Mr. John Weber of the Valley, has barley slightly over sixty inches high, sown on the first of May. This indicates that straw will be an enormous crop this year.

Very heavy rains Sunday night did much good to vegetation. The downpour was slightly on the heavy side, however, and the heavy wind following threshed gardens and grain pretty badly.

A hydro gang on Monday commenced stringing the wires on the Dundalk-Shelburne line, commencing at this end. The poles for the Flesherton plant are now being erected.

Special anniversary sermons were preached in the Presbyterian church on Sunday, morning and evening, by Rev. Stephenson of Shelburne. The pastor, Rev. Mr. McVicar, took Mr. Stephenson's work at Shelburne.

We understand that those who intend going to Toronto and Niagara on the excursion on July 17th, can secure a four days limit on their ticket by procuring a Chatsworth ticket, which can be secured from the Committee on the train.

Some Markdale young men were up before Magistrate McMullen on Monday evening charged with transgressing the speed bylaw of this village. Although two reputable citizens swore that the car was travelling at least twenty miles an hour, the proof was not considered satisfactory and the case was dismissed.

Among those who were up from Toronto for the First were: W. Bentham, Chas. Jamieson, Miss Teenie McLeod and friend, Miss Hamilton; A. S. Thurston, Dr. R. Henderson and family and Mr. R. Norris.

Mrs. Pliny Loucks and youngest son, who have been visiting her niece, Mrs. Wilkes of Roblock ave., Toronto, and friends at Mount Denis and West Toronto for the past two weeks, left on Friday morning to visit friends at Ottawa and Russell.

Owen Sound Westside Methodist Sunday School's annual Excursion to Toronto, Niagara and Soldiers' Concentration Camp, via C.P.R. to Toronto, and Canada Steamship Lines to Niagara, on July 17th. Running on Saturday makes this the most popular summer outing of the season. Information cheerfully furnished by any Methodist clergyman in your locality. See big bills later.

Bro. Rutledge of the Markdale Standard is developing quite a streak of modesty! In his report of the opening of the Carnegie library he says: At this stage, Mr. C. W. Rutledge, Secretary-Treasurer of the Board, read a brief financial statement. This showed that seven thousand dollars had been given to Markdale for library purposes by the Carnegie Trust. The building was erected, splendidly furnished, lighted, etc., within that amount, and a few dollars remain. Mr. Rutledge has worked unsparingly, from its inception, to bring this undertaking to completion. Too much praise cannot be given his great public spirit and excellent executive ability."

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

On the departure of our teacher, Miss Moon, the pupils of U. S. S. No. 1, Artemesia and Euphrasia, presented her with a beautiful jewel case and Bible. After the presentation Miss Eva Allen read the following address:—

Dear Teacher—We, your pupils of "Sunlight College" have learned with regret of your intended removal from our midst. We feel we cannot part with you without a small token of remembrance. We have given you ample cause to merit punishment, but you have borne with our misconduct and tried to show by example how true ladies and gentlemen should conduct themselves. We hope that you will overlook our misdemeanour and except this Bible and jewel case as a small token of true respect. Signed on behalf of the pupils of U. S.S. No. 1, Euphrasia and Artemesia—Basil Carruthers, Ernest Thompson.

Two Turks canvassed Walkerton last week soliciting funds for a Turkish orphanage, while their countrymen are at this very moment fighting against the British Empire and busy making orphans here. The Turk is a lecherous, rotten canker on the map of Europe, and to give good Canadian coin for the support of such a race is worse than throwing pearls before swine. While many other aliens are being locked up on suspicion of being spies, how is it that two travelling Turks can roam at large over the country and get away with it? Better call this pair off the beat until the war is over and the sword of the Turk is sheathed.—Herald.

M. Godfrey of Owen Sound has a Silver Campine hen which recently hatched twenty-two chicks from one setting. Mr. Godfrey had the mother hen and the chickens on exhibition in the window of his shop on Eighth St. E. He says they are the largest hatching he has ever had. They are certainly a pretty batch of chickens.

Durham

Mr. J. P. Telford has resigned his position of police magistrate and on Tuesday received notice of acceptance from the department. We are now without a police magistrate, but two justices of the peace are still left to take care of legal disputes. At the present it is not necessary to make further reference to the matter more than to surmise that a successor to Mr Telford will not soon be appointed.

John McIntosh, son of Alex McIntosh, a respected farmer 49 years of age, who lived a short distance from Dornoch, committed suicide yesterday morning by cutting his throat with a razor. He left the house about five o'clock in the morning, and not returning for breakfast a search was made and the liteless body was found in a swamp a short distance from the house. He leaves a widow and family. No reason can be assigned for the rash act beyond a feeling of despondency over a slight abrasion he feared might turn to cancer.—Chronicle.

Miss Jamieson and Mrs. Weir of Singhampton visited at Rev. Phimister's Sunday.

Mrs. Bob Young is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Charlie Kerton.

Mrs. Bert McCallum and daughter, Edna, have returned from the West. Miss Jean Inkster accompanied her and will visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. McCallum, 4th line.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

On Monday evening, June 28, the Methodist parsonage had an agreeable surprise, when the friends of the Maxwell appointment met and presented Mrs. Phimister with an address and two silver tea services. Mr. Phimister replied with a very touching address.

To Mrs. Jas. Phimister.

Dear Mrs. Phimister. We the undersigned on the eve of your departure from among us have come together to show our esteem for you and our regret at losing you from our midst. During the four years of your sojourn here you have labored to help us, and so willingly taken your part, that we feel called upon to present you with a memorial of our affection. We therefore desire that you accept at our hands and with our very best wishes this silver tea service. We bid you God speed in your new home, and trust you will be enabled to continue your efforts on behalf of the cause to which you are devoted, that for many years to come you may have God's smile resting upon you, and in the end we shall all be one about our Father's throne above.

Signed on behalf of the Maxwell friends.
