VICINITY CHIPS

Mrs. J.M. Thurston and Miss Myrtle Thurston of Chicago are guests of Ye Editor.

The leaves have fallen and the birds are winging southward, winter is not far away.

Mr. and Mrs. A S. Thurston of Toronto are guests of the former's parents here.

Mrs. J. D. Clark of Ottawa is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. W. Armstrong, whose health is very poor.

Miss Mae Jamieson of Mont Clair, New Jersey, came home last week to see her brother, Bert.

Call in and see the Columbia cabinet Grafonola, which sells at $60 to $65, according to finish. At the Advance office.

Miss Freda Mathewson of the suburbs gave a corn roast party to thirteen of her little friends on Friday evening last, when a most delightful time was spent.

Mr. W. J. Gordon of Toronto and Mr. Charles Turner of Eugenia visited Paisley friends. Mr. Gordon, who has been visiting at Eugenia, returned to Toronto this week.

Mr. Frank Tait of Lucknow spent a few days in town this week. Mrs Tait and three children, who have been visiting her parents here returned home with him.

Mrs. McFaddeu, four children, and Mrs. Conn of Mono Centre, spent the week end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waller.

Messrs. Thomas, Richard and Elijah Bentham and R. Wilcock motored to Collingwood on Saturday and visited the former's aunt, Mrs. Weir, at Singhampton.

Herbert King, charged with the murder of Edward Nicholson, a little boy twelve years of age, at Owen Sound in March last, was found guilty at the Assizes last week and sentenced to be hanged on Dec. 22.

Word was received here last week that Thos. Davis, son of school trustee Wm. Davis of Flesherton, had been wounded in the head and was suffering from shock. We understand that he is in a hospital in England.

The opening meeting of the newly organized Young People's Society of the Methodist church will be held Nov. 1 at 8 o'clock and will take the form of a Hallowe'en social. A good program will be provided, followed by Hallowe'en stunts and a suitable lunch. Everybody welcome.

The Advance had a pleasant call on Monday from Rev. Mr. Waugh of Dundalk and Rev. E. E. Braithwaite of London University. The latter gentleman visited the high school, as mentioned elsewhere. He was simply delighted with that hall of learning and expressed wonder that a more advanced course was not taken up with the facilities at hand.

The following have been added to the Roll of Honor this week: Frank Patton and Howard McAulay. These two young men enlisted for the war on Monday and will go into training at Owen Sound this week. Winslow Kernahan and Harry Thornbury of Feversham and W. Grundy of Priceville have also enlisted. The latter has already one brother killed and another wounded at the front. Eight recruits went up from here to Owen Sound on Wednesday morning. Another name which must be added to the Roll of Honor is that of Herbert McLeod, who enlisted in Toronto some time ago, and whose name was omitted in last week's list. This last bunch makes fifteen recruits from Flesherton.

Do not forget the afternoon meeting for women and girls in the town hall, Fleshertou, Thursday, October 28 at 2.30 p.m. (better farming coaches) will be at this station for inspection on the same day from 9.30 p.m. to 5.30 p.m. All members of the Women's Institute are also requested to have their Red Cross jam, jelly and fruit at Mrs. W. Moore's before the date of Oct. 30. Crown quarts are required.

There are certain young officers in this county who are not making a success in the recruiting campaign, because they do not propose to go to the war themselves yet have the temerity to ask others to go. These men should throw off their commisions and let men with warmer blood in their veins step into their shoes. Men are wanted, but it requires considerable assurance on the part of an officer to ask young men to go where he will not lead. The public have their eye on the men referred to.

Rev. Mr. McVicar of the Presbyterian church occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church twice on Sunday, services in his church having been withdrawn. Rev. Mr. Dudgeon preached anniversary sermons at Proton Station. Mr. McVicar made a strong appeal at the evening service for donations to the Red Cross. This was the first time the mother country had ever appealed to Canada in a like manner, showing the necessity.

