Tragic Death at Meaford

Malcolm Reid, one of the most respected and most successful farmers in St. Vincent, met death in a tragic manner on Friday night last. Deceased had come to town on horseback early in the day, bringing with him an extra horse he had previously sold. After delivering the animal to its new owner, he transacted other business about town and left for home about six o'clock. Riding up Nelson street and 15 16 sideroad to the 7th line, he was passed by many friends of intimate acquaintance who little dreamed that it would be the last time to see Mr. Reid alive. Crossing the river bridge as well as the little creek bridge on the 7th line, the horse must have taken fright at the gurgling water under the latter bridge as he was thrown off the horse just a few feet south of the bridge and struck his head on a stone. The horse went home and the unfortunate man was found by Mr. Jos. Matthews, a neighbor, a few minutes later, in an unconscious state. Carefully picking him up, Mr. Matthews hurried with all speed to his home 1½ miles distant. Medical aid was summoned, but death claimed the victim about 3.30 on Saturday morning without regaining consciousness. No noe witnessed the accident and no one knows what happened, although persons who saw Mr Reid with the horse claim he was riding sidesaddle and was overbalanced when the horse shied.—Express.

Mrs. John Butchard, of the 12th con. Brant, is the owner of the most aged and industrious domestic goose in Western Ontario, or perhaps in the Dominion. It is 26 years since this goose was hatched, and she is reported to be quite smart yet. Last year she laid nine eggs, then hatched and raised two goslings. In the course of her life Granny Goose Butchard has probably shed enough first grade feathers to fill a bed-tick, raised a dray load of fine Thanksgiving roasts, and is still working as good as a wealth producer as any of her greatest grand daughters have been. If some wide-awake poultry fancier had that never-die goose in his flock, along with some of her progeny, he would be advertising the most virile and fertile strain that ever lived, and sell eggs at 25c for hatching.—Paisley Advocate.

COCKSHUT DISC DRILLS

Thorough cultivation of your land. Careful selection of seed and a dependable Seed Drill are the three essentials to good Crops. Every farmer realizes the importance of the first two, but many overlook the third. There is just as much difference between different Drills and the work they do as there is between various qualities of grain.

Cockshut Disc Drills are made on Principles proven correct by many years of actual service in the field. They work well, wear well and are easy on horses. Every working part is fitted with a large oil cup, so it gets ample lubrication and makes the Cockshut the easiest running Drill on the Market. We have a special Cockshut Drill Booklet and will be glad to give you a copy on request.
