Flesherton Advance.

"TRUTH BEFORE FAVOR."—"PRINCIPLES NOT MEN.'

VOl 36 No. 40 | Flesherton, Ont., Thursday, February 22, 1917 | W. H THURSTON EDITOR and PROPRIE

Eugenia Paragraphs

The thaw Saturday and snowstorm left our roads in bad shape for travelling.

A. Hoy had a narrsw escape from fire on Saturday, but with the help of neighbors the house was saved without much damage. It started from the chimney.

L. Latimer attended the Quarterly Board held at Mt. Zion last week.

Mrs. Ben Sturgeon of Stoughton, Sask., nee Edith Carr, and two children, have been visiting friends in this vicinity for a couple of months. Last week her husband came to accompany her home. They are spending a few days in town before going. They will visit friends in Toronto on the return journey.

We are glad to report Russel Park out after being under the doctor's care with pleurisy.

Mrs. Garuet Magee and two children, accompanied by her grandmother, Mrs. Parliament of Paisley, visited with Mr. and Mrs. A. Hoy.

Ed. Graham, who has spent a couple of months in Toronto, is visiting with his family.

We are sorry to report Mr. Latimer, Sr., on the sick list, but hope to soon see him able to be out again.

Mr. Woods of Corbetton preached a very interesting sermon Sunday evening last and expects to be here next Sunday as well.

The W. I. will hold their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. L. Latimer on Wednesday, Feb. 28, when they intend to arrange for an entertainment of some kind, and would like all members to be present. Visitors welcome.

In a letter received recently from Pte. Fred Smith, a prisoner in Germany, he wishes to thank his many friends for many little comforts they have sent him.

Much sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Bert McGee, Bert having had two ribs broken and badly bruised about the body recently, owing to a span of colts running away. Before being able to be around he has taken quinsy and Mrs McGee is ill with tonsilitis. We hope to soon hear of their recovery.

Mrs. McGee, of Vandeleur, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Munshaw.

Power House and Vicinity

Last Week's Items.

Jack Frost was in the Valley last week, but we did not invite him to stay.

Miss Etta Latimer, of Eugenia, visited her friend, Miss Nellie Wickens.

Messrs. G. C. Graham, R. McMullen and C. Park, of Eugenia, spent an evening with the operators here.

Mr. George Dawson spent a couple of days in Toronto.

Mrs. J. I. Graham and son, Wilfred, of Vandeleur, accompanied by the former's sister, Mrs. Dossey, of Manitoba, visited friends in this neighborhood.

This Week's Items.

Mr. Adam Hislop has been laid up with an attack of LaGrippe.

Mr. Urick had the misfortune to get kicked on the knee by a horse.

Miss Mary Weber has gone on a visit with friends in Flesherton.

Mr. Arthur Williams, of the Advance staff, Flesherton, spent the week end with friends in the Valley.

Glad to report Mr. Russel Park able to be out again after an attack of pleurisy.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Huggard and little daughter, of Duncan, visited the home of Mr. F. H. Graham.

Born—In Buffalo, to Mr. and Mrs. W. Durrant, on February 13, a daughter.

Mrs. D. Park, of Eugenia, visited her son, Russel.

Mrs. Jack Wickens and children, of Kimberley, spent a day with friends at the power house.

Messrs. T. D. Berry and F. Graham can give a very good account of how the thermometer registered last Monday morning. Going out before breakfast to locate line trouble, both suffered with very severe frost bites.

Mr. W. Durrant has gone to visit his wife in Buffalo.

Mr. George Graham visited his son, Operator Fred Graham, here.

Messrs. A. Hoy and Card Graham are busy drawing gravel to the power house.

Charles, Jack and Marjorie Park spent an evening with there brother, Russel.

Messrs. Stanley Campbell and Wallace Graham are drawing log to Kimberley.

Messrs. Arthur Williams and Stanley Campbell had a most delightful drive to Portlaw on Sunday.

