Garden party on Tuesday, June 26 at John Hargrave's Collingwood gravel, under the auspices of Rock Mills Baptist church.

The Methodists have sold the old parsonage property to Mr J. Thistlethwaite for the sum of $1200. The new parsonage cost $2000, so there will be a balance of $800 to make up.

A large number of communicants were present at the communion service in the Presbyterian church on Sunday. Five new members were received by profession of faith and one by certificate.

Mrs. Henrietta Purdy of Chicago is visiting her aged mother here, Mrs. Akins, and other friends. Mrs. Purdy has severed her connection with the Windy City and will make her home in Waterbury, Conn.

At the regular meeting of the Ladies Aid of Chalmers church last week a resolution of condolence was adopted, conveying sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McMullen in their recent bereavement by the death of their son in France.

Kimberley readers will be interested in the following personal: Miss Josephine Ferris, nurse, who has been on professional duty at Clifford for the past month, visited with friends in Harriston, Chesley, Donbington and Owen Sound before returning to her home in Thornbury.

Port Law Red Cross Society will hold a Lawn Social and Bazaar at the home of Mr. Lewis Sheardown, 3rd line, on Friday next, June 15th. Baseball—Eugenia vs. Kimberley ladies. Good talent has been secured for the program. Assistance in baking or articles for Bazaar will be gratefully received.

Two Lions Head girls—Jessie Martindale and Ruth McKay—lost themselves in the woods on Monday of last week. Searching parties were out Monday night but they were not found until nearly noon of Tuesday, although between 150 and 200 men were engaged in the search. They were none the worse for the outing.

The beautiful weather of the past week has put a different face on nature. The fruit trees have been in full bloom and bees and insects have had full opportunity to do the necessary fertilization. Fruit promises an excellent crop here, although in other parts of the province it is said not to be anything extra. The late spring with warm, sunshiny weather, has rather favored this district.

A team belonging to T. Gilliland, Eugenia, ran away from the chopping mill on Tuesday. They brought up against a fence near the Presbyterian church when there was a sudden stop. Result—broken wagon tongue.

Mrs. R. Bentham entertained her Sunday School class on Tuesday evening last in honor of Miss Gladys Dudgeon, who went to Toronto yesterday (Wednesday) to try an examination in music. Miss Gladys will not return to Flesherton, but will visit friends in the city prior to going to her new home.

The directors of East Grey Agricultural Society met on Thursday evening last and decided to put on a Dominion Day celebration similar to last year. Another meeting for organization and details will be held on Thursday night of this week when it is hoped there will be a good attendance of citizens to help push the thing along. Everybody turn out and shove for a good time.

The Advance had a very pleasant call from Dr. McCullough of Chatsworth on Monday. The Dr. attended the funeral of Mr. Douglass' little daughter, and afterwards visited the hydro works at Eugenia, which he had not yet seen. He has been for about 35 years a resident of Chatsworth and votes Grit when elections come around. At least we would judge so from a few hints he let drop.

"What happened to Braggs" will be given by the Dundalk Dramatic Club in the high school, Flesherton, on Friday, June 15, 1917, under the auspices of the Flesherton Methodist Ladies Aid. The Dundalk Dramatic Club has appeared here before and won high encomiums from all who heard them. Their talent as entertainers is undoubted and they should draw a crowded house on this occasion. Doors open at 7.30 p.m. Admission—25cts. Reserve seats—35cts.

Little Jean Douglas, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Douglas of Medicine Hat, Alberta, who has been here with her mother for the past three weeks, passed peacefully away Friday morning last at the age of fourteen years. The child was a victim of sarcoma and had quite prepared herself for the great change and tried to cheer her mother, who is heartbroken over her great loss. The funeral took place to Flesherton cemetery on Monday afternoon of this week. Much sympathy is extended to the sorrowing parents.

The Brantford oil drillers have pulled up stakes in town and moved out to the farm of Mrs. W. J. Lever on the east back line. They have undertaken to drill three holes here but got stuck on all of them. The first, we understand, did not get down more than 120 feet, which is not as deep as some wells have been drilled here. The other two attempts did not get down nearly so far. Mr. Cox, the manager, claims that they hit a slanting rock which they could not get past. Oil is a slippery thing to put money into, as many have found to their sorrow in days gone by. We hope the drillers will find no slanting rocks at their new location.

A Base Libel

The following letter was received by The Advance last week:

Shorncliffe, May 20, 1917.

Dear Mr. Thurston:—I have been told by several of the Flesherton boys here that a report has been circulated around Flesherton to the effect that Mr. Kerr, (Corp. Kerr,) has been drinking and smoking with the boys over here. In fact it has been rumored that it was even announced from the pulpit in one of the churches near Flesherton.

Now I have seen Corp. Kerr practically every day or night since we came to England and I have never seen him do a wrong turn. Several of the boys who have heard this story and who live in the same hut with him feel very deeply about this matter and have come to me and asked me to write to you and deny this false statement. I don't know how it got circulated in the first place, but I do know it is a falsehood and I can get several witnesses to back me up in this statement.

Now on behalf of the boys I hope if this yarn is really in circulation up there that you will see your way clear to deny it as I know it is very hard on Mr Kerr's character to have such a statement going around.

Everyone is well here and Herb. has gone to France. Hope all are well over there. Must close now. Sincerely yours,

Sergt. J. A. LeGard, 838112

Peace Comet in July

Another comet, which is described as "the most astonishing and wonderful of all phenomena" is coming. By July of this year it will be visible to the naked eye. A German, Prof. Wolf of Heidelberg, is responsible for the 1917 "peace comet" and he first discovered it on April 27, 1916. The American observatories have now sighted it and have cabled both the stations here in Canada and to the Greenwich observatory.

