NOW IT CAN BE TOLD!

This is why General McNaughton had to Stay on the Job and break his dates here . . .

8300 DRAFT TROOPS WERE AT SEA ON WAY TO FIGHTING FRONTS--Also a full quota of volunteers. Another 6300 Draftees were in the bush, and they are going to be rounded up and sent overseas.

While Mr. Case babbled about General McNaughton drawing red herrings across the trail . . . and roared his desk-thumping challenge to the General to tell the electors "if one so-called Zombie had been sent overseas" . . . the General was at work, getting reinforcements overseas.

The General could not answer while the reinforcements were on the high seas. He could not risk exposing the men to enemy torpedoes. So Mr. Case continued to bellow his challenge.

Remember, men and women of North Grey—"It is the ungenerous people who make the most noise!"

AND SPEAKING OF "RED HERRINGS"

Garfield Case says in his advertisement that he is "the one candidate in this election who insists that your wishes should be carried out. This is the only Party (the Pro.-Cons.) with a clear and emphatic policy on reinforcements." So says Garfield Case, Jan. 20.

And the same Garfield Case told you at Rocklyn, Jan. 16 "I'm still opposed to conscription as such but am for total mobilization of manpower and resources."

Men and women of North Grey, do you find this kind of double-talk reassuring—when your men overseas want reinforcements? WHERE IS THAT "CLEAR AND EMPHATIC POLICY OF REINFORCEMENTS" HE TALKS ABOUT?

CASE SAYS PLAINLY HE IS OPPOSED TO CONSCRIPTION. THAT MEANS THAT IF CASE HAD THE SAY—THOSE 8,300 DRAFTEES WOULD NOT BE OVERSEAS NOW.

Let's Have a Man of Action — Not Words and Wind

You want reinforcements, for your men overseas. McNaughton is getting you reinforcements. This is proven fact—not double-talk. You want a man who knows the needs of the Canadian Army—not a politician. And you have got both in McNaughton. He built the Army Overseas. His heart and sympathy are with it. Let's not expose our great Canadian Soldier to any more abuse, such as "Opportunist", "Political skullduggery", "most discredited yes-man." Has Mr. Case no sense of decency or shame? Does he think such mud appeals to loyal men and women of North Grey?

Let's vote for our soldier Minister of National Defence on Feb. 5th —and strengthen his hand in the House of Commons NOW.

CANADA NEEDS McNAUGHTON

AND SO DO YOUR MEN OVERSEAS
