ELIJAH BUCKINGHAM

A highly respected resident of Collingwood, Elijah Buckingham, died at his home on Birch Street on Sunday evening after an illness of less than two weeks. He had been in frail health for some time, but until quite recently was able to be about his home. Possessed of a quiet disposition, he sought no part in public life or organization work. By his friends, who were many, he was held in the highest esteem and his passing is cause for sincere regret.

He was born in Osprey Township seventy-nine years ago a son of the late John and Elizabeth Buckingham, and as a lad attended the Township Schools. When he was sixteen years old the family left Osprey Township and took up farming in the McMurchy Settlement district on the Town Line. After the death of his father, Mr. Buckingham continued on this farm until 1914 when he moved into Collingwood. His nephew, Mr. John Buckingham, now operates the farm he left.

He is survived by two sisters, Miss Sophia Buckingham and Mrs. W. H. Pentland, both of town, and one brother, Mr. Robert Buckingham of Stonewall, Man.

The funeral service was held from his late residence on Wednesday afternoon with Rev. A. S. Kerr of Trinity Church, of which he was a member, officiating. Interment was made in Trinity United Cemetery, pallbearers being Messrs. John Buckingham, Edgar Buckingham of Stayner, Herbert Hawton of Osprey, Howard Shortt, Dalton Hughes and Gordon Munro. — Collingwood Enterprise Bulletin.

By this time Mary's Little Lamb must have gone to market — and wasn't the only one fleeced.

With the lifting of restrictions on the manufacture of many consumer and commercial products, Minister of Finance Ilsley said;— "Consumers must not expect an immediate increase in the available supply of these commodities." And he added, "an increase in civilian goods will depend upon the time which manufacturers will require to secure the necessary skilled labour and materials without interfering with continuing war requirements."

Our ability to instal telephones depends not on instruments alone, but also in many cases on obtaining wire, cable and exchange equipment. Even when we can secure necessary manpower and materials, it will take time—it might be months—to instal all the apparatus necessary to serve our waiting applicants.

We shall lose no time, you may be sure.

We are grateful for the patience and understanding of so many who have had to wait so long for telephone service.
