Priceville Jottings

[This budget arrived after we had gone to press last week—Ed.]

Colin McLean will finish his threshing season this week.

D. G. McLean is seriously ill since Saturday with congestion of the lungs.

Mr. John McMillan, South line, who has been slowly wearing away with old age, passsd away on the evening of Nov. 24, in his 82nd year. He has been a much respected resident of the South Line for over sixty years. Ths funeral on Nov. 26 was largely attended, and interment took place in Evergreen cemetery near the lake. Rev. J. A. Matheson conducted the services at residence and grave and six nephews served as pallbearers.

Died—At his residence, Priceville, Mr. C. C. James, aged 71 years, at 12 o'clock p.m Tuesday, Nov. 30. Although ailing for some weeks with heart trouble, yet no one expected him to pass away so soon. Mr. James has been engaged in the manufacture of leather and leather goods here for 46 years or more, and had a wide circle of acquaintances in the county, and was recording stewart in the Methodist church here for over twenty years. The funeral on Friday, Dec. 3, was largely attended, and the services were conducted by Rev. F. N. Bowes, assisted by Revs. Ottewell, Humphrey and J. J. Leece, former pastors of the church here, and also Rev. J. A. Mathewson, Presbyterian resident minister. Interment took place in the cemetery south east of Markdale, where deceased was laid beside his wife and son, who predeceased him a number of years ago. Five daughters survive—Mrs. Bowes of Markdale, Mrs. H. B. McLean of Priceville and Misses, Jennie, Bertha and Edith at home.

147th Battalion Recruiting

Recruiting has taken a jump. The parade state this morning shows 358 officers and men on the strength, besides those now training at Meaford. A dozen or more have been added this week; and more are coming in.

A good recruiting scheme appears to be the granting of extra week-end leave to men who get recruits. We understand that one chap has been home every week end for five or six weeks, and has brought a new man back with him every time.

Through the generosity of friends the Battalion will soon be provided with bands. A gentleman who wishes his name to be for the present kept secret has offered to donate the instruments for a brass band; and steps are to be taken at once to engage a bandmaster. The Mc Quay Tanning Co. has offered to provide the bugles and drums for a bugle band; so in the way of music—a most important feature in carrying on the work of the Battalion, as well as one of the best aids to recruiting—the 147th will be fixed.—O. S. Advertiser.

Vandeleur Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. M. Hutchinson and two children of Markdale visited Mr. Wm. Callis and other friends hereabout one day last week.

A number of friends and acquaintances of Mr. Will Ratcliffe met in the basement of the church on Monday evening week prior to his departure for Northern Ontario, and presented him with a suit case and travelling companion. Will will be missed by the young people of this neighborhood with whom he was a great favorite.

Mr. and Mrs. A. McNally of Hayward Falls spent the week end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Warling.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Still of Toronto visited Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Warling recently.

Miss Mary Beard who underwent an operation in Toronto some time ago for abscess in the head and who has been home for some time, returned to the city last week for further treatment.

Miss Violet Gilbert of Kimberley visited her sister, Mrs. Will Hutchinson, the beginning of the week.

Mr. Thos. Flynn moved his family to Markdale last week where he has secured a situation.

Mr. Wm. Ceasar has purchased the house from Mr. P. Beard which was formerly occupied by Thos. Flynn, and will take possession in the spring.

Mine Artist Will Refund

Gordon A. Bonter, the Melancthon coal mine artist, who was up before Judge Klein last Thursday on the charge of conspiring to defraud Misses Kate and Isabella McKinnon of Walkerton, to whom he sold $1500 worth of mining stock, was acquitted on the conspiracy charge by Judge Klein, who took until Saturday to consider the case, The fact that the Misses McKinnon had been recommended to buy the stock by their cousin, Miss McNeill of Rochester, N.Y., and had first written to Bonter about the shares, was the weak point in their case. As it seemed, however, from the evidence that Bonter had persuaded Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Gibson to subscribe for $300 worth of the stock on the representation that sixteen of the most prominent people in Walkerton had already taken shares, when such was not the case, Judge Klein stated that he would be tempted on the evidence he had, to sentence him if a charge had been laid of getting money from the Gibsons under false pretences. Crown Attorney Dixon announced that such a charge had just been laid, and that Bonter was therefore charged with this offence. As Bonter stated that he intended to give the parties back their money here if he could get time to raise it, he was allowed out for nine months on furnishing bail of $1000 to appear here on September 5, 1916, for trial—Bruce Herald and Times.

Thinks We're Astute

They had a paper chase in Flesherton recently, and "the cackle kept up by that bevy of pretty girls reminded one of a flock of wild geese," says the Advance. The astuteness of the editor in saying the girls were pretty is apparent at a glance.—Clarksburg Review.