Mrs. L. Badjerow, of near Portlaw, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fred Graham,

Kimberley Budget

Mrs. Geo. Hutchinson and son, Hadden, spent a few days recently at the home of Mrs. Thos. McQuay, Meaford.

Quite a number attended the sale of Mr. Butler's up the valley on Thurs. last.

Mansell Cook visited at his parental home, Rocklyn, one day last week.

A good time is expected at the carnival on Friday next at our open air rink. A goodly number of prizes have been offered for the different costumes.

Died—At Collingwood, recently, Mrs. John Drinkle. She was an old resident of this place and was highly respected.

Miss Homes, teacher in Flesherton High School, accompanied by Mrs. Robt. Irwin, visited at Jas. Stuart's one day last week.

David Weber sold a heavy team recently for a handsome sum.

Mr. Geo. Hutchinson made a business trip to Markdale on Friday last.

Harold Ellis and Thos. Gilray of Rocklyn called in our burg on Sat.

The report has now been confirmed that Harry Allen was killed in action "Somewhere in France" about a month ago. Harry was the eldest son of Robt. Allen, formerly of East Mountain, who went West seven or eight years ago.

Wm. Stuart was on a business trip to Flesherton during the past week.

Mrs. Eter Smith is visiting friends in Eugenia at present.

Hatherton

Intended For Last Week.

The question has been asked so often recently—Why there was no Hatherton correspondence in the local papers, so we are going to try and throw off laziness or something akin to it and let the many readers of your valuable paper awake to the fact that we are not dead but have only been taking a nap—so here goes.

One of the first items of interest is—Mr. J. H. Seeley has purchased the farm belonging to Mr. T. Wilton. The many friends of John are awaiting further proceedings.

Mr. T. Wilton has bought a farm near Singhampton and will remove there with his family shortly. We are sorry to part with Mr. and Mrs. Wilton and family but wish them every success in their new home.

Messrs. J. S. Winters, D. Gilles, Mr. Priddel and Mr. Miller have each purchased a Ford car.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gordon are comfortably settled in their new home which was built last summer.

Harold Lougheed has taken a position in Toronto, while John M. Winters, Miss Louie Winters and Alfred Down are in Collingwood.

Miss Lizzie Mews, Maxwell, spent a few days with her friend, Wilma Down.

Mrs. Campbell and little daughter, Marjorie, of Toronto, are visiting the former's parental home, Centre Line

Miss Millie White, who for the past two years has been with Mr. D. Gillie's, left last week and will take a position in Toronto. Millie, who made many friends while here, leaves with best wishes from a large circle, who wish her every success in her new undertaking.

The little infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Winters is quite ill at time of writing, but we hope for a speedy recovery.

Miss Alice Fenwick is visiting friends in Aurora.

Mr. Will Guy, of Kenora, who has been visiting his parents in Maxwell, left last week to resume his duties.

Miss Prentice has started to give her entrance class of seven pupils extra drilling for their trying ordeal.

Mr. and Mrs. McCutcheon and children of Alberta are visiting Mrs. McCutcheon's parents, Mr. and Mrs James Seeley, Centre Line.

The Red Cross of Maxwell are doing splendid work. They sent a large box of socks, towels and other articles to headquarters recently.

Mrs R. Hodgson and Mr. and Mrs. Hall, Maxwell, visited at Mr. Down's last week.

Miss Annie Guy, Maxwell, visited over the week end with Wilma Down.

Born—On Thursday, February 15, to Mr. and Mrs. George McMaster, twins, a boy and girl. Mother and babes are doing well.

Ceylon Chat

Mr. Cummins spent part of the past week in Toronto.

Mr. Neil Brodie from near Hamilton is visiting his sister, Mrs. Ben. McKenzie.

The little girls of our public school held a tea afternoon tea at the home of Miss Hazel McLeod on Saturday for the benefit of the Red Cross.

