VICINITY CHIPS

Mr. Bert Little of Owen Sound s visiting his brother, Dr. Little.

Mr. Bunt and family left on Wednesday for their new home in Owen Sound.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowes of St. Vincent spent Sunay with their daughter, Mrs. J. H. Heard.

Something very like Indian summer prevailed all of last week, removing all the snow and making it possible for farmers to do considerable more plowing.

Shotting match—Friday, Dec. 3, on lot 31, con. 4, Artemesia, shot gun and rifle range, Ducks, geese and turkeys. Accommodation for men and horses.—Archie Fisher.

The Maxwell Methodist Ladies Aid are having a Meat supper on Dec. 14. A good program will be given consisting of dialogues, solos, duets and military drills. Admission 25 and 15c.

We have a full stock of Victrolas and Victor Records which are advertised elsewhere in this paper. Come in and let us tell you all about them. You'll be interested and entertained.—W. E. Richardson.

The Durham Review objects to other papers using original matter from its columns without due credit, but it copies the Artemesia council minutes every month from us without credit. What s this about diamonds and consistency, or jewels, or something? Will Bro. Ramage quote the wise man's words correctly for us?

Mr. C. B. Perigo of D'Arcy, Sask., sen is The Advance photographs of two small piles of wheat just as it was piled up from the thresher. One pile belonging to J. H. Elder contained 17,000 bushels; another belonging to F.B.Elder contained 14,000 bushels. The pictures are very interesting souvenirs of what the West can do and we appreciate Mr. Perigoe's thoughtfulness in forwarding them.

At a concert held in Markdale one evening last week Lieut. Col. Chisholm of Owen Sound told the people that they were not doing their duty in the recruiting line. Perhaps now that a former resident of Markdale has been appointed to the command of the Grey regiment it will make a difference with the backsliders, the undecided and the indifferent. They ought to make recruiting hum now.

The Eugenia Branch of the Women's Institute held a very successful At Home at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Williams on Friday evening of last week. After the guests assembled they spent a very pleasant time indulging in games, contests, etc. Music was supplied by the Misses Allie and Neah Williams, and Miss Queenie Kaitting, also Mr. C. Ramey who is an excellent violinist. The tables were highly decorated and draped to suit the occasion. Everyone enjoyed themselves and departed for their homes about one o'clock, wishing that these social evenings would come more frequently.

An interesting incident occurred at the close of the morning service in the Methodist church on Sunday last, when the pastor called on Mr. M. K. Richardson to come forward. Mr. Richardson then referred to the pending removal of Mr. W. H. Bunt. Mr. Bunt had for seventeen years been a faithful member of the church, and for most of that time superintendent of the Sabbath school. This faithful service called for some recognition at the hands of the congregation, and upon request Mr. T. Clayton presented Mr. Bunt with a handsome gold watch, and Miss Lilian Bunt, organist of the Sabbath school, with a wrist watch. The gifts were representative of the whole church and Sabbath school. Both organizations regret exceedingly the necessity of parting with Mr. Bunt and children, who have a warm place in the hearts of all. We trust their new home in Owen Sound will be found congenial.

A despatch from Ottawa says:—Major G. F McFarlane, chief musketry officer for the Toronto military area, has been recommended as the commanding officer of the 147th Grey County Overseas Battalion, the foundation of which was authorized at the week-end.

After remaining with his mother here for some time Corporal Bert Jamieson went back to Porcupine, where he enlisted, and, as previously mentioned, received a rousing reception. By the Porcupine Herald we notice however, that something much more tangible also resulted from his return there. The Herald says: "During his incapacity from work, Corporal T. A. Jamieson has been granted forty dollars a month by Council of Tisdale to date from November 1st. Jamieson was gassed and invalided home to South Porcupine and is the first local soldier back from the front. It is worthy of note as far as can be gleaned that this is the first time in the Dominion that such a tangible grant has been made by an incorporated body of men, AFTER the soldiers return and is worthy of imitation. Collectively the grant would only mean about one cent per person in the township a month, and therefore is not noticed."

