JUST IN FUN

Probably He Will

Cavalry recruit: "I don't like the look of the horse's head, sir."

Sergeant: "Oh, don't worry. You'll soon get over that."

He'd Do the Same

Mother: "Johnnie, dear, I was hoping you would be unselfish enough to give your little sister the largest piece of candy. Why, even that old hen will give all the nicest dainties to her little chicks and take only a tiny one once in a while for herself."

Johnnie (after watching the old hen for a while):: "Well, mom, I'd do the same thing if it was worms."

Dog Collector

"What sort of a dog is he?"

"An entomologist."

"But an entomologist is a collector of insects."

"Well, he does that all right."

Hard Times

These sausages you sent me are meat at one end and breadcrumbs at the other," said Mrs. Andrews.

"Yes, madam," replied the butcher; "in these hard times it is difficult to make both ends meat."

Anything New

A business man was upset because his new typist was late. Fuming, he said, as she finally came in: "You should have been here at nine!"

"Why?" she asked. "What happened?"

Could be Managed

"Oh, porter," exclaimed the fair young thing, "does this train go first or the one on Platform Number Four?"

"Number Four, miss," replied the porter; "it's due off in a minute, but if you run you'll catch it."

"Yes; but have I got time to run over there and miss it, and then come back and catch this one?"

Boring

"I'm going to kiss you before I go," said the young man who had outstayed his welcome.

"Do it now while I'm still young," replied the girl, wearily.

In For Awhile

Just after his conviction the prisoner put up a strong plea for mercy.

"So you can see, your honor, he ended, with a whine, "I'm really down and out."

But the judge had heard that story so often before. Looking over his spectacles, he replied:

"No, you may be down, but you're not out—not for six months anyway."

He Was

First Burglar (pointing to a well-known millionaire): "How would you like to be in his shoes?"

Second Burglar: "I am."

A Meddler

The minister in the Highland hamlet had no more ardent admirer than old Jean. As he thundered forth denunciations of the sins of immorality, lying, drunkenness, her amens were heartfelt.

One day he turned his attention to a habit of pipe smoking among the elder women.

Old Jean left the meeting firmly clutching her pipe.

"I can't do with preachers when meddling," she said.

meddling," she aisd.

Then Choose

A shipwrecked sailor who had spent five years on a desert island, was overjoyed one day to see a ship drop anchor in the bay. A small boat came ashore and an officer handed the sailor a bundle of newspapers.

"The captain suggests," he told the sailor, "that you read what's going on in the world and then let us know if you want to be rescued."

World's Shortest Novel

The following, taken from a petty cashbook, is surely the world's shortest novel:—

Advert. for typist, 2s; typist's salary, £2; flowers, 5s, chocolates, 7s6d; typist's salary, £3; sweets for wife, 6d; Winnie's salary, £4; dinner and theater for Winnie and self, £10 10s; fur coat for wife, £150; advt. for male typist, 2s.

Everything Frozen

A sailor on leave was being pressed for stories, and at last he told his listeners of an adventure in the icy north.

"It was that cold up there," he said "that one day I saw some sea birds suspended in mid-air, frozen stiff and unable to fly or fall down."

Said one doubting Thomas, "but what about the law of gravity?"

"That was frozen stiff too," said the sailor.

VOICE OF THE PRESS

Old-Fashioned

One nice thing about not being too famous is that you can keep the same wife year after year.

—Guelph Mercury.

Logical

Ever think of it this way? The less food you waste, the less food you buy. The food you don't buy, is available for bulk shipment to the hunger zone.

—Stratford Beacon-Herald.

Discouraging

When you think you're overworked, just think of the busy bee. In order to make a honey crop, bees from a good colony must visit up to 520,000,000 flowers during the season.

—St. Thomas Times-Journal.

This Is Drowning Season

Reports from various places show the drowning season is getting well started. People will go out of their depth, will take canoes into dangerous waters or do some other crazy thing.

There is not much to be done about it, because every year so many people drown. Only thing to do is make sure the list does not include you.

—Windsor Star.

Reconversion Hint

A mild suggestion: Let's forget all about "reconversion" and just let's go back to work.

—Vancouver Province.

Britons Still Strong

The Empire may be weakened, but not the British people. There are many who believe that the post-war generation will be more enterprising and resourceful than their fathers. Certainly the British are the best risks in the world today—and the only strong competitors in the business of making the democratic system work.

—New York Times.

Hooked Either Way

If you make out your income tax return wrong, you are in the hands of the law; and if you make it out right, you are in the hands of the receiver.

—Drumheller Mail.

But It Won't Happen

What a revolution there would be if landlords suddenly began advertising "no childless couples need apply."

—Edmonton Journal.

Danger Ahead

We have learned in Canada that this continent, if not the world, is one economic whole. We have felt repercussions from the American economic situation in more ways than one. There is a considerable danger that we may take it for granted that American procedure must always be followed here. Unless we take warning we may find ourselves drawn into a vortex of inflation we have so far succeeded in avoiding.

—Halifax Chronicle.

Come East, Young Man

Remember the old harvest excursions?

Remember the trains that pulled out for the prairies, to the rolling plains and the wheat fields and the big meals and big talk of the west?

That was a long time ago, friend, a long time ago. Now it's in reverse.

This year Ontario has a bumper crop. Our fields are rich with the good things of the earth. They have even called for 25,000 additional men from the west to help gather in the harvest. Come east, young man, come east.

—Hamilton Spectator.

When Man Listens

Some women think a man is very entertaining if he sits patiently and listens to them talk.

—Brandon Sun.
