Spoke To Canadians While Crossing Atlantic Ocean

Canadian service personnel returning on the Queen Elizabeth were privileged to hear a talk by Mr. Winston Churchill, who was also a passenger. In part he said:

"What a strange, fearful, yet glittering chapter this war has been. What changes it has wrought throughout the world and in the fortunes of so many families. What an interruption in all the plans each of us had made. What a surrender of the liberties we prized. What a casting away of comfort and safety. What a pride in peril. What a glory shines on the brave and true. For the good cause has not been overthrown. Tyrants have been hurled from their place of power and those who sought to enslave the future of mankind have paid, or will pay, the final penalty.

"You Canadians, many of whom served in the 5th Canadian Division. no doubt have your minds filled with the victorious war scenes of Italy and the Rhine. But we Englishmen always think of the days of 1940 when the Canadian Army Corps stood almost alone in Kent and Sussex and when the Germans had 25 divisions ready to leap across the Channel and wipe Great Britain out of life and history. I think about those stirring days, too, sometimes and how fine it was to see everyone, at home and throughout the Empire, moved by the same impulse, so simple, so sublime. 'conquer or die'. Victory in arms, or in any walk of life is only the opportunity of doing better on a larger scale and at a higher level.

"Do not be anxious about the future. Be vigilant, be strong, be clear-sighted but do not be worried. Our future is in our hands. Our lives are what we choose to make them. The great British Commonwealth and Empire, emerging from the fire once again, glorious and free, will form a structure and an organization within which there will be room for all and a fair chance for all."

MAXWELL CHURCH HAS BEST REPORT IN YEARS

The best report in many years was presented by St. Mary's Church, Maxwell, at the annual meeting. The rector, Rev. W. Bradbury of Dundalk, presided. Extensive repairs were made to the church. Clinton McGee was named people's warden and John Broderick rector's warden Other officers include: sec.-treas., Mrs. G. Seeley; select vestry, Frank Seeley, Reg. Londry, Fred Hargrave, Alvin Grummett, Wm. Seeley, Leslie Chard, Clarence Chard, Mrs. Wm. J. Seeley, Mrs. Pinkerton; lay delegate, Frank Seeley; auditors, Frank Seeley, Mrs. Geo. Long.

The twins had been brought to be christened.

"What names?" asked the clergyman.

"Steak and Kidney," the father answered.

"Bill, you fool," cried the mother, "it's Kate and Sidney."

Olive trees in Australia have not been profitable because of slow growth. Now a plant breeder from California is applying in Australia a formula which is said to have produced olive-bearing trees 14 feet high from year old slips within three years.

THE MIXING BOWL

BY Anne Allan
HYDRO HOME ECONOMIST

Hello Homemakers! It's February ary—the shortest and often the chilliest month of the year. But it brings us St. Valentine's Day and we may comfort ourselves and our guests with a Valentine party which calls for an evening of indoor games.

Hearts set the theme, and red the colour scheme. Refreshments served on tables gaily decorated with red centrepieces and amusing favours will please our guests. Your menu, too, can be planned to carry out the Valentine spirit.

Here are two meus we think you will like. The dishes are quite easy to prepare and good to eat — they will make your party complete.

PARTY MENU (1)

Jellied Tongue
Potato and Parsley Salad — Pickles
Cheese Crumpets
Red Raspberry Sherbert
Love Birds

PARTY MENU (2)

Wedge Salad Bowl
Bread Sticks
Maraschino Pears
Sweetheart Cakes

JELLIED TONGUE

1 can tomato soup, cold water, 1 green peper (chopped finely) or 2 tbsps. parsley, ½ tsp. mnced onion, 1 boiled tongue (diced), ½ tsp. salt, 1 tbsp. granulated gelatine, ½ cup of canned peas.

Combine soup, 1 cup water, green pepper, onion and salt. Simmer 5 mins. then add gelatine which has been soaked in ¼ cup cold water for 5 mins. Stir until dissolved; then add peas and tongue. Pour mixture in mould and chill in electric refrigerator. When partly set, stir to distribute meat and vegetables. Chill again.

