THE MIXING BOWL

By Anne Allan
HYDRO HOME ECONOMIST

Hello, Homemakers! The quality of garden vegetables used in the winter time depends to a large extent on the method of storage. We recommend an insulatd vegetable room in the basement. If this is impossible, use a root cellar or a pit specially made for the purpose of storing vegetables. For details of construction see the Dominion Department of Agriculture Bulletin No. 138, Household Storage of Fruits and Vegetables.

SUCCOTASH WITH CHEESE

4 cups lima beans, 3 cups corn kernels, salt and pepper, 1½ cups medium white sauce, ½ cup grated cheese.

Combine the beans and corn and season with salt and pepper. Heat mixture thoroughly. Serve with sauce made by combining medium white sauce with grated nippy cheese. Yield: Eight servings.

BAKED STUFFED ONIONS

4 large onions, 1 cup sausage meat, 1 cup soft bread crumbs, ¼ cup chopped onion pulp, salt and pepper, buttered crumbs.

Peel onions and boil uncovered in boiling salted water 30 to 40 mins. or until tender. Drain and cool and remove part of centres to make pulp. Mix lightly sausage meat, bread crumbs, onion pulp, salt and pepper. Fill onions with this mixture. Sprinkle with crumbs. Bake in an electric oven 350 degrees, 20 minutes.

POPULAR HAM SCALLOP

2 cups diced cooked ham, 2 cups diced cooked potatoes, ½ cup diced celery, 3 tbsps. peanut butter, 2 cups white sauce, salt and pepper, ¾ cup soft bread crumbs.

Arrange alternative layers of ham, potatoes and celery in greased casserole dish. Melt the peanut butter in the white sauce and add salt and pepper. Pour over the layers of meat and vegetables and sprinkle with crumbs. Bake in an electric oven at 350 degrees for 35 mins.

PRESENTATION TO MR. AND MRS. ELMORE JAMIESON

Friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Copeland, Etobicoke, on Friday evening, Sept. 29, when the evening was spent in visiting and dancing and a presentation of a floor lamp, mirror and roasting pan was made to Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Jamieson. This young couple were married last January and have just recently been discharged from the armed forces. The following address was read by Mrs. Russell Linton:

Dear Elmore and Peggy: Your time having been so short when you tied the matrimonal knot, we did not have the opportunity to even see you off, but now that it has been God's will that you both were spared to return to our midst, we have gathered here this evening to extend to you our very best wishes for happiness and success in your future married life.

As for you, Peggy, being so far from home, we hope you will always feel welcome in our midst, as we are glad to know you as Elmore's wife, and hope that when you are at liberty you will always feel free to mingle with us.

On behalf of your friends and neighbors, we take great pleasure in presenting you with these gifts as a token of the esteem in which we hold you and as a reminder that we never forgot either one of you, and hope that you will find time to visit each and every one of us. Wishing you a long and lasting happy married life.

—Signed by Lloyd Little and Kenneth McKee.

PLANNING for EXPANSION OF RURAL TELEPHONE SERVICE

To keep step with farm progress and to extend service to more farm families, the telephone industry is working on important new devices and methods.

Plans are already under way for resuming the rural telephone expansion program suspended in 1940, when equipment and material became urgently needed for the armed forces. Surveys are being made to determine the needs and to provide the facts for carrying out plans to expand farm telephone service.

The goal is to bring the telephone to the greatest possible number of farm families.
