Tom Reinhart, a would-be groom, who persisted in calling at the house where the girl he loved, worked, after being warned by Constable Ferguson to stay away, and who as a consequence was arrested by the officer and placed in jail, pleaded guilty last week to a trespass and disorderly conduct charge and was fined by Magistrate James Tolton the customary dollar and costs, or a total assessment of about $6.00 for the offence.

Herbert Schill of Carrick, a youth under the age of 21, was fined $2.00 and costs, or a total of $4.50, by Magistrates James Tolton and Robert Richardson in Walkerton on Thursday evening last for loitering around a licensed hotel. The boy, who admitted the charge, made a clean breast of everything, and confessed to getting liquor at Schnurr's Hotel, Formosa, and two other licensed places. The result was that the proprietors of these moisture plants were hailed before the Walkerton magistrates on Saturday afternoon and assessed $10 and costs each for supplying liquor to a minor. This makes eleven convictions since the first of May that Inspector White has secured against parties in this district for infractions of the Liquor License Act, while three other cases are still hanging fire.—Herald.

School section 6 held their annual picnic in the school grounds on Wednesday last. A large crowd of people gathered and thoroughly enjoyed themselves. After the games and foot races all sat down to a bountiful repast supplied by the ladies of the section, and all expressed themselves as having spent a most enjoyable afternoon. We noticed that our Reeve—who, by the way, is a bachelor and is keeping bach hall—thoroughly enjoyed himself, both at the table and in the company of the fair sex. Surely some of the fair ones will take pity on him and try and make his life more comfortable soon, and if you are a little bashful, well, cheer up, Jack, leap year is coming again soon, and then you may get some help.

Recruits Wanted

Young men of Grey: Are you content to let your chums go and fight for you? Mothers, fathers and wives: Are you content for your neighbors' sons and husbands to endure dangers and hardships, and to risk their lives for you, while your own sons or husbands remain in comfort at home?

Field Marshall Sir John French says he wants more Canadians. Again the call goes out for young Canadians to offer themselves for the defence of the British Empire. Again is Grey County to have the privilege of contributing her quota. Grey County has not yet failed to supply the number of men that has been asked from the 31st Regiment. It is for the people of Grey County to see that she does not fail.

Of the first Grey Contingents there are now but few left in the fighting. The second contribution is nearing the firing line. More are in training and on the way to the front. So far our County has sent away four hundred volunteers. But more are wanted.

THE DANGER IS REAL

It is more and more apparent that the British Empire is in greater danger than ever before in its history. And if the Empire is in danger, then Canada is in danger, and the home of every individual citizen of Canada is in danger.

Germany is not beaten yet. It is our task to see that she is beaten. For if the inconceivable should happen, and Germany should win, Great Britain has the most to lose of any of the nations. Germany will seize the many rich prizes of the British Empire; and of all those prizes, Canada is the richest.

It is not a time for indecision. Your King and Your Country do need you, and they need you today.

At the following points in the county, you are privileged to enlist: Owen Sound, Markdale, Hanover, Meaford and Clarksburg. Full particulars can be supplied at any of these points.

Mrs. John Bruce of East Luther may loose one of her feet as a result of a driving accident on Monday night. She drives the mail on rural route No. 1, Colbeck, and her horse took fright when she raised her parasol. She threw the parasol away to get better control of the horse, but it only dashed on more terrified than ever. Mrs. Bruce endeavored to jump from the rig but missed her step, and her foot got caught in one of the wheels. The bones are badly broken and misplaced, one being turned completely upside down, but the doctors are making every effort to save the foot.—Grand Valley Star.

Kimberley Budget

A very sad occurrence took place at the home of Mr. Geo. Haines of the 4th line north on Wednesday last, when his little son, George Ivan, 2 years and 5 months old, was drowned in a well. It seems that the children were playing near the house about 5 o'clock in the evening, when George noticed that the little boy was not with them. Quickly making a search, and noticing that the cover was off the well, Mr. Haines got a ladder and going down found the dead body of the little boy. The remains were interred in Markdale cemetery on Friday last. Mr. and Mrs. Haines have the sympathy of the whole neighborhood in this, their sad hour of bereavement.
