Presentation and Address

A pleasing event occurred at the home of Mr. Dougall McPhail, Six Corners, on Tuesday evening of last week, when about 25 of the neighbors met and presented Thomas Chase, who has gone to Toronto to train for the battlefield, with a handsome wrist watch and a pipe. The presentation was made by Clark McMillan while Clara Gilchrist read the following address ;

Dear Tommie,—Learning with sincere regret of your intended removal from our midst, we, your friends, have taken the liberty of assembling here to spend an evening with you, and by our presence manifest our goodwill towards you. We have all felt the deepest admiration for you in your manly and noble sacrifice for your country. You are giving up voluntarily the comforts and pleasures of this country to take up, first the discomforts and trials of military camp, and then the awful risks and hazards of the battlefield itself. We hope that wherever you go and at all times, you will bear in mind that we are with you in sympathy and love, and we trust that after those arduous duties are completed you will return to us safe, well and happy. We ask you to accept this small token in remembrance of your past friendship with us. Signed on behalf of the neighbors—A. S. Muir, Dougald McPhail.

Walkerton

Mrs. Robt. Gowanlock, one of the very first settlers of Brant, passed peacefully away at her home in Walkerton on Monday afternoon at the advanced age of 84 years.

Ethel Jerrome, a Walkerton young lady who was arrested by Chief Ferguson and remanded to the Walkerton jail for a week on the charge of vagrancy, appeared before Magistrate Tolton on Friday afternoon, and after pleading hard for her liberty, was granted her freedom by the magistrate, who took advantage of the occasion to reprimand her strongly and pass out some good wholesome advice.

Wm. Cavers, aged 88 yrs. of Amabel township, and an old watch and clock repairer who travelled up and down Bruce county in pursuit of his calling, visining Walkerton on many occasions, was brought in a dying state to the House of Refuge here last week, he having to be carried out of an auto to a bed in the institution, where he is now hovering between life and death. Many of the old-timers about here remember him and speak highly of his former skill.

Reeve John Joynt of Lucknow, while at the County Council here last week, handed in to Mr. H. M. Lay the $500 which he has promised to donate each year to the Bruce county Patriotic Fund as long as the war lasts. Mr. Joynt is making a similar yearly donation to Huron. The only deer he ever shot was donated the other day to the Lucknow Red Cross Society and on being cut up and sold it realized $14 30. In all of his actions Mr. Joynt is proving himself a staunch patriot, and Lucknow has reason to be proud of the loyal stalwart she is sending to represent her at the Bruce County Parliament.—Bruce Herald and Times.

It is reported that General Prosperity has invaded Western Canada. He will not be resisted—Bruce Herald and Times
