Ceylon Clippings

What might have proved a fatal accident happened Sunday morning at the Legate home. Miss Muriel, the first member of the family up, undertook to make the porridge. Seeing a plate beside the bag with meal on it, she emptied the contents also into the porridge pot. The family partook of it and after eating a little each in turn became very sick. Upon inquiry it was discovered that the plate had contained meal in which arsenic had been mixed for rats. Dr. Little was hastily summoned and all the members of the family are recovering.

Our pastor, Rev. Mr. Kerr, is on a two weeks' holiday. His pulpit will be supplied by Mr. Woods of Corbetton.

A Big Fish

The best fish story we are likely to hear this year can be told by Geo. Maher. And the best of it is that the story is true and the evidence in the form of a trout weighing four pounds one ounce has been procured. George was a visitor at the Galbraith camp at Williams lake last Friday and to while away the afternoon took rod and line and a can of worms and rowed himself out into the lake. For a while it seemed pretty slow fishing, and George was about giving it up when he caught his line on what he thought to be a log. A steady pull proved that it wasn't a log, but a fish, and then began a battle royal. After considerable reeling and fighting George was victorious and pulled the speckled beauty into the boat. Judging from the size of the fish the fight must have been a good one, and it is likely the trout had to be killed with an axe. Fishing for the remainder of the afternoon was barren of result but George proudly bore home a speckled trout which weighed four pounds and one ounce, measured 18½ inches from tip to tip, and girthed an even twelve inches. The weighing was done and the measurements taken late at night after the fish must have lost considerably by shrinkage.—Chatsworth News.

Eugenia Paragraphs

Durham

Wm. Troy, owner of the Dominion hotel at Ayton, was committed for trial by Justices of the Peace Edwin Ryan and R. H. Fortune on a charge of having indecently assaulted Miss Henrietta Graft, aged 16, on the farm of George Frank, by whom she was employed as a domestic. Bail was fixed in the sum of $2000, and the accused man will be tried at the next County Assizes at Owen Sound, The affair has caused a sensation in the district.

It looks very much as if the Model School in Hanover will be missing this year, and if this be the case the students which generally attend the institution will have to look elsewhere for teacher training this fall. Rumors have been afloat that Hanover might lose the Model and the daily papers of last week in reporting the examination results seem to give this report confirmation. Nine other centres are stated in the list but not Hanover. The nearest Models now are Guelph and Clinton.

It becomes our sad duty this week to chronicle the sudden death by accident of Miss Mary R. Ramage, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ramage of North Egremont, in the full flush of young womanhood. Tuesday afternoon she went to remove a calendar from the wall, stepping on the front of a chair to do so. The chair tipped and she fell forward on its back, causing internal injury. Dr. Sneath was summoned. He recommended securing Dr. Groves of Fergus, which was done, and he reached the bedside mid-afternoon, with Dr. Ferguson of Holstein. The operation revealed that rupture of the spleen had taken place and that she had bled profusely internally. All was done by the three physicians that was possible. She seemed to rally during the evening, but at 1 a.m. Wednesday she died. Deceased was an estimable young woman. She was a member of Dromore Presbyterian church, in the choir of which she has long been a standby as contralto. For some months when in town a few years ago she sang in Durham Presbyterian choir. She was also winning success as a music teacher.—Review.

Miss Ramage was known in Flesherton, she having visited here with her cousin, Mrs. R. H. Wright. She also sang with her father at a concert here a couple of years ago—Ed. Advance.

Harry Hitts, a boy burglar of Owen Sound, was sent to the prison Reformatory at Guelph for one year less eight days.

Feversham Items

The wet weather is quite a hindrance to the farmers harvesting the heavy crop of hay this year.

Spring crops are looking fine in this part, we have not had such crops of oats for years.

Mrs. Alex. Davidson and daughter, Maud, have left this village and have gone to reside in Buffalo.

Mr. James Conn has bought Alex. McLean's farm in the suburbs, and has taken possession. Mr. McLean moved into the village, into the house he bought from Mr. Conn.

Mr. R. T. McGirr of Moose Jaw, Sask. renewed old acquaintances here last week. Rob is an old Feversham boy who went West to Moose Jaw some years ago, and has made good. His many friends were glad to see him once again.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb. Perigo and little daughter of Toronto spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. H. Perigo. They came up from the Queen City in their auto.

Mrs. John Paul is visiting her daughter in Owen Sound at present.

Miss Lila McKeown of Duncan is holidaying with her grandmother, Mrs. J. J. Kaitting.

Mr. Walter Marr, late of Flesherton, has opened a blacksmith shop in town.

A number from here attended the Menonite meeting and Immersion at Brewester's lake on Sunday last.

Mr. Wm. Little, our miller, has rented the house lately vacated by Mr. E. C. Hammell, and will move his family from Collingwood this week.

Mr. Geo. Julian drove a load of our sports over to Priceville on Monday to take in the sports of that town.

Mr. Wm. Osborne of Badgero spent Sunday at his home here.

A number of our young people are attending the Holiness Workers camp near Gibralter.

Rev. Mr. Mathewson of Priceville Presbyterian church preached an excellent sermon in the Presbyterian church here on Sunday afternoon last.

Shelburne

The adjourned case of Frank Deuvall, charged with selling liquor, came up before Magistrates Falconer and Hall, Wednesday afternoon of last week. Deuvall was found guilty, and it being his second offence, was sentenced to four months in the county jail. He was taken to Orangeville Thursday morning.

Two boys who have apparently been getting too fond of the property of other people were given a preliminary hearing on Thursday afternoon of last week, on theft charges, and were committed for trial before the County Judge. They are now both out on bail. Their arrest was the culmination of a series of thefts and suspicious happenings, including the theft of six or eight dollars from the till of H. White & Co., and the theft of over $34 from the till of R. B. Smith's butcher shop. Two visits were paid to each of these places to make up the totals.

Constable Marshall and assistants came to Shelburne the last of the week after one Frank Gray, who has been working with the hydro electric force west of the town, and who figured prominently in an episode at Orangeville a week ago Sunday evening in which some of the hydro workers he escorted to Orangeville also figured prominently by reason of too much indulgence in the flowing bowl, one of them having to pay a fine of $20 and costs. Gray would have been before the beak in Orangeville, too, had he not gotten out in too big a hurry. But his respite was a short one, for Marshall came along and gobbled him in. Gray is well known in Orangeville where he is looked on as a "bad acto."—Economist.

A movement is on foot in Owen Sound to raise $1900 to purchase a machine gun for the Canadian forces.
