Duke of Connaught W. J. Kerr

In last week's Advance an article appeared on the life of the late John Kerr in which it stated that Mr. Kerr had his picture published alongside that of the Duke of Connaught as President of the Highway's Association. By favor of the Norwood Register we are enabled to publish this cut herewith for the benefit of our readers. A friend writing The Advance, says :

Poor Kerr—I regret his fate, but admire his spirit. This old world would be very slow without some men of his push. Some day when that great nationa undertaking—a highway from Vancouver to Halifax—is completed (perhaps before) the people of this country will erect an enduring monnment to his memoty. I have understood from men who have lived at the coast that many miles of this roadway has been constructed. Also that a start has been made on the eastern end. I remember Kerr well as a young fellow. He was always ambitious and not content with the quietude of old Artemesia.

In October last she had the jaundice, from which she never fully recovered, being confined to her bed ever since. She grew weak lately and passed away quietly Deceased is survived by her parents, seven sisters and two brothers, one brother at the front. The pall bearers were six cousins : Levi Coutts, Robert Hill, John Seely, Willie Jameson, Johnnie Radley and George Young.

The death of Charles P. Pickell took place at Woodstock on Tuesday of last week. He was the fourth son of Mrs. W. G. Pickell and the late W.G.Pickell. He was born 37 years ago at Flesherton. When a few years old his family moved to Markdale. In his younger years he was a great favorite among the young people, and was an active member of the Methodist church in Markdale, a member of the choir and president of the Epworth League. He was for 12 years a valued assistant in the McCullough & Young Bank, when failing health forced him to retire from active life. The sad break in his promising life was borne by him with wonderful patience. The funeral took place from the residence of Mr. Robert Cook, Ceylon, on Friday afternoon last to Flesherton cemetery, his mother and brother, Guy, having arrived from Portage La Prairie and his uncle, Mr. Thorpe Wright, from West Toronto. There was a service in the Methodist church, Flesherton, where Rev. Dudgeon conducted an appropriate service, and the Markdale choir led the singing. They placed on his casket a beautiful spray of roses and lilies. The pall bearers were R. Cook, J. L. McMullen, John Thibadeau, W.Trimble, Charles and Albert Stewart. Tenderly he was placed beside his father, who preceded him two and a half years ago. He leaves to mourn his loss, a loving mother, two sisters and four brothers, to whom much sympathy is extended.

Card of Thanks

Mr. and Mrs. James Radley wish to thank their many relatives and friends for their kindness and sympathy shown during their recent bereavement.

5000 Facts About Canada

The public will welcome the new issue for 1917 of "5,000 Facts About Canada," the popular and valuable cyclopedia of Canadian dates, compiled by Frank Yeigh of Toronto, the well-known writer and lecturer on the Dominion. No up-to date and intelligent Canadian can afford to be without this "handy annual," which is a revelation in concrete form of the wonderful growth of our country in a single year,despite war condition; indeed, it circulates all over the world, and as such is a splendid advertisement. The chapter of "War Facts" is, by the way, both timely and illuminating. Fifty other chapters are devoted alphabetically to every phase of our national life,from Agriculture to the Yukon, while several sketch maps are of high value. Copies may be had from newsdealers or by sending 25c to the Canadian Facts Pub. Co., 588 Huron Street, Toronto, Canada.

Of Mrs. Margaret Bowes, who departed this life, March 24, 1916.

A strange co-incidence in connection with the old timers' race at the carnival held in Shelburne rink on Tuesday evening of last week is the fact that the competitors on this occasion, Messrs. R White and Thos. Y. McKay, were the contestants in the 3-mile race held here just 25 years ago this week. On that occasion Robt. White carried off the first prize, Thos.