A young man out Eugenia way feels a good deal better, now that he has "got even," and it happened this way: Several young men decided to have a fowl supper and, without knowing it, a near by farmer contributed four ducks to the feast. The party made one grand mistake, however, by failing to invite the young man referred to at the beginning of this gruesome tale, and after brooding over the insult the aggrieved one proceeded to write a letter to every member of that bacchanalian group in the name of the farmer who owned the ducks, demanding that they show up at once and pay for the ducks they had "pinched." It was only a matter of a few hours until a procession of young men was seen wending its way to the farm premises where an adjustment was made. It was only on the appearance of the young men that the farmer learned of his loss, and the boys found out how they had been hoaxed into pursuing an honest course.

Address and Presentation

Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, Toronto line, were given a pleasant surprise on Friday evening last, when about fifty of their neighbors and friends assembled at their home and spent an enjoyable evening with the esteemed couple, who are about to move to this village.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were presented with an address and appreciated gifts, the former beitg read by Mr. Alfred Harrison and the latter presented by Mrs. Harrison and Mr. W. J. Casewell. Mr. Johnson fittingly thanked the donors for their token of good-will, after which refreshments were served and music and games were indulged in till a late hour.

The following was the address:—

Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson,

Dear Friends:—Learning with sincere regret of your intended removal from our midst we, your old neighbors and friends, have taken this liberty of assembling in your home to spend an evening with you and by our presence manifest our good-will towards you both. During the many years you have lived amongst us—all of your wedded life and more—we have had reason to esteem you highly as we do now.

As neighbors we have ever found you obliging and kind, ready always to lend a hand to any project for the benefit of the community. Your friendship, warm and true, we have appreciated and trust though you go from our midst it may remain unbroken.

We are pleased that your new home will not be far distant, so that occasionally we may meet and enjoy the intercourse so pleasant in the past.

As a token of our friendship and goodwill we ask you, Mr. Johnson, to accept this easy chair, Mrs. Johnson this table, with the earnest wish that you may live many years to use them and enjoy the well earned rest due you after your years of toil. Our concluding wish is that you may be long spared for the comfort of each and for the unbroken happiness of your esteemed family.

That Illegal Fishing

Eugenia, November 20, 1915.

Mr. Editor:

Dear Sir—Your item last week regarding fishing at Eugenia on the Beaver river has attracted considerable attention. You would like to know what I am going to do about it? Well, Mr. Editor, I got the names of two men that have been catching fish with nets at the spawning beds. I understand that Flesherton has a Game Warden, I would like to know what he thinks about it? He can have the names any time he wants them by calling at my residence. Yours,

—Robert Plantt, Eugenia.

Kerton-Priestly

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Priestly Nov. 17th when their eldest daughter Lillian, was united in marriage Mr. Louis Kerton of Maxwell. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a dress of blue silk and was attended by her cousin, Miss Ella Morrison, while the groom was assisted by Mr. John Priestly, brother of the bride.

The ceremony was perforned by the Rev. Abbot of Dundalk after which the guests sat down to a dainty wedding supper.

The young couple were the recipients of many beautitul presents and the good wishes of a host of friends go with them in their journey through life.

Norman Day, 2nd line, Nottawasaga, met with a very serious loss by the destruction of his barn by fire on Friday evening. Shortly after tea Mr. Day went to do the work at the barn for the evening and on opening the door of the house was met by the fire in his barn. Neighbors gathered as quickly as possible and worked like heroes to save what they could but the fire in the main building was soon beyond control. The horses and cows were gotten out, and some implements, grain, etc., but a calf and about 25 hens perished with a great quantity of other articles, grain and feed. Forunately the wind was favorable and the strenuous exertions of willing workers were successful in saving a second barn a few yards distant. How the fire started is a mystery.—Stayner Sun.

Mr. Henry Williams, one of Brant's stalwart pioneers, who now makes his home in Walkerton, recently made a curious discovery. He found that the old stake marking the boundaries of lot 20, con. 6, Brant, placed there sixty years ago by his father, is still as good as ever, the Roman letters cut into the wood giving the number of the lot and concession are still as plain as ever. It is doubtful whether others of the original survey stakes of the township are still in existence.—Walkerton Telescope.

Last Thursday evening the barn belonging to Mr. Robert Hayes, who lives about 1½ miles from Dornock, was burned. The fire was caused by the explosion of a lantern. All Mr. Hayes' grain and hay was turned and the barn is a total loss. The stock and implements were all saved. The news has been informed that $800 insurance was carried on the barn and $500 on the contents. The loss will be a serious one as the barn was a valuable one and the season's crop was a heavy one.—Chatsworth News.
