Are All The Children In?

I think ofttimes as the night draws nigh
Of an old house on the hill,
Where the children played at will.
And when the night at last came down
Hushing the merry din,,
Mother would look around and ask,
"Are all the children in?"

'Tis many and many a yeor since then,
And the old house on the hill
No longer echoes to childish feet
And the yard is still, so still.
But I see it all, as the shadows creep,
And though many the years have been
Since then, I can hear my mother ask
"Are all the children in?"

I wonder if, when the shadows fall
On the last short, earthly day,
When we say good-by to the world outside,
All tired with our childish play,
When we step out into that Other Land
Will we hear her ask, just as of old,
"Are all the children in?"

—Florence Hadley, in Pathfinder.

"So, God has sent you two more little brothers, Sally," said the minister.

"Yes," said Sally "and He knows the money is coming from, too. I heard Daddy say so."

Client: "I want you to draw up my will, but I don't know just how to word it."

Lawyer: "You needn't worry—just leave it to me."

Client: "Yes, I suppose that's how it will turn out anyhow."

"...and please hurry Doctor!"

If you have ever faced an emergency, you know how important it is to get right-of-way for urgent calls. Remember the master rule "Do unto others as you would like them to do for you — and do it first."

The $3,500,000 being spent this year alone will provide more rural lines and mean fewer parties on each line.

FOR BEST RESULTS FROM YOUR TELEPHONE
1. Keep calls brief.
2. Space your calls.
3. Avoid "listening-in."
