An Owen Sound gentleman is building a flying machine. He hopes to have it completed before the fly season is over.

W. J. Bellamy and Thos. Blakeley are this week attending Masonic Grand Lodge in Hamilton.

About twenty-five people took in the Niagara excursion on Saturday from this station.

Miss B. McKenzie, teacher near St Catherines, was the guest of Miss Florence Thurston this week.

Monday, Aug. 2 will be Flesherton's civic holiday, when all places of business will be closed.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mitchell attended the funeral of the former's brother, W. McGirr, in Toronto, Wednesday of this week.

Mrs. Hodgson (nee Miss Ethel Trimble) and Mrs. J. C. Crane of Owen Sound, spent a couple of days with the former's paren's here.

At the Baptist church on Friday night last Mr. Elmer Wright, who has been organist for the past year, was presented with a purse containing over $10.00, by the members of the church.

High Constable Cook had a young man up for shooting and causing bodily harm in the village of Orchardville. The case was tried in Durham Saturday and the accused was committed to stand his trial in Owen Sound.

Mr. D. G. McLean of Priceville has two sons with the Canadian forces now in England—Allan who is with an Engineer corps, having enlisted at Ottawa, and Donald, with the Cameron Highlanders of Winnipeg. Allan is married.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. White left this week to visit friends at Buffalo, Port Hope and Blenheim. Miss Maud Kingdree, who has been their guest here for a fortnight, returned as far as Toronto with them.

A case of much interest was tried at Durham on Saturday before Magistrates Ryan of Ayton and Ludlow of Durham, when Mrs. Nichol of the Medaugh house for keeping liquor for sale was fined $300 and costs, and the liquor, which consisted of twenty gallons, was confiscated. Great credit is due to the town constable, Mr. Arrowsmith, who made the seizure. Crown Attorney Dyer of Owen Sound was the prosecutor and Lawyer Klein of Walkerton appeared for the defendant.

The numerous friends and acquaintances of Stanley R. Gamey and Eldridge Phillips will be very g'ad to learn that the transport, Northland, with troops on board arrived safely at port. Both young men enlisted in March and belong to the 26th Field Battery, organized in connection with Toronto university, and have since been training at Barriefield. Stanley left his wife and little daughter with his parents at Peterboro.

An auction sale of Practically new household furniture will be held at Feversham on Thursday, July 29, at 1 o'clock p.m., the property of Mrs. Davidson, who is giving up housekeeping. See bills for list. W. Kaitting auctioneer

Flesherton baseball team played a friendly game with Ceylon at the latter place on Monday evening and were defeated by the score of 11 6. The Flesherton boys showed lack of practise, while the Ceylon boys played good fast ball.

On Friday afternoon of last week Mrs. W. A. Armstrong and the Misses Lillian and Laura Armstrong entertained about thirty young people of the village to a lawn party. A pleasing feature of the gathering was the number of former Flesherton girls who are visiting in town.

Mr. Alex. Whyte of the O. D. R. has a small field of spring wheat which averages four feet six inches of straw and the heads are large accordingly. It is of the Marquis variety, now so largely sown in the West, and the seed was supplied by his son, W. B., of Heward, Sask., who himself this year has 300 acres of this wheat, which gives promise of a record yield.

Will Buchanan, Flesherton, Ont., who is a student at the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago was one of the two hundred and eighty students from that institution who sang in the large chorus choir at the 5th World's and 27th International Christian Endeavor Convention in Chicago last week. The high standing of the Institute's music department was illustrated by the fact that the music on Friday evening was given over almost entirely to its chorus.

The Thornbury Review-Herald says: A recent canvas for donations to the Patriotic Fund at Flesherton netted $917, although only $500 was asked for. It strikes us that Flesherton is very much on the map in its liberality to those who are fighting for the existence of the British empire. The trouble with the great majority of Canadians is the fact that they cannot realize—cannot bring it home to themselves, somehow, that defeat would mean the Prussianizing not only of the Dominion of Canada, but of the civilized world.

The Markdale Standard now explains that its report of the opening of the Carnegie library was written by an "outside attache." Well, the editor of the Standard should label his stuff in future if he wishes to avoid misconceptions. What in Sam Hill is an editor for if it isn't to edit copy? Also what in the dickens is an outside attache but a member of the staff? And such a person should not flatter his boss too much if he doesn't wish to be laughed at.

The funeral of the late Archibald Ferguson, whose death was noted last week, took place to Flesherton cemetery on Wednesday, and was very largely attended by sympathizing friends and relatives of the deceased, who was highly esteemed by a large circle of friends. The young man was an Orangeman and a regular contributor to and a faithful adherent of Chalmer's Church, Flesherton. The bier was smothered in beautiful flowers, among which was noticed a wreath by his brother Orangemen, another by the family, a spray from Chalmer's Church, and an anchor from Muir Bros. and Mrs. R. Campbell. In the absence of the pastor Rev. R. C. Kerr of the Baptist church conducted the funeral services.

A couple of motoring parties went down to the Nottawasage river Sunday. In the evening they started for home, when one of the machines refused to run right. It would go intermittently, but would not keep it up. After gradually getting up the mountain the accompanying car left the cripple near Singhampton and came on home, arriving here about 1 a. m. The cripple got within two miles of home when the driver left the car, came in and got a cab to bring the ladies in, arriving here at 5.15 a. m. Later the car was brought in and an examination revealed the fact that a babbit bearing on the crank shaft was worn out. The party was out all night in the heavy downpour of rain on a forty-mile trip. There are occasions when even a car cannot be called a luxury by any stretch of the imagination. No, neither of the parties went by way of Collingwood.

Priceville Jottings

The farmers are looking for some dry weather this week, in order to start the haying.

A number of oat fields are starting to lodge in spots since the last heavy rain. There will be a big crop of straw.

The Saugeen river is unusually high for this time of year.

Owing to the increased auto traffic through our town, some of the storekeepers are erecting gasoline tanks on the street to meet the demand for oil.

Rev. J. A. Matheson and family started off in their auto on the 12th for their summer cottage in Muskoka. They will probably be absent about six weeks.

A rag merchant has moved his family into the old manse building by the river and has opened up a cash rag market.

The mill is kept busy these days with chop and shingle bolts.

The hydro gang that is wiring the town say they will have their work done before the power house is ready to turn on the lights.

If the newspapers were all suppressed I believe that crime and sin would increase 100 per cent. over night, and all hell would hold a jubilee. That is what Billy Sunday says about newspapers.

There will be a baseball tournament at Kimberley to-day (Thursday, July 22), when six clubs will participate. This tournament was postponed last week on account of wet weather. All who like baseball should make it a point to see this tournament.
