Reeve McTavish lost a valuable Jersey cow last week. The animal ate itself to death out of a chop bin.

The first sleighs were seen on the streets Saturday, Nov. 20 and winter came on us with a jump and roar.

Mr. Mark Wilson, jr., attended the funeral of his eldest sister, Miss Lena Wilson, at Durham on Sunday.

The best Christmas box you can give your family is a Columbia Grafonola. For sale at this office at prices from twenty dollars up.

Mr. Harold Mitchell who has been with the Standard Bank at Sarnia, returned home on Thursday last and proposes to enlist in some Toronto regiment for overseas service.

Our item last week regarding fishing on the Beaver has attracted considerable attention. Mr. R. Plantt of Eugenia is a county constable. What does he propose to do about it?

A concert will be held in Rock Mills church on Dec. 10, 1915, consisting of the following. Two plays entitled Jumbo Jum and A Jealous Husband, orchestra, solos, etc.

The friends of little Miss Marjory Dudgeon will regret to learn that she is confined to her bed with an attack of inflammatory rheumatism. Hopes are entertained that it will not be of long duration.

The ladies of the Methodist church will hold their annual missionary quilting on Thursday Dec. 2. All who are interested in this work are invited to be present in the lecture room of the church as early in the afternoon as possible,

The big dominion war loan of fifty million dollars is advertised in The Advance this week. Intending investors will have to hurry, as the lists are supposed to close on Tuesday of next week. Now is your opportunity to show your patriotism by investing in Canada's first war loan.

A runaway created some excitement in town on Friday. The animal started from Dr. Ottewell's with its owner holding on to its halter. He clung to the beast while it ran two blocks and then fell, the horse jumping over him and the buggy passing over without touching him. The animal tore around four more blocks then brought up unharmed in Hickling's shed. Nothing was hurt, broken or "busted."

The Farmer's Weekly Sun is not a party hack. It deals with all public questions fearlessly and it deals with these questions from the standpoint of what it considers the best interests of the farm, believing that the interests of the farm are identical with the interests of the country as a whole. A journal of this class should have a place in every farm home. You can get it in combination with The Advance at $1 80 a year.

Mighton, the Durham wife beater, was given forty days in the common gaol for escaping rom custody. On the charge of wife beating he got off on suspended sentence. The County Crown Attorney, we are informed, refused to call witnesses in the case and took no evidence. It was an easy getaway for Mighton. Why did the County Crown Attorney refuse to summon witnesses asked for by Constable Cook? Does he consider the escape a more serious offence than half killing a woman?

Last week the Durham Review republished a scurrilous article from a Detroit paper, ridiculing High Constable Cook, who went to that city after Mighton. Just what purpose the Review intended to serve by copying this caricature of a faithful officer is more than we can fathom. Surely our officials have a hard enough task looking after the sinners without the local press attempting to make of them a laughing stock, as the Review has done. Bro. Ramage should get down on his hunkers and apologize for the misuse he has made of his opportunities as a journalist.

Walkerton

Mr. John Hossfeld of Brant has been awarded first prize in the baby beef competition in Bruce, he having a thirteen months' old calf that tipped the scales at 1200 lbs. As this would be a respectable weight for a 2-year old, Mr. Hossfeld expects to put all competitors in the shade at the coming Fat Stock Show in Guelph, where he will exibit the animal and no doubt bring back another red card decoration for its stall.

The mishap which befell Mrs Martin Drumm about 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning of last week, when she was thrown forcibly on her head to the pavement sidewalk in front of her home by the horse suddenly stepping forward as she was alighting from the rig, proved fatal, Mrs. Drumm dying in the Bruce County Hospital about 5.30 o'clock on Thursday morning from hemmorhage of the brain, she never having regained consciousness after the mishap.

Gordon A. Bonter, who is alleged to have stung a lot of Walkerton people on a fake coal-mine in Melancthon township is now in the Walkerton jail, Constable Ezra Briggs having brought the prisoner up on Friday from Toronto, where he was convicted on Thursday last of swindling some Toronto people and was let go on suspended sentence. Bonter will appear on Monday next at 2 p.m. before Magistrate James Tolton to answer to the charge of defrauding the Misses Kate and Isabella McKinnon of Walkerton out of some $1500 by selling them shares in the Melancthon coal mine. Miss Mary Glendenning, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Gibson and son, Mack, and other Walkerton people who are said to have purchased shares in this coal mine. Bonter was to have been tried on Friday but as he claims that is his unlucky day and didn't care to take a chance on it, the hearing was set for Monday. Crown Attorney Dixon is prosecuting the case, while a Toronto lawyer is defending the prisoner.—Herald and Times.

Rcently Mr. A. G. H. Luxton received word from a French customer at Batiscan, Quebec, to whom he has sent pure bred poultry at various times, that a pair of home pigeons, that he sent last year, had left a couple of days after they arrived. Mr. Robert Young who bred the pigeons here, is sure that they returned to him. This is a pretty good flight for this home-loving breed of pigeons, as Bastican is in Champlain County, beyond Montreal. How they could find their way is one of the mysteries of bird life.—Mt. Forest Confederate
