Exhibit of War Trophies

The display of war trophies and illustrations given in the town hall here on Thursday of last week was attended by a large crowd of deeply interested people. The moving pictures were good, many of them quite thrilling, more especially those depicting naval scenes. The pictures were given by Lieut. Trivett, a returned soldier, now on the headquarters staff of Military District No. 2. This gentleman says Canada promised to provide half a million men but there are only four Divisions of Canadians on the firing line--about 80,000. His picture of what the Canadians had to endure, owing to lack of men, was heart-rending. Many battalions were much under strength but had to do the work of a full battalion. Capt. White, another shell shock victim, appealed to the young men to enlist. Rev. McVicar opened the proceedings with prayer.

A very pertinent suggestion made by Lieut. Trivett was to young women. He advised them, when their young men asked them to go to the skating rink to reply that they would prefer going to the recruiting office, and were not a bit afraid to drive the horse home alone.

A large number of trophies from the battlefield were on exhibition during the afternoon and evening. Many of these were collected in the trenches by Capt. White himself, others were loaned.

The list includes :

German shrapnel helmet, German helmet (complete), German water bottle, German ammunition pouch and one clip, German Revolver and holster, German gas helmet, German dirk, British gas helmet, British field dressing, German shell nose cap, Inside shrapnel helmet, Piece of Zeppel (aluminum), Gas goggles and case, German nose-cap, Fish tail bomb, Time fuse shell nose-cap, French clip and three cartridges, German clip and 4 cartridges reversed, German shrapnel helmet, German nose cap, German nose cap time fuse, British gas helmet, British shrapnel helmet, shell base, Ypres fragments, lead roof, marble leaf, coloured glass, shrapnel in three pieces, whiz-bang shell casing, shell casing, N. C. O. bayonet, saw-tooth bayonet, German bayonet, German trench cap, German flare pistol, British entrenching tool and case, German wire cutter, German whiz-bang casing, German percussion nose-cap time fuse nose-cap, egg hand grenade, German Red Cross flag, German belt, rifle grenade, Belgian sabots, aluminum fuse ring, aeroplane dart, German shell nose cap, German time nose cap, German pom pom nose cap brass, Mills hand grenade, Hale hand grenade, fancy clip of cartridges, leaded glass from Ypres Cathdral, 18-pounder shell, empty, Lewis machine gun.

A Detroit paper states that since the outbreak of the war 27000 stalwart young Canadians have found their way to that city.

Keep Milk Records

Your cow that stands in the third stall may have deceived you. When she freshened last June very likely she gave about thirty-five pounds of milk a day and you thought her possibly the best cow out of the eighteen you own. But she may have dried off rather early and you overlooked that fact in the light of her good flow in June ; you remember she was 9 years old and a fine looking, quiet cow, easy to keep.

Now think of Eliza Jane, honey, eleven years old, who never made any big record for a day or a week. But recall the fact that she stuck to the job splendidly and gave a fairly good mess per day right through her ten months.

Two actual records in an Ontario herd received by the Dairy Division shew that, with milk at $1 60, cow No. 3 brought in $72 66 from her 4,541 lb. of milk and 148 lb. of fat ; but cow No. 14 brought in from her 9,675 lb. of milk and 225 lb.. of fat, just $106.80. It will pay to keep records of each cow for the full period of lactation. Write for milk record forms, they are free, and find out if some cows you own bring in $34 00 more income than others.

Cairns--Co llnson

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Collinson, Ceylon, was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding on Wed., Feb. 28, when their daughter, Agnes (Ness.) was united in marriage to Francis Donald Cairns, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cairns, Ceylon. Rev. Mr. McVicar of Flesherton performed the ceremony, which took place under a festooning of smilax, from which dropped streamers of white ribbon knotted with bunches of pale pink sweet peas and smilax. Both parties were unattended. During signing of the register Miss Kate Wilcock sang "Oh fair, oh sweet and holy." The party then repaired to the dining room, where a dainty luncheon was served by Misses McPhail, Stewart and Wilcock. The table was decorated with smilax and carnations, while streamers descending to the four corners of the table were caught with clusters of smilax. Mr. and Mrs. Cairns left by the 4 30 train for Hamilton, Port Dalhousie, Rochester and other points. The bride travelled in a very becoming tailored suit of blue broadcloth with steel trimmings, black fox furs and corsage bouquet of Carnations. Her hat was of green milan straw with mount of the same shade. The best wishes of a host of friends follow them. On their return they will reside near Ceylon.

On Wednesday last week Inspector White, Magistrate Richardson and Lawyer Klein of Walkerton went up to Lions Head where five charges of selling liquor had been made. Magistrate Mosier of Lions Head sat on the case with Magistrate Richardson. Two of the charges were proven and fines of $200 and costs in each case were imposed. George Williams, one of the proprietors of the Lions Head hotel, was found guilty of having disposed of liquor in his bedroom and Charles Tindall sold whiskey out of a bottle at a sale in Lindsay township and one of the parties indulged too freely and became tipsy, hence the trial which disclosed the name of the hip pocet bar room. For the month of February Inspector White has remitted to the license department at Toronto $600 in fines. He is determined to run down the boot leggers who are trying to bring the Ontario Temperance Act into contempt.—Chesley Enterprise.
