft folds to her fingertips from a sweetheart headpiece. She wore a gold bracelet, the gift of the groom, and carried a beautiful bouquet of better times roses, bouvardia, and adiantum, from which cascaded streams of red satin ribbon.

The bride was attended by Miss Mildred Parkin , wearing a mauve crepe dress and white accessories. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow roses, cornflowers, and pink sweet peas, and wore a garland of souvenir roses.

Mr. Reg. Boyd acted as best man for his brother. Little Heather Ann Boyd, niece of the groom, as flower girl, wore yellow organdy and a garland of souvenir roses, cornflowers and pink sweetpeas. She was accompanied by the little nephew of the bride, Billie Swanton, dressed in a white linen suit. The wedding music was played by Miss Roberta Ferron, a cousin of the bride. She wore delf blue silk jersey, white accessories, and a corsage of sunshine carnations. While the bridal party signed the register, Miss Ferron sang "Because".

At the reception which followed, Mrs. Swanton, wearing a blue printed silk dress and corsage of kokoma carnations, was assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. Boyd, the groom's mother, who wore mauve silk with a corsage of picardy gladioli and mauve scabiosa. Mrs. George Shaw, with the assistance of three of the bride's friends, Misses Gladys Patterson, Sella Thompson and Helen Carefoot, served a buffet luncheon to the guests. Tea was poured by Mrs. Frank Taylor, aunt of the bride, and Miss Mabel Binnie, aunt of the groom, from a very prettily decorated table centered by a three-storied wedding cake, pink candles and roses. Rev. Westcott proposed a toast to the bride, to which the groom responded appropriately.

Among the guests from a distance were: Dr. and Mrs. K. Boyd and Heather Ann of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. G. Boyd of North Battleford, Sask., Mr. and Mrs. Crossley and John, Miss Mabel Binnie, Mrs. John Boyd of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. John Wright, of Hamiton, Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith, of Cooksville.

The happy couple left on a motor trip to Quebec and New York, the bride wearing a blue faconne sheer dress with atching hat and white accessories. On their return they will reside in Flesherton.

In Memoriam

TEETER — In loving memory of our dear son, Lorne, who was accidently killed July 17th, 1937.

Its lonesome here without you.
There is such a vacant space,
For we never hear your footsteps,
Nor see your smiling face.
As we loved you, so we miss you.
In our memory you are near,
Loved, remembered, longed for always,
Bringing many a silent tear.
Always missed by mother, father, brothers, and sister.
