Mrs. A. Smith has received word from her son, a prisoner of war in Germany, and his photo. Fred looks fine.

We are sorry to report Mrs. Joe Sherwood on the sick list. We hope to soon hear of her speedy recovery.

Mr. May, chief Government Inspector of one of the shell factories, Mr. Earls and Dr. Wright motored from Toronto and spent the week end with Robert McMaster.

Kimberley Budget

Quite a number in this part saw the aeroplane which flew over to Owen Sound from Camp Borden on Sunday. About 6.30 p.m. it flew eastwardly about two miles north of our village.

Ed. Abercrombie and Earl Cook of Rocklyn were pleasant callers in our burg one day last week.

We are pleased to report little Miss Gladys Wallace on the mend after her recent severe attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. W. S. Bishop has easily the finest tulip beds we have seen thus far, in fact it has everything beaten to a frazzle in this part, as far as tulips are concerned. The different colors seem to melt together in one harmonious blending.

Mrs. McKinley is on the sick list with quite a severe attack of pneumonia.

Jas. R. Fawcett made a business trip to Heathcote on Monday last.

Frank Davis of Vandeleur vieited at Mr. John Plewes' one day last week.

Some fine speckled beauties are being caught in the waters of the old Beaver this spring. One chap said they were biting so viciously one dty, that every time he baited the hook he had to hide behind a tree. Next.

Mrs. Stephen Burritt is visiting this week with friends in Toronto.

Mrs. Geo. Hutchinson and daughter, Rachel, visited last week with friends in Dundalk.

Markdale

Armstrong's shell box factory in town was complimented by the inspector last week, on his official visit, of being second to none, either in point of thoroughly organized staff, or in quality of goods turned out. They are ahead of schedule with their output, and have shifted their staff to cut out their stock of lumber and veneer, which will take a month.

Mr. George Lamb, of Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan, a former much respected citizen and councillor of Glenelg township, but who has been for eight months under special treatment in Rochester, Minn., for a malignant disease, is home for a week's visit and write under date of May 19, that he is wonderfully improved, but returns to Rochester for further treatment with hope of a permanent cure. His many friends hereabout will be pleased to have such favorable word from him.—Standard.

The two little children of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fraser, of Newmarket, were burned to death in their home.

Ceylon Chat

Word was received here last Monday that Gnr. Chas. McMullen had been seriously wounded, in France, and Tuesday p. m. another message was received that he had died of wounds. Gunner McMullen was born here 32 years ago, but the last ten years was spent in Toronto, where he leaves a wife and babe to mourn his loss. He left for overseas in February 1915 with the 41st Battery. His elder broter Pte. Gordon McMullen and younger brother, Lieut. Austin McMullen, are all at the front doing their bit, the three boys being not far from each other. Much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved wife and parents. The Late William. T. Wiley

The passing of the late Wm. Wiley of Wodehouse has caused a feeling of deep regret throughout the whole community. The news of his death came as a shock to every one within his circle of acquaintance, for only four weeks previous to that day he left Markdale station accomied by his wife and little daughter, Hazel. Tonsilitis with la grippe was prevalent among the people when they arrived at their destination and they all had it after being there a little over two weeks. Will had it with the rest but kept about and it is thought caught cold, for, becoming considerably worse, the Dr. was called, who, on his arrival, pronounced it diphtheria, which was then deeply seated, and despite all that kind and loving hands could do and attendance of a trained nurse, none could stay the hand of death. He gradually sank, and at midnight May 2, the ninth day, he passed peacefully away at the early age of 31 years, 4 months. The remains were interred in the little cemetery at Hawarden, a short distance from Strongfield. Two pretty floral tributes were sent to be laid on the casket, one from the Sunshine Club at Strongfield and one from a sympathetic neighbor, as expressions of sympathy in the exceeding sad hour.

Deceased was the second eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wiley of Wodehouse and his death is the first break of a grown up family of four sons and four daughters, all of whom reside in this part but the eldest son, Sam, of Wainright, Alberta. Will was a general favorite, being of an exceptionally cheery disposition who enjoyed life and the very best of health. He was an affectionate son and brother and a most devoted husband. He was born and lived and grew to manhood with his parents here and was one of New England's many Sundayschool scholars from early age, and at his death a valued member and supporter of the same church. He was a deep thinker, of clean character and habits, and had founded his life on the Rock of Ages, which in his last hours of life gave him the peace of those who can say "Thy will be done." A memorial service was held at New England on Sunday afternoon, May 20, when the church was crowded with friends from far and near. The Orangemen and Foresters were present in a body, deceased being a member of both societies. Rev. Lane delivered an appropriate and fitting address, charging his fellow men to live up to the ideals of the Orange order. The heartfelt sympathy of their many friends go out to the bereaved ones, especially to his heartbroken young wife, who was formerly Miss Clara Buskin, the eldest daughter of Mr. John Buskin of Wodehouse, and to whom he was most happily wedded just five years ago last November. The settled on their farm here, known as the Shaw farm, and a year ago last spring they rented the farm to the present occupant, Mr. R. Fawcett, and Will went west, where he spent the summer, and Mrs. Wiley remained at her old home here. This spring he engaged with a Mr. Norrish, a brother-in-law of Art. Alton, formerly of Markdale, and went out with a future pictured before him which none but the young and vigorous enjoy, but alas! he was cut down and the little home in which they were about settled was his last abode on this earth. Thus, in the midst of life we are in death. In life beloved, in death lamented.—Wodehouse Cor.
