PARTY PUP

A dog's life isn't so bad for the pup parked in cop's cap, above, after touring New York cafes with a soldier and civilian who "liberated" him by tossing a crate through a pet shop window. The three were going from bar to bar when police showed up. The "liberators" face a burglary charge, although only the pup was taken from the shop.

Fortune Found In Jap Coop

Allies Discover Fortune In Diamonds

American searchers have found fortunes in diamonds, platinum, gold and silver which Japanese admirals and generals had cached in secluded areas—but never were able to remove from the country because the war ended so abruptly.

General MacArthur's headquarters disclosed that one party discovered "a fabulous fortune in diamonds" in a chicken coop atop a mountain 160 miles north of Tokyo. In another instance a package resembling a packet of hamburger yielded 8,000 karats of diamonds.

No estimates of the value of the loot have been made.

Eleven crates of platinum were discovered beside the chicken coop. The Japanese admirals' aides guided Americans to the cache.

"The trip up the mountain in a pouring rain with those Japanese was one of the most fantastic things that can be imagined," said Capt. L. R. Ward, Interlaken, N.J., who led the party. "It took all day and we got to the little farm at 10:30 at night. We were met by the best dressed Japanese in that part of the counry. He wore a pin stripe suit, two tone shoes, a snappy tie and a fine white shirt. He said he was a caretaker, but he simply was guarding that stuff for those admirals."

Lt.-Col. Emmanual Franklin, Rockville Center; N.Y. finance officer at MacArthur's headquarters, said:

"We are finding fortunes in caves all the way from 100 to 300 miles from Tokyo.

"I believe Japanese army and navy officials got this gold in China and elsewhere and did not tell the proper government agencies about it."

Bullion has been turned up in homes, colleges, a professor's warehouse and nondescript shacks. Plots of unguarded ground also yielded wealth.

Men who think of tomorrow

GUARD AGAINST INFLATION Today!

Old Man Inflation stands just around the corner ready to snatch at your pay envelope and short-change you in return. It happened after 1918, and it can happen again.

It's strange but true that the only ones who can save us from inflation—excessively high prices—are ourselves. It's spending those extra dollars that bids up prices on everything that's still scarce. And once started, inflation spreads like a forest fire to everything we use or consume.

So let's fight the temptation to spend unnecessarily. Let's put every extra dollar into Victory Bonds and hold onto the Bonds we already have.

Think of tomorrow . . . and you'll agree the thing to do is not to cash Victory Bonds but to go and buy more!
