W. H THURSTON EDITOR

Amen to This Sentiment

Dear Editor :—As an American (by adoption) who shared the pleasures and hardships incident to pioneer life as a back woodsman in Artemesia and as a frontiersman on the broad prairies of Nebraska, under the protecting influence of that flag upon which the sun never sets in boyhood, and that flag which stands for liberty to all mankind in manhood, I feel a justifiable pride, in that, the country of my nativity and the country of my adoption are joint participants in a great struggle, and that the hope expressed by Sir Wilfred Laurier, in response to a toast, Canada, prevails, "That if the banners of England and the banners of the United States are again to meet on the field of battle, that they meet entwined together in a holy cause for the advancement of liberty, progress and civilization."

I inclose herein a copy of an article entitled, "The Kaiser's Nightmare," in which the (unknown) author suggests an effort by the Kaiser to enlist Got in his service and a threat of war in case of failure to enlist and etc. I would suggest that while the Kaiser is trying to get Got on his side, that we follow the suggestion of our martyred President, Abraham Lincoln, and be and ever remain on God's side, then may we rest secure and confidently hope that the right, or God's, side, will prevail. Yours truly,

—J. S. PEDLER.

Mine Got, vill you be mine partner ?
Vot, you don't know who I am ?
Vell, I'm the German Kizzer,
Or Emperor Will - yam.
You know I vipped dem Belgims,
Und mit bullets fill de Russians full,
Und in 1811 vipp France and Italy
Und blow up Johny Bull ;
But for all dem odder nations
I vouldn't give a d—m
If you vill be mine partner
Und vip dot Uncle Sam.
You know I got dem submarines,
All Europe knows dem vell ;
But Edison's got a patent out
Vot blows dem all to H—l.
Now Got, if you vill do dis,
Den you und I vill luff,
Und I'll be Emperor on earth
Und you be Emperor abuff.
But Got, if you refuse me dis,
Den tomorrow night at eleven
I vill call out all my zeppelins
Und declare war on Heaven.
I vouldn't ask dis favor Got,
But I can plainly see,
Dot ven Edison pushes dot button in,
Ach himmel—I got no more submarine.

A clergyman whose salary had not been paid for several months told the trustees that he must have money as his family were suffering for want of the necessaries of life. "Money," exclaimed one of the trustees noted for his stinginess, "do you preach for money, I thought you preached for the good of our souls." The minister replied "So I do ; but I can't eat souls, and if I could it would take a thousand such as yours to make a meal."

The use of a mixture of flour, water, salt and acetic acid enables wall paper to be easily removed from the walls. Prepare the mixture as follows : Add to boiling salted water enough flour to make a thick liquid paste. To this, add about three ounces of acetic acid to a quart of paste. The acetic acid, which is a poison, is obtained from a druggist. This mixture is applied to the wall paper freely with a brush and after a few minutes the old paper can be easily removed.

Miss Mabel Wauchobe of Shelburne attended the funeral of her grandfather, Mr. Wm. Patton.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright and family spent the week end with friends at Kincardine.

A number from here attended the Red Cross garden party at Portlaw and report a good time regardless of the cool weather.

Mr. Guest, who has been holidaying at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. J. Roome, returned to Toronto on Saturday last.

Mr. McLean of Toronto while in this village on business has been taken suddenly ill.

Great excitement prevailed Wednesday afternoon of last week during a fire, which is certainly an unusual occurence here. Mr. James Best's elevator, an unoccupied house owned by Mr. J. C. Wright, and Mr. Meddaugh's stable, were burned to the ground. Thanks to willing workers Mr. McLean's and Mr. Meddaugh's houses were saved, though somewhat damaged.

We extend sympathy to Mrs Wauchobe, Mrs. Shearson and Mrs. Park in the death of their father, Mr. Patton.

Miss Ina Roome is holidaying with her parents.

Wedding bells are said to be ringing in our burg.

Dundalk

On Monday morning Lena Bailey, the beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Bailey, of Shrigley, passed away. The angel of death came and relieved the sufferer from an extremely trying illness of some weeks' duration. The taking away of this bright young life comes as a great affliction on the family which was stricken just a few weeks ago by the loss of a hero son and brother, who gave his life for King and Country in the great world conflict for freedom. Sergt. Wesley Bailey, who was a member of a Toronto Battalion, was killed in action on April 10. The great measure of sympathy felt for the bereaved family in their double affliction was shown in the large concourse of people who gathered on Tuesday for the funeral ceremonies of the departed daughter.

Electric storms were quite severe in this locality last week. On Wednesday evening the barn and implement shed of Wm. Wright, 8th con., Proton, was struck by lightning and destroyed. The loss is quite heavy as he had, we understand, only $300 insurance. A number of implements were also burned. Mr. James Mitchell's stable in this village was struck in the same storm and had a narrow escape from being burned. Mr. Wright Irwin's barn, back line, Melancthon, was damaged slightly. Mr. George Dale's house in the village was struck on Thursday morning but luckily escaped with the chimney being knocked off and some traces of the electric fluid inside the house. The school in the same part of the village also had a close call.

In the early spring Mr. Ed. Bellamy, accompanied by his wife and little daughter, arrived here from Sarnia, in the hope that a change would be beneficial to his health, which was run down. No improvement has taken place, however, and his local physician advised an operation. On Monday his father, Mr. F. V. Bellamy, went with him to Owen Sound hospital for this purpose. Ex-ray treatment is necessary and the patient will be removed to Toronto.

Piper Jack Haw, of Swinton Park, gave Dundalk citizens a real treat when he piped for them Saturday night. His splendid Highland music brought cheer after cheer from an appreciative crowd on the street. Piper Haw, though he has been "skirling" only a couple of years, has many old timers easily beaten.—Dundalk Herald.

A mysterious fire occurred on Thursday night last at 11 30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. (Capt.) Campbell, William street, when her 10 year old daughter, Jean, was almost suffocated. She was rescued by her mother. The fire started among woollen underclothes in a dresser in her daughter's bedroom, and as the bedroom door was closed the room filled with smoke, and when Mrs. Campbell, who was down stairs, but had not retired, discovered the fire, she could scarcely enter the room, but was able to carry Jean down stairs, none too soon, however as she was in a semi-unconscious condition. Mrs. Campbell herself, and neighbors who were aroused by her son, subdued the flames. A few pails of water extinguished the fire, but Mrs. Campbell feels keenly the loss of a Highland suit sent from Scotland by the late Capt. Campbell to his son, Clive, now 13 years old, it being the last article sent home by him before his supreme sacrifice at Givenchy, where he won the Victoria Cross. The alarm was given, but there was nothing for the brigade to do when it turned out.—Mt. Forest Confederate.