The Meaford Road, Vandeleur, Methodists, will hold their anniversary and fowl supper on Sunday and Monday next Oct. 24 and 25. On Sunday two services will be held, at which Rev. Dr. Caldwell of Shelburne will preach—2.30 aud 7.30 p.m. Supper will be served Monday evening from 5.30 to 8 p.m., after which a program will be given by Flesherton choir and others. Dr. Sproule is expected to take the chair, and H. H. Miller of Hanover will give an address. Admission only 25 and 15 cents.

The high school was honored last Monday by a visit from Rev. George Waugh of Dundalk and Dr. E. E. Braithwaite, president of Western University, London. After congratulating the teachers and scholars on the marked success that had been attained by the school, and stimulating them to keep the highest ideals ever before them, Dr Braithwaite spoke of the decided forward movement that was in progress at the Western. Large additions to the faculty have recently been made, both in the Arts and the Medical departments. New laboratories have been installed, and all fully equipped with the best apparatus obtainable. The revenue of the institution has more than doubled in two years, the attendance is rapidly increasing, and in every way the Western is pushing forward vigorously into the front rank.

The Methodist harvest home services at Eugenia on Sunday, Oct. 10, and fowl supper on the Monday evening following, proved a grand success. The sermons preached by Rev. Mr. Wallace were strong and helpful. The thank-offering on Sunday amounted to $16.36. The weather for both was perfection and on Monday night the church was filled to its utmost capacity. The proceeds for Monday were $86.49, making a total of $102 85 for both days. All were delighted with the program. The officials of the church desire to express their thanks to those who helped and to the Presbyterian friends for use of the basement of their church for the supper.

Thurston---Wright

The marriage took place on Thursday evening, October 14, in Sherbourne street Methodist church, Toronto, of Miss Tille Wright, youngest daughter of the late Rev. John Wright, of Londonderry, Ireland, and Mrs. E. Wright now of Dauphin, Manitoba, to Mr. A. Stanley Thurston, editor of the Weekly Sun, Toronto, eldest son of W. H. Thurston of Flesherton. Rev. T. G. Brown officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Thurston will reside at 31 The Oaks, Bain ave., Toronto.

Property For Sale

For sale in the village of Eugenia, a store and dwelling combined—good stable, never failing well, a number of fruit trees, half acre lot, well fenced. For terms and particulars apply to John Boland, Vandeleur, or P. Munshaw, Eugenia, executors of the late Richard Smith estate.

Reception to Corp. Jamieson

Corp. Bert Jamieson, the returned soldier who was gassed at St. Julien, was given a public reception in the auditorium of the high school on Tuesday evening of last week. A torchlight procession headed by the band and followed by several autos called at his mother's residence and took possession of the young man. He was carried on the shoulders of a couple of stalwart young men and deposited in an easy chair on the platform to face an audience that filled the auditorium.

Reeve McTavish was in the chair and announced the programe which consisted of patriotic addresses by Revs. Dudgeon and McVicar and Mr. M. K. Richardson, songs and recitations.

A pleasing feature of the evening was the calling to the platformt of four young men who have enlisted but had not yet gone to Owen Sound to drill, namely:—T. Chard, Joe. LeGard, C. Adams, and Elwyn Jamieson a brother of the returned hero. Each of these young men had to make a speech.

After the program coffee and cake were distributed and a pleasant evening brought to a close.

Mr. Richard Peachy of Waldemar had a narrow escape from instant death on Tuesday. He was employed by W. T. Stewart, who is constructing a silo on the farm of Thomas Bell of Cataract. He and Stewart were on the top of the structure, when part of it gave way and Peachy was thrown to theground—a distance of 30 feet. Dr. Thomas of Caledon was immediately summoned and after examination it was found he had only sustained a small scalp wound. Peachy is 60 years of age and it is a wonder no bones were broken. Yesterday he was nearly himself again and was taken to his home by Mr. Stewart—Sun.