The latest boys here to join the 248th are Harry Hazard, who went to Owen Sound Thursday, and Will McArthur, who signed up Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Spears, who are soon to leave for their new home in the West, were given a surprise on Friday evening at the home of the latter's brother, Will McArthur, where their neighbors and friends gathered to bid farewell. A most enjoyable time was spent. During the course of the evening, Mr. and Mrs Spears were presented with a well filled purse as an evidence of the good will and wishes of their friends.

Much concern was caused when on Friday amongst the wounded was noticed the name of Pte D.R. McKinnon, Ceylon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Farquhar McKinnon, living on the "Mike Henry" farm. No official word has as yet been received by the parents, so it is to be hoped the wounds are of slight nature.

Toronto Line North

February Fun!

Mr. Sled, of Lumsden, Sask., is visiting with his son, Thomas, here.

Mr. Bert Osborne, of Feversham, was a caller at Mr. Ab. Stewart's on Saturday.

Mrs. F. Mathewson is on the sick list. Her mother, Mrs. J. Manning, of Brussels, is visiting with her.

Recruiting officers are busy around here now. There are not many young men in this part now, and those that are here are certainly needed. No one should say they have "cold feet."

Mr. Charles Perigo is visiting with his sister, Mrs. A. Stewart, at present. Charles intends taking some horses back with him in March to his home in the West. He is on the look out for some good ones now.

Mr. Thos. Lever was laid up with lagrippe during the past week.

Pte. R. Johnston accompanied by Miss Ina Smith, of Markdale, visited at Mr. Wm. Stewart's.

Duncan

Wedding bells are ringing.

Miss Jennie Proctor and Miss H. Mitchell are working in the city.

Miss Brown of Southampton is again teaching in our school.

Mr. W. Wilson and family are now living in their new house near the blacksmith shop and Mr. Robt Beacon and sister, Miss Lizzie, are living in the house which Mr. Wilson departed from.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvine McKinon visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs J. J. Kaitting on Sunday, before Miss Queenie Kaitting departed for the West.

There's a certain young man in Egypt who comes to Duncan in search of "rubies"

Mr. and Mrs. Kerr and family have moved from Red Wing back to this community again. We welcome them.

Mr. James Beacon and family have moved to Collingwood.

East Mountain

Mrs. Peter Somers, who has been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Humberstone, has returned to her home near Feversham.

Miss Elsie Martin spent a few days with Proton friends.

We offer congratulations to Miss Sadie Smart, who has taken a life partner, Mr Milton Morewood. We wish the young couple a successful journey through life.

We are pleased to report Miss Mildred McMullen able to be around again after an attack of pleurisy.

Miss Nettie Martin of Owen Sound visited a few days with her mother, Mrs. John Martin.

Mrs. Robert McMullen visited recently with her mother, Mrs. W. Chard, at Rock Mills. Mrs. Chard has since gone west to visit her daughter, Mrs. Hutchinson.

Singhampton

We regret to hear of the illness of Mr. L. Currie, who is visiting at Mr. A. Buie's.

H. Campbell has the skating rink in first class condition and many of the young people from the surrounding country as well as those near by are taking advantege of it.

Miss N. Taylor is recovering after a severe cold.

Ernest Neff, wife and baby, of Toronto, are spending a short time with friends here before leaving for the West.

Quite an interest is being taken in the Red Cross work meetings every Thursday afternoon, but the need is great and the more workers there are the better. A large bale of goods was shipped in January, but it is hoped to ship one each month. The hearty support of every woman and girl in the neighborhood is invited. Mrs. D. Carmichael is serving a ten cent lunch in the work rooms this week. Mrs. Spence served tea last meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held on Thurs., February 8, at the home of Mrs. Thos. Scott, when a large number of members and visitors were present. Knitting was the chief object of the meeting. All the officers were present and the president had charge of the meeting. Mrs. Lamb gave a paper on "The Little Kingdom of Home," which was listened to attentively and enjoyed by all. As a favor Mrs. Lamb was asked to have it published. After the business of the meeting the ladies were shown samples of Red Cross articles, hospital slippers, housewives, etc., by Mrs. Bristow, of Rob Roy. Such articles are greatly in demand. Mrs. Scott served a bountiful luncheon which was appreciated by all, her Christmas cake being amongst the dainties. The meeting was closed with singing and prayer. Any lady not able to attend these meetings and wishing to help at home will be furnished with knitting or sewing.—Bulletin.

