Foley--Conn

At four o'clock on Wednesdey afternoon, July 5th, the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Conn, eighth line, Osprey, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when their second eldest daughter, Ethel Alice, was united in marriage to Pte. Thomas E Foley, 157th Battalion, C.E.F. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. Abbott of the Anglican Church, Dundalk. The bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march rendered by Miss Rita Osburne, and took her place under an arch of evergreen, Union Jacks and red, white and blue trimmings suspended by a large wedding bell. The bride was attired in a gown of white duchess satin with rosebud trimmings and Irish point lace. She carried a bouquet of bridal roses, carnations with ferns, and was attended by her cousin, Miss Myrtle Sornberger wearing a dainty dress of white embroidery voile. She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. The groom was attended by the bride's brother, Mr. Convert Conn. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome gold wrist watch, to the bridesmaid an elegant watch fob, to the groomsman a gold signet ring. At the signing of the register Miss Rita Osborne played and sang, "We'll Never Let the Old Flag Fall." After congratulations about thirty guests partook of a dainty wedding tea served on the lawn. The bride was the recipient of many handsome and useful presents which showed the high esteem in which the young couple were held. After a brief honeymoon among friends the groom left to join his battalion at Camp Borden. Pte. Foley is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Foley, Walnut street, Collingwood.

The 12th of July celebration in our village was a grand success. There were three lodges in the line up: Eugenia, Rocklyn and Kimberley. The procession was headed by our worthy master, Taylor Abercrombie, mounted on a fine steed. A pleasing feature of the parade was the presence of Thos. Abercrmbie, one of the oldest Orangemen in the Dominion, he being a member of the order for over 60 years. Meals were served during the day by the Traveller's Home and the Women's Institute. About 2 o'clock the crowd repaired to Mrs. Plewes' Orchard, where a platform was erected. Excellent addresses were delivered by Revs. J. R. Wilkinson, a former pastor of our church; Young of Heathcote, and Lane. Reeve Miller and Past County Master J. W. Patton, and District Master Albert Clark also spoke. County Master Chas. Devitt presided. After the Oratorial feast a baseball game between our boys and Rocklyn was pulled off, resulting in a win for the latter.

The Late Richard Heron

On July 8, 1916, there passed from our presence on earth one of the beautiful characters that demonstrates the power of God unto Salvation, in the person of Richard Heron. Born in the township of York, Jan. 15, 1834, he moved to Osprey township 66 years ago. He married Elizabeth Jagger 58 years ago, by whom he had three children—two sons and one daughter. Mrs. Heron died at Maxwell 16 years ago. He was a member of the Methodist church and an active christian worker for 54 years, and spent nearly 25 years as Superintendent of Maxwell Sunday school, and several years on the Quarterly Official Board. He was loved and honored by all who knew him as a man of godly life, wise counsel and generous heart. He always gave the preacher a welcome from an honest heart. There was no hypocricy in Richard Heron. Honest to the core, he looked for the best in his fellows, and was ready to help all who came to him. He had a humble spirit, which ever kept him conscious of his need of Christ. He was buried at Maxwell on July 10. A large number of neighbors gathered for the funeral service, which was conducted by Rev. Tiller, pastor of Maxwell circuit. He is survived by two children—Mrs. Joseph Henderson on the 12th line of Osprey township, Albert at Los Angeles, and two sisters in Toronto. The pall bearers were: Robt. Morrison, Wm. Scutt, Robt. Fenwick, Fred Spofford, W. J Kernahan and R. Alister.
