CANADIAN GIRLS HITCHHHIKE 3,365 MILES

Barbara Green and Joan Smith, Vancouver, carried the wrench and needles as weapons on a 3,365 hitch-hike to Toronto—but never needed them. Their report on the 30-day trip is: truck drivers know the best eating spots; Canadian motorists are gentlemen. Trip cost $56

Red Cross Hands Over Food Parcels To Feed Prisoners

About 15,500,000 surplus prisoner-of-war food parcels are being handed over to Allied Supreme Headquarters by the British, American and Dominion Red Cross Societies.

They will be used to help solve the problem of looking after large numbers of Allied prisoners of war of various nationalities who cannot yet return to their own countries.

Surplus supplies of invalid foods, medical and clothing comforts are also being handed over for the same purpose.

The food parcels consist of 10,000,000 packed in the United States for American and Allied prisoners and 5,500,000 packed in Britain, Canada and New Zealand for British and Dominion prisoners. The parcels are on the continent or en route.

Britain Produces New 'Pocket Tractor'

A new "pocket tractor," low-priced and with small running costs,, which enables even small fields to be mechanized, has been designed and produced by a British manufacturer. This is a track-laying tractor, powered by a small 5 h.p. engine. It was specially designed for work in areas of soft or water-logged ground, or steeply sloping fields — conditions in which the wheeled tractor is not suitable. It is now also being used with great success in small fields ano in market gardens, where, owing to its small size, it is able to work nearer to the edges of fields.

A chair, built about 1800 B. C., was recently discovered in one of the Egyptian tombs, in excellent condition.

NEW BELT LINE

You'll probably get a big belt out of the latest thing to hold up your trousers. Sported—and probably first-worn—by the Duke of Windsor, above, during a business-golf trip to Cleveland, Ohio, it is a rope affair with a couple of nautical knots. By the way, that middle is getting rather middle-aged.

On Both Sides

H. R. Knickerbocker, war correspondent, says that last time he was in Italy he dined with a group which included an Italian nobleman of some minor distinction. Eventually the conversation turned towards the course of the conflict. "But my dear fellow", said the Italian, who affected a British manner and accent, "you cannot possibly know as much about the war as we do. You see, we have been on both sides!"

Italian Prisoners In Britain Still Held

The Foreign Office denied a report that the Allies are to free or repatriate all Italian prisoners-of-war.

The position is that a decision has been taken by which the Allied military authorities in Italy are to release Italian prisoners who were captured on Italian territory before the conclusion of the Italian armistice and who are at present on Italian soil. The decision does not affect Italian prisoners now in Britain.
