MARKDALE — FLESHERTON

Kimberley Budget

Weather quite cool of late.

Most all the spring grain in this part will be cut by the end of the week. Hartley Fawcett of Heathcote, is threshing alsike clover at present on the Valley road north of our burg. It is turning out well this year.

Harold Proctor and Albert Smith of the 147th Batt., were home for a few days last week. The boys expect to leave for England soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Acheson of Harkawy, visited recently at G. Hutchidson's.

Mr. Jas. Heatherington, manager of the Beaver Valley Municipal Telephone Co., made a business trip to our burg one day last week.

Messrs. J. H. Fawcett, Geo. Hunt, C. Mack, Mr. Boales Mr. McKenny, motored over from Collingwood one day recently and spent the day fishing in the waters of the old Beaver. Mr. Fawcett landed a beauty nearly a foot and a half long. We weren't far away when the big fellow was caught and would have guessed him at two feet in the excitement. Six trout was all the bunch secured. This seems to be a very poor year for the disciples of Ike Walton.

Mrs. C. Good and little daughter, Dorothy, of Toronto, are holidaying with the former's mother, Mrs. John Plewes.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McMillan of Dundalk, spent a pleasant visit during the past week with the latter's sister, Mrs. Geo. Hutchinson.

Quite a number attended the baseball tournament at Rocklyn on Thursday last and all report some fast ball being played.

Squire Stuart is spending a few days this week with friends in Flesherton.

Portlaw

We wish to testify to the efficiency of the Advance as an advertising medium. In last weeks budget it was announced that we needed rain right away, and before it was thought possible for the printer to have the notice in type a bountiful supply of the genuine wet goods was promptly sent home to us The majority are delighted with the result. Still there are people in other parts who stick to old methods and go around with a watering can and their back bent instead of advertising their needs.

A very successful garden party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Winters on Friday evening last under the auspices of Maxwell Anglican church. After a friendly game of baseball, played between Rock Mills and Shrigley teams and a sumptuous supper, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Abbot, tock the chair and introduced a varied and good program. Dundalk band added much to the pleasure of the evening. The proceeds were in the neighborhood of $125.00.

Mrs. Albert Thompson is under the doctor's care, suffering with a very sore ankle. We all hope to see her well again soon.

Mrs. Jamieson is recovering as fast as can be expected.

Mr. Woods of Corbetton had charge of the service in Mount Zion church.

Mrs. John Jamieson and son, George, of Toronto visited last week at the home of Mrs. W. G. Jamieson.

Miss Morton has returned from a two weeks visit with friends at Toronto, Niagara and Buffalo.

$360 was the nice sum of money received last week by Mr. Geo. McMaster, for a jag of swine.

Mr. George Thompson is visiting with his daughters in Toronto.
