THE MIXING BOWL

BY Anne Allan
HYDRO HOME ECONOMIST

Hello, Homemakers. It is now well-known that with the exception of the weather, labour is probably the greatest limiting factor in farm production. Without labour, vegetables will rot on the vines, fruit will spoil on the trees, grain will shell out on the ground, and sugar beets will never reach the refinery. Canadian farms are highly mechanized, but there are still countless jobs, big ones and small ones, that must be done largely by hand. And even a machine must be run by human hands. This work is healthy exercise; it involves great personal satisfaction because one can see worthwhile results in a very short time. Just ask anyone who enjoys the country in the summer.

For those homemakers who lend the helping hand we suggest the following easily prepared meals:

1. Macaroni or spaghetti cooked and ready to heat with tomatoes and onion or a cream cheese sauce.
2. Broiled sausages of frankfurters.
3. Egg dishes—creamed hard-cooked, scrambled, omelettes, etc.
4. Broiled ready-cooked meats that you've asked the butcher to slice thick—e.g., bologna.
5. Salads which are quickly prepared or moulded for next day while dinner is cooking.
6. Desserts: Fresh fruit in season, sweet dumplings with syrup, prepared pudding mixtures, refrigerator dishes, etc.

SPINACH ROLL

Thoroughly wash a peck of spinach. Pour boiling water over spinach to wilt leaves. Drain. Arrange leaves flat on a piece of cheesecloth laid on paper towelling. Make a ¼-inch thick pile. Sprinkle with salt. Roll up as you would a jelly roll. Press to remove excess water. Chill in electric refrigerator. Cut, making a bias slice. Serve with a mixture of French Dressing and grated cheese. Serves 6.

JELLIED LETTUCE SALAD

2 tbsps. gelatin, ½ cup water (cold), ¼ cup vinegar, ¼ cup lemon juice, 2 cups boiling water, 1 tsp. salt, ½ cup sugar, 1½ cups shredded lettuce, ½ cup shredded spinach, ¼ cup shredded pepper, 1 tsp. grated onion.

Soak gelatin in cold water for 5 mins., add vinegar, lemon juice, boiling water, salt, sugar, and onion juice. Stir until dissolved. Cool. Arrange lettuce, spinach and pepper in a wet or lightly greased mold, pour the cooled mixture over this and chill in electric refrigerator. Turn out on lettuce leaves. Serve with mayononaise.

SPICED APPLE REFRIGERATOR PUDDING

1 package (orange) gelatin, 1¼ cups hot water, 3 large apples, grated, 1tbsp. lemon juice, ½ cup orange juice, ¼ cup honey, ⅛ tsp. salt, ½ tsp. cinnamon, 1 cup cream, whipped; 12 vanilla wafers.

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Cover grated apple with lemon and orange juice, honey, salt and spices Add to gelatin mixture when it has cooled. When gelatin begins to thicken, fold in whipped cream. Pour into mould lined with vanilla wafers and chill in electric refrigerator. Unmold and serve sliced.

TAKE A TIP

1. Dainty cookies are made simply: Bake thin round cookies and put a small amount of thin icing in centre of each. On the surface, draw flowers, or any design you like with toothpicks dipped in vegetable colouring.
2. When melting chocolate, place the squares in a waxed paper, then place this over hot water on a pie plate. Softened, it may be poured or scraped off easily.
3. To sharpen the meat grinder, put tiny pieces of pumice stone through it.

"Tell me, Senator, do you believe that tight clothes stop circulation?"

"Not with a woman, my dear." replied the solon. "The tighter the clothes, the more she's in circulation."
