VICINITY CHIPS

Mrs. Andrews of Toronto, is visiting her mother, Mrs. A. Wilson.

Misses Carrol and Harris of Toronto, are holidaying with Mrs. M. McDonald.

Alton woollen mills were destroyed by fire Monday morning.

Mrs. D. McTavish left Tuesday morning to visit her son, C. E. McTavish, at Regina for five or six weeds.

Miss Switzer, who formerly taught school here, is renewing old acquaintances in town this week.

There is still a position open in this office for one or two bright boys to learn the printing business. Apply at once.

Miss Wilda Crossley of West Toronto is holidaying at the parental home here.

Mrs. W. Boyd and children are camping on the Lake Huron shore near Kincardine.

An aeroplane came to grief at Dundalk Tuesday morning while trying to light on a wire fence.

Rev. Quinn of Blenheim has accepted a call to the Baptist charge here and will begin his pastorate on Sunday next.

Born—At Khedive, Sask., on Wed., Aug. 15, 1917, to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Paul, a daughter.

Pte. Charley Thistlethwaite, who has been in the Military Hospital, visited his parents over Sunday.

An aeroplane from Camp Borden was in this vicinity Tuesday forenoon. It circled around then apparently started for home again.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Bentham, Miss Zella and Mr. C. Orr motored to Inglewood and visited Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Walker, this week.

Mrs. McVicar, who recently underwent a serious operation in Toronto, returned home Monday evening much improved in health.

The weather of the past week has been very unfavorable for haying and harvest. A lot of poorly cured hay has been put in this year.

Several of our citizens attended an Orange garden party at Swinton Park Friday afternoon. A number also attended a garden party at Proton on Wednesday and another at Maxwell Thursday evening.

The Advance tenders hearty congratulations to Dr. E. C. and Mrs. Murray, who united their fortunes last week at Brantford "for weal or woe." We trust there will be little of the latter. May the sun of prosperity smile upon them in unclouded splendor during a long and happy life.

The Flesherton high school will reopen for the fall term on Sept. 4 with the following staff: H. S. White principal, Miss Hulse and Miss Holmes. These are all re engagements. In the public school Miss Iva Mitchell replaces Miss Lowndes (now Mrs. Murray), and Mr. Holland again takes the steering wheel

Rev. James Dudgeon, Mrs. Dudgeon and little daughter, Dorothy, of Tottenham, who spent Sunday in town, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. Bentham. Mr. Dudgeon was a warm personal friend of the late Richard Wilcock and for that reason came up to preach the memorial sermon.

Dr. J. G. Coleridge and A. Simmers, accompanied by J. O. Lundy, all of Detroit returned home last week after spending a full week examining into the oil prospects here. The two former are investment brokers only and were merely examining the ground in order to be in a position to advise their clients in the matter of investment. They examined conditions here from every point of view and came to the conclusion that they can with perfect faith advise investment. The last thing they did personally was to pump out the Karstedt well and when this was done they found the yellow oil coming in as freely as ever. This dispelled the last remaining doubt and it is now expected that there will be more drills going this fall. These gentlemen are also interested to a small extent in the Cox well, which as we said last week is down in the Hudson shale and the work is proceeding with cheering prospects. At present they are running only a day gang.

The rural boys' work conferance will be held here Sept. 1 & 2, opening with group games on the high school grounds from 6.30 to 8 p.m. Sept. 1, and program at 8 o'clock. Boys aged 13 and 19 years from Markdale, Vandeleur, Eugenia, Proton and Priceville districts who have spent two months on farm work this summer will be presented with S.O.S. badges from the Ontario Government. See bills for full particulars.

Married

Murray—Lowndes—At Echo Place, Brantford, Ont., the residence of the bride's parents, on Wednesday, Aug. 15, 1917, Dr. Ernest C. Murray of Flesherten to Miss Edna Rose Lowndes, daughter of Rev. George and Mrs. Geo. Lowndes. At home Flesherton after September 15.