The "peace comet" is travelling at the rate of 121 miles a second, or over 1,134,000 miles per day, and this is its first appearance for 60,000 years. The Toronto officials, though they have heard of the comet's approach, very much doubt that it appears but every 60,000 years, considering the rate at which it travels. It is exceptionally large and the nearest point reached by it to the earth will be 104,000,000 miles, so it is not likely to outshine the brilliant comet of 1882.

Reclaiming Waste Paper

A process, known as the Jasperson deinking process, by which the printing ink is removed, has been developed for the reclamation of printed papers. This will permit of old newspapers, magazines, etc., being utilized for the making of newsprint. Previously, this material could be used only for the making of the rougher grades of paper, where the ink content was not a drawback. The application of this process should be a further incentive to the saving of waste paper.

How it Feels

The Collingwood Enterprise man was recently sued for libel and this is how he feels about it:

Even sentiment and character come high in these times of soaring prices. Chas. M. Bowman, M.L.A., asks us to pay him Ten Thousand Dollars as salve to the wounds he received in the West Simcoe bye-election through some naughty things said in the Enterprise. Of course this is Bowman's own estimate of his personal value, and that does not worry us much, but he asks for $10,000. We havn't got $10,000. We never had $10,000, and never will have $10,000, so Charlie won't get his $10,000. It is rather startling to find out how valuable our influence is. We never dreamed that we could do anyone $10,000 worth of good, nor imagined we could do $10,000 worth of damage. Rates should surely go up. However, it is just a few weeks sixty over years since the first issue of the Enterprise was printed in Collingwood and in all the intervening years this is our first libel suit, a pretty good record of fair and decent journalism, and in this case if the plaintiff had been Irish, Scotch, English or French Canadian, he would have been too much of a sport to seek revenge after the battle is over.

High School Closed

In order to carry on the Departmental exams. which begin to-day the principal has found it necessary to close the high school about one month before the time provided by the School Act. The teachers object to this because it deprives them of about one-tenth of the teaching term and it comes at the very time teachers are giving their students a final review before they go up for examination. It is also proposed to have the high school re-open October 1. Toronto trustees have figured it out that there are about as many holidays as teaching days in a year. A few years ago the weather was very hot the first week in July when examinations were being held and so the date for Entrance, teachers' and Matriculation exams were put back into early June. There has never been excessively hot weather the first week in July ever since and the whole school year has been shortened because the Education Department was stampeded by one hot week. This is something that interests all parents who are anxious to see their children get a full ten months' tuition each year, and we mean to bring this matter to the attention of the Legislature next session if we are spared till then.—Chesley Enterprise.

Rod and Gun in Canada

The June issue of Rod and Gun is out and its contents are such as to appeal to lovers of the out of doors. "Learning the Way" by Edward T. Martin is descriptive of the various stages involved in becoming a skilled shooter. "The Record of a Cruise on the Kawartha Lakes" tells of a motor boat outing in this attractive part of Ontario, while the "Diary of a Canoe Trip in Algonquin Park" describes a successful fishing trip in the Park. Other stories there are of similar interest and all the regular departments are well maintained. Dog lovers will find a full report of the recent big dog show held in Montreal with a list of all the awards given at the show and accompanying descriptive matter. Rod and Gun in Canada is published at Woodstock, Ont., by W. J. Taylor, Ltd.

Racing Auto Turns Turtle

Two soldiers belonging to the Army Service Corps had a narrow escape from being killed on Tuesday evening when the racing machine in which they were proceeding to Camp Borden from Barrie turned turtle at a jog on the Essa-Innisfil town line. The two men in the racer evidently were hitting the high spots and in taking the sharp turn at the "jog" had not slowed down. The result was the machine turned completely over, throwing one of the occupants clear of the car and pinning the other under the machine. The free man endeavored to raise the car to extricate his companion, but was unable to do so, and every minute the man was imprisoned his chances of life would decrease as he was saturated with gasoline and inhaling the fumes. Fortunately, a party of aviators coming to town happened along and the rescue was made. The imprisoned man was brought to the hospital where it was found that he had escaped injury except a few bodily bruises.—Stayner Sun.

Small—Hargrave

A very pretty wedding took place on June 6 at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs William Hargrave, Warehan, when their eldest daughter, Lila Mae, was married to Mr. Job Small, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Small, of Alliston, Ont., by the Rev. W. G. Blackwell of the Anglican church, Dundalk. The bride and groom entered the parlor and placed themselves under a large white bell, while Miss Ruth Hargrave, sister of the bride, played the wedding march, the bride wearing a lovely dress of white satan with silk lace trimmings and beaded trimmings and wore a handsome gold wrist watch, the gift of the groom, and also carried a bouquet of carnations and sweet pea. The guests were mostly relatives of the bride and groom. Those from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Small and Mrs. Galbraith and little daughter of Alliston, and Mr. Eddie Moore and Miss Jennie Small of Shelburne. The wedding presents were handsome, showing the esteem in which the bride was held. Mr. and Mrs. Hargrave's present to the bride was a Mason & Risch piano and also a handsome cheque to furnish her home. The bride and groom left on the five train for Toronto, Niagara and other points, the bride wearing a navy blue French broadcloth suit and white panama hat with trimmings of white satin ribbon and large pink rose. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm near Alliston. Their many friends join in wishing them a long and happy married life.

Single men of military age in the employ of the Imperial Munitions Board at Ottawa, with no dependents, are, if found physically fit for service overseas, to be dismissed; also the 5000 inspectors throughout Canada who are not returned soldiers are to be ordered for examination.
