Mrs. Will Stewart of the suburbs met with a painful accident one morning last week when milking. The cow kicked, knocking her over, and a steer near by trampled upon her, bruising her badly. No bones were broken, however, and under Dr. McLean's care she is recovering.

A letter from Mrs. W. S. Bentham at Irving, N. Y., tells of the death of her father, Mr. Wm. Smith, whose passing we announced last week. Mr. Smith was an old pioneer of Artemesia and died at the ripe old age of 89. He was ill eight weeks and died of paralysis of the throat, being unable to take nourishment. He was buried at his own request in a pretty little cemetery about ten minutes' drive from his daughter's home.

The recruiting soldiers, who have been here for the past four months, left for Owen Sound Monday and have been warned to get ready for removal this month. They expect to go overseas in the near future. Any young man intending to join them should do so without delay.

The annual meeting of the Red Cross Society will be held at the home of Mrs. Patton on Wednesday evening, May 9, at 7.30 o'clock. All ladies interested in Red Cross work are invited to be present as election of officers for the ensuing year will take place. Anyone having socks please bring them in.

Dr. McLean has taken over Dr. Lane's practice in Flesherton and Priceville, and will make his headquarters and place of residence in Flesherton. Telephone calls promptly attended to at the office of the late Dr. Carter and the Munshaw house. With two energetic young physicians in our midst the requirements of the community will be well looked after. May they both prosper.

Sympathy was also extended to Mrs. W. J. Douglas in her trial by the severe affliction of her daughter.

A letter to The Advance received this week from Sergt. J. A. LeGard encloses the following appreciation: "The Flesherton boys of the late 147th Batt. wish to thank the ladies of the Khaki League Club through your paper for the parcels received by them at Easter time. Wishing the Club every success in their most noble work.—Sergt. J. A. LeGard, Sergt. E. N. Jamieson."

Word was received last week announcing the death of Wm. Wiley of Wodehouse. The sad event occurred in the West, where Mr. and Mrs. Wiley had gone to take a situation, having rented the farm at Wodehouse. We understand that Mr. Wiley died from diphtheria and the remains were interred where he died. Sunday next will be Mothers' Day in the Methodist church. Every Methodist is urgently asked to be present and bring their friends. Wear a white flower for mother's sake. Monday evening a War Time Banquet will be held in the basement when a good program will be given. On Sunday evening Rev. Hudson Kelley of Westside church, Owen Sound, will preach to the young people and will also speak at the banquet.

Again on Sunday evening the Methodist church was favored with some especially choice singing. A duet was rendered by Drs. Fred and E. Murray, a quartette by Misses Maud Richardson and Carlotta Rowe, and Drs. Fred and Ern Murray, also a solo by Miss Rowe, accompanied on the violin by Miss Hulse. There will also be some special music by these artists next Sunday. This church is certainly enjoying some rare treats in the musical line just now.

Those who are busily advocating a memorial to Edith Cavell had better devote their energies to winning the war than to raising monuments before the necessary work is completed. There is toomuch squandering of funds in various ways in this country, especially in the recruiting. As an example two and three men have been here for the past four months recruiting and four or five recruits have been the total secured. It is a shameful waste of funds from which the Militia Act provides a relief if it were only enforced.

During a recent thunderstorm, one of Mr. Wm. Gibson's black team suddenly dropped to the road on Murphy's Hill, in Mt. Forest, supposedly from elecric shock for the lightning was playing about. Later it found its way to its own stable.
