VICINITY CHIPS

Labor Day was not observed in Flesherton.

Messrs. C. and H. Thomas of Collingwood were visitors at H. C. LeGard's on Sunday.

Miss McLean of Alton has taken charge of F. G. Karstedt's millinery for the season.

Miss May Damude, who has been visiting friends here for the past five or six weeks, left for Toronto on Friday.

Mr. I. Dierlamm of Toronto is now busy wiring the houses in town for the new electric service.

Father Grannotier, the aged and respected priest stationed at Owen Sound for many years, lost his eyesight completely while visiting in Toronto.

Rev. P. K. Dayfoot, M. A., of Toronto, will preach in the Baptist church on Sunday next, Sept. 12, at 11 a. m. Subject, "Sunday Schools and their work."

Mrs. Richardson of Buffalo and Misses Henrietta and Wilda Moore of Silver Creek, N. Y., are guests of Mrs. C Munshaw and other friends.

Mr. J. J. Thompson and daughter, Mrs. Edgar Betts, attended the funeral their cousin, Mrs. Joseph Lee, of Owen Sound, the past week.

Misses Lulu and Iva Mitchell of Flesherton and Miss Queenie Kaitting of Feversham were visitors at Geo. Lawler's last week.

Flesherton baseball team were defeated in Dundalk on Labor Day by the score of 4-1. The game was fast throughout, and some excellent plays were pulled off by both teams.

Orangeville passed the hydro-electric bylaws on Saturday last. The supply will be secured from Eugenia, which means that the line will be extended south from Shelburne.

While the attendance has been good at the Toronto exhibition the usual number has not gone from this district. This is owing to the late harvest, nearly everyone having been too busy garnering the grain.

Mr. Will Stewart of Fort William, who attended the funeral of his father here last week, told The Advance that up there, unlike eastern Ontario, they have had a beautiful warm summer with very little rain.

The high school opened on Tuesday with a large attendance. The exact number in attendance will not be known for a few days, but it will be considerably in excess of last term. Extra seating has had to be installed.

Mrs. John Chard of Markdale and Mrs. Fred A. Chard of Toronto called on the former's mother here the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs Chard are leaving this week to visit at Toronto, Grimsby and Hamilton.

Last week was an ideal harvest week, just such weather as we would naturally expect for all of August, and it allowed farm crops to be harvested in good condition after all. The crop has now been pretty well all saved and threshing has started.

If you want an object lesson on the benefits of local option, and the bareful results of the open bar, subscribe for a Walkerton paper. From 2 to 6 cases of a sensational nature resulting from too long a lingering at the beer pump, are recorded in the Walkerton papers every week. It makes good news from an editorial standpoint, but from a moral view point it is not an honor that our sister town should be proud of, and it is safe to say the victims do not feel elated at the publicity inspired by their actions. Local option has proven times over that if it does not introduce total prohibition it throttles the traffic to such an extent that the newspapers suffer a great dearth of news concerning drunks and disorderlies.

Mr. Basil Carruthers, son of Mr. Alex Carruthers, of Eugenia, had his leg broken on Saturday last by falling from a beam in the barn and alighting on the barn floor.

There are nine soldiers from Grey County in prison camps in Germany. Most of these were taken at the great Ypres and St. Julien battles when the Germans first used their gas. Their names are as follows: Ptes. A. Raper, Meaford; J. G. E. Crane, Owen Sound; A. Coventry, Thornbury, G. Foster, Holland Centre; T. Gallamore, Markdale; Fred Smith, Eugenia; Sydney Smith, Thornbury; and Corp. E. W. Drane, of Owen Sound.

The annual ten days' camp meeting of the Holiness Workers' church will be held at Clarksburg, commencing Tuesday, Sept. 14th. The services of the Rev. Manley C. Pritchard, of Athelstan, Quebec, and the Rev. J. Melvin Smith, President of the Canadian National Holiness Association have been secured. A number of the ministers of the neighboring church will also assist. Bell telephone in connection with the camp ground. F. D. Goff, Chairman of Committee.

Prize lists for the Osprey fall fair, to be held at Feversham on Tuesday and Wednesday, October 5 and 6, are now in the hands of the secretary, J. A. Kernahan, Maxwell P. O. Extensive changes have been made in the list this year, more particularly in ladies' work. This has been very materially added to and ought to bring out a big exhibit. Twenty entries is the limit allowed for ladies' work at this fair. Get a prize list from the secretary.

Mr. McNeil, of the Department of Mines, who was here investigating the oil last week, confirms the newspaper stories of the fabulously rich gold mine recently discovered at Matheson on the T. & N. R. He says the claim was originally owned by R. R. Gamey, member for Manitoulin, who sold it for $2,500. The second owner sold it for $100,000 to some American Jews who undertook development and in developing have taken out over two million dollars worth of gold. Mr. McNeil has in his charge at the Department of Mines exhibit at the exhibition a small piece of rock from the mine, which is down only 100 feet, that he values at $7000.

The big lighting plant at Eugenia is now very near completion, the installation of the water wheels, under the supervision of a Swiss mechanic, having been completed last week. The wheels are now ready to have the water turned on, and the test will be made in a few days now, so soon as a few details of finishing are completed. Our street lighting system is now all ready for the current to be turned on, and it is hoped that this will be done on the night of the second day of our fall fair. A request has been made to the Commission to have this done. If the request is conceded to Flesherton will be the first place to get service from the big works at Eugenia.

Miss Kate O'Donahue, whose real name is Mrs. Gardner, and who was arrested, as an accomplice of Norman Ryan and William Turner, the burglars who defied and fought the police in trying to escape and whose capture last June was one of the most dramatic incidents which have taken place in recent years, was pardoned last week by the Minister of Justice. Miss O'Donahue came to town with Ryan and boarded at the same house. When the two desperadoes were caught she also was apprehended. The Magistrate sentenced her to one year in the Mercer. She has been waiting in the county jail for two months while her friends in Toronto made representations to the Minister of Justice with the result that she was fully pardoned and liberated. Many people were communicated with, including Magistrate Creasor. Her husband, who is in Winnipeg refused to come down for her and her mother came up from Toronto to take her back.—Sun.