BREAD STICKS

1 cup milk, 4 tbsps. shortening, 1½ tbsps. sugar, ½ tsp. salt, 1 yeast cake dissolved in ¼ cup lukewarm water, 1 egg, 3½ cups flour 1 tbsps. caraway seed.

Scald the milk and cool it. Cream the shortening and sugar, add the milk and salt. Add the dissolved yeast, the egg-white, well beaten, and the flour. Knead and let it rise. Shape into sticks about the size of a lead pencil. Place them far apart in a floured pan—about 4 inches. Sprinkle with seed. When light, put into an electric oven of 400 degs., then decrease the heat so that the sticks may become dry and crisp.

RED RASPBERRY SHERBERT

1¾ cups boiling water, 1 cup raspberry juice, 1¾ cups sugar, 1 tsp. gelatine, ¼ cup water, ½ cup pears, 2 oranges, ½ up seeded raisins.

Pour boiling water over sugar and boil 7 mins. Pour hot syrup over gelatine which has been soaked in ¼ cup cold water for 5 mins. Cool. Add juice of oranges, lemons and raspberries. Stir in fruit and put in freezing tray of electric refrigerator.

TAKE A TIP

1. Tart jelly stirred into stiffly-beaten egg white makes a frosting of sweet smoothness in a lovely pastel colour.
2. Sweet potatoes have more natural sweetness than other vegetables. Let them add sugar to your meals.
3. Here's an easy way to speed the process of making a large quantity of sandwiches. Stand the entire loaf of sliced bread on end. Spread filing on top buttered slice and set it to the side of the loaf. When the second slice has been spread set it and the slice under it on top of the loaf, then set two slices on the "filled" pile. You will only butter the one side of the slice upon which the filling is spread, but if filling is moist they will be tasty.
4. Minced veal moistened with concentrated celery soup makes a very good sandwich filling.

THE SUGGESTION BOX

Many thanks to our friends in Northern Ontario for their splendid ideas.

(Mrs. J. W.) Valentine Party memos: Put your valentine cards on the service plates, cut circles of cellophane the size of the inner circle of plates and cover the cards. Your glasses of tomato juice will look very effective.

(Mrs. P. K.) Discarded adhesive tape spools are good candleholders for Valentine arrangements. The bases may be painted or simply covered with paper.

(Mrs. R. Mc.) If you have numerous leftover candles, melt them, pour the melted wax into individual gelatine moulds, and insert soft string wicks. Set these on fancy plates and burn the candles in the moulds.

Time To Put On The Curbs

On one or two occasions recently there have been complaints voiced that several of the young boys and girls attending local dances have shown the effects of excessive drinking. The tendency seems to be for a few of these young "smart Alecs" and "Annies" too, to spoil the fun of the majority of those who attend and conduct themselves in a respecable manner.

This practice, which seems to be fairly general all over, is one which should be curbed and the authorities have a clear duty before them. The law provides for dealing with such cases. It should be enforced. — Southampton Beacon.

TAKE IT EASY

Don't go at this business of shoveling snow as though the whole walk had to be cleaned in a couple of seconds. Take the job in stride realizing that it does not take long, if the shovel works steadily.

So many men forget they are not os young as they used to be. They see the sparkle of the snow and feel the tang in the air. They take it as a challenge to their physical strength. They want to make the snow fly just as they used to do when they fired snowballs at their pals, or possibly tried to knock off the derby hat of the town dude.

Take it easy. Far better to do that shovelling slowly and have a nice clean walk, than to make too great haste and to have someone else clean the walk so they can carry you out feet first to the hearse for your last ride. — Windsor Star.

Harry—"Maybe it's all right marrying a girl with money. But think of the things you'll have to give up, drinking, smoking, running around."

Jerry—"Yeah, but if I don't marry money I'll have to give up eating."