Bellamy—Wilson—A quiet wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother in town, Mrs. Anzonetta Wilson, on Monday, when her daughter Miss Mary, was united in marriage to Mr. Charles Bellamy, son of Clerk W. J. Bellamy. Rev. Mr. McVicar tied the nuptial knot and after the ceremony the young couuple left for a trip up the lakes. Miss Wilson was one of our most highly esteemed young ladies and the good wishes of a large circle of friends follow her.

Memorial Service

The memorial service for the late Richard Wilcock, who was killed in action on August 1, was held in the Methodist church here on Sunday forenoon, when Rev. James Dudgeon of Tottenham, who was the young heroe's pastor previous to his enlistment, preached the memorial sermon, taking for his text Philippias 1 21: "For to me to live is Christ and to die is gain." The church was crowded as we have never seen it before, and some were turned away, being unable even to get inside the doors. The deceased was an exemplary young man in every way, a member of the church and a most valued assistant in the choir for his magnificent tenor voice, which was phenomenally sweet and strong. He was one young man whom everybody thought should not enlist, but the patriotic call of duty was too strong in him to down, so he handed over his business interests to his uncle and threw in his lot with the 147th Batt. He was generous to a degree, modest and unassuming, and a young man whom everybody loved for his many sterling qualities. He was of the best that Flesherton could give, and we have given a great deal from our best young manhood, nearly all of it, in fact From intimate knowledge of his nature we feel confident that if things were to be done over again Dick would not have them otherwise, even if the veil were rent and he knew what the result would be. He gave his life freely for the cause of humanity and considered it worth while. These words are our personal tribute to one whom we were proud to number among our friends.

We hope next week to publish in fairly complete form the sermon, which was an eloquent tribute to a deserving soul.

This Should Be General

A meeting of the representative men of East Simcoe met in Orillia two weeks ago and decided to offer re-electien to the sitting member, W. H. Benner, by acclamation rather than have a political campaign during the war. All shades of politics were represented and the motion placing the meeting on record for this action was moved by prominent Liberals.

A Walkerton young man fired off a pistol in the stilly hours of night to scare some youths who were bothering him, and paid a fine of one and costs.

Bad Man From Wiarton

Alex. Weatherhead, who a few week ago was fined by Judge Greig in Walkerton $40 and costs on two charges of pointing a gun at his wife and a neighbor named John Caesar, and was also bound over for $200 to keep the peace for a year, was brought by High Constable Ward to the Walkerton jail, the prisoner having been sent up for trial by Police Magistrate R. B. Miller of Wiarton on two charges, that of being insane and with having assaulted his step daughter, Miss Minnie Malcolm, aged 20 years. According to the evidence at the preliminary hearing in Wiarton, Weatherhead went over to the farm of his nephew, Peter Weatherhead, and on Thursday morning last threatened to kill Miss Malcolm, whom he is stated to have thrown onto the floor, torn her waist and had started to beat her up. The cries of the lady reached the ears of Peter Weatherhead who was out in the field, and who rushed at once to the rescue. Getting a rifle, Peter threatened to shoot his uncle if he didn't release the girl and get off the farm, which the big burly assailant did without delay. The accused, who made his way to Wiarton, was placed under arrest there and brought before Magistrate Miller, who, after the hearing, sent the prisoner up to Walkerton for trial.—Herald and Times.

Received Son's Medal

A few days ago Mr. and Mrs. John Sutherland of Walters Falls received the military medal which was awarded their son, Sergt. George Clarence Sutherland, for bravery and leadership in the action on January 17 last in which he was fatally wounded. On Jan. 26, just nine days later, Sergt. Sutherland passed away at a military hospital. The young man was a soldier of exceptional bravery and resourcefulness. Enlisting as a private he was rapidly promoted, and his death was widely mourned, both by friends at home and in France. In addition to the military medal, the young man's parents have been advised that previous to the fatal action Sergt. Sutherland was awarded the Distinguished Service medal. Whether he was ever presented with this decoration will not be known until his personal effects are received here, which will likely be soon. Although dearly bought, Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland will treasure the military medal they have received in recognition of their son's heroic effort in the great cause of civilization.—Mirror.