Maxwell Red Cross

The Maxwell branch of the Red Cross Society held their concert on Wednesday, February the 14th in the Orange Hall which was a grand success. Mr. Irwin Morrison president of the Patriotic Society occupied the chair and also favored us with a very instructive address. Our membership is still increasing which shows that the people are becoming interested in the work. The proceeds amounted to $26.40. The next weekly meeting will be in the Orange Hall on Friday next (23rd).

Tryon

Wedding bells are chiming.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvey Sornberger intend celebrating the 25th anniversary of their wedding on Friday February 23.

Miss Myrtle Sornberger, who has been visiting at Eugenia, has returned home.

Mrs. Trimble and son, Douglas, of Smiley, Sask., visited a few days at Mr. Alex Morrison's.

Dundalk

Lieut. W. J. A. Wright, local recruiting officer for the 248th Batt., went to Toronto to take a three-weeks course in bombing.

Mr. James Inkster, husband of Mrs. Inkster of Dundalk, met with an unfortunate accident at Port Arthur. While at work a week or so ago cutting ice on the bay he had his leg broken at the knee and is in Port Arthur Hospital.

Thos. Walton, Proton, owns a sow which gave birth recently to twenty-one porkers. At last report seventeen of their number were alive and thriving, all struggling for a place at meal time. Mr. Walton is in luck with such an increase when the price of hogs is around $14 per hundredweight and still creeping up.—Herald.

Inspector Campbell was called to Toronto last Friday by the educational authorities there, to help solve the knotty problem of Superannuation of Teachers. A vote for and against has been taken recently but the result is not satisfactory, and the government is anxious to secure some solution of a question that is getting hoary with age.—Review.

Bates Burial Co

J. W. Bates, President. R. Maddock, Manager.

Funeral Directors and Embalmers

124 Avenue Road, Toronto

Telephone Hillcrest 268

Motor Funeral Cars and Limousines to Cemetery at same cost as Horse-drawn vehicles.

1 aug

DR. BURT

Specialist in diseases of the

Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat

OFFICE—130 10th st, West, Owen Sound

At the Revere house, Markdale, 2nd Thursday each month from 8 to a 12a.m Dundalk, 1s Wednesday of each month.

Jewelry

A Splendid Stock from which you may readily make A Satisfactory Selection. We carry Photo Supplies.

W. A Armstrong,

Jeweler

FLESHERTON, - ONT

FEED

Corn Wheat Oats Bran

Shorts

FLOUR

Five Rose Purity Eclipse

Pastry

Fresh Fish Herring

Oysters Cranberies

Groceries of all kinds

W. BUSKIN

The Up-to-date Flesherton Grocer.

-:-Wet and Snow-:-

Means you want a New Pair of Rubbers or Overshoes to keep your feet dry and Warm.

Call at CLAYTON'S and get your wants supplied.

Or if you have a Pair of old Leather Tops and want new Bottoms on them

Leave them now before the Rush.

Repairing as usual.

Thos. Clayton's

FLESHERTON

ANNOUNCEMENT

Having purchased the Furniture business of Mr. John Chapman at a rate on the dollar, I am prepared to offer Furniture at unheard of prices. For the next fifteen days the public will be able to profit by this sale, as I must dispose of most of it. The Stock is new and up to-date in every respect. Dressers, Stands, Parlor Sets and other choice goods at prices that will surprise you. War time does not affect these as they were mostly purchased before the raise and are again cut in order to make quick sale. Come in and look over the Stock.

W. H. BUNT

Furniture and Undertaking

FLESHERTON, - ONTARIO.