We are sorry to report the death of Mrs. Wm. Brownridge, who died at the home of her son, Lou Leopard. The deceased had a very cheerful, sunny disposition, and will be deeply mourned by her friends, who extend their sincere sympathy to the sorrowing relatives.

Another of our boys, Corporal Harold Phillips, has been wounded in France. We hope it is not serious.

Priceville Jottings

The farmers are busy taking off an unusually heavy crop of oats. Other kinds of grain are also good, and potatoes will likely be a bumper crop.

S. B. Stokes of Lucknow judged the oat fields here in the standing crop competition in connection with the Priceville Agricultural Society. Two or three fields that would have scored pretty well were badly tossed down by the storms, and among those who were more fortunate were the following prize winners: Wm. Paton, Artemesia, O A C 72, 86¼ points; Otto Konold, Glenelg, O A C 72, 84½; Donald McMullan, Artemesia, O A C 72, 83½; W. Mathers, Glenelg, Banner, 79½; David Nichol, Glenelg, O A C 72, 79; Thomas Nichol, Glenelg, Mammoth Cluster, 78; Robert Knox, Proton, Banner, 75.

G. A. Watson and several members of the family went down in their car to the city on Tuesday of last week and spent the balance of the week at the exhibition and other places of interest.

Mrs. A. Ostrander, who has been seriously ill for several months, was able to be taken in a car to the residence of her son, George, on the 19th of Proton, one day last week.

Our public school reopened with Miss Smith of Peterboro in charge of Fourth and Continuation classes, and Miss McDonald of Durham in charge of the junior classes.

The Glenelg township council seem to be taking the advice of their old assessor, J. A. McDonald, and in future the land will be looked over before the snow covers it. Some townships pay their assessors to go out and guess at what lies under several feet of snow.

Kimberley Budget

Mr. Samuel Carruthers and son, of Dakota, are renewing old acquaintances in this vicinity and are the guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Thos. Carruthers.

Miss Emily Acheson of Proton Station, visited during the past week with her aunt, Mrs. Geo. Hutchinson.

We hear there is a movement on foot to change the mail. Instead of starting at this end of the route it will leave from Flesherton. This will put the letters a day late, also anybody who wanted to leave here in the morning to catch the noon train would be handicapped. We'll petition the government before we'll let this change be made.

Most all the harvesting is done in this part and the farmers are waiting for a machine to come in before the roads get muddy.

The Ladies' Aid held a Thimble Tea at the home of Mrs. Geo. Hutchinson one afternoon recently when a very pleasant time was spent.

Victoria Corners

Held From Last Week

Mrs. Thomas Bannon, who is on the sick list, is at present at the home of her son, Milton.

A number of the older neighbors attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Henry Armstrong at Dundalk on Sunday Sept. 1, who, with her husband and family, resided for a number of years on the property next to Imistioge church, but later has been living with her daughter.

Vera Moore is visiting her aunt, Mrs. A. Mantgomery, Dundalk.

Lawson Lockhart is visiting at Toronto and attending the exhibition.

James Corbett and wife of Proton, John Corbett and wife and T. Whitten and wife of Markdale, visited at James Lockhart's last week.

We have often wondered at and would like an explanation of these large steel towers which were built some four years ago throughout the country. We see them lighted up some of these evenings —one near Dundalk and another near Markdale—and we are told there is one in each township.

[These towers were erected by the Dominion Government for taking astronomical observations, including hydrographic work—Ed. Advance.]

Blew Own Head Off

Orangeville, Sept. 3—A shocking tragedy occurred about four miles from this town about 12 o'clock last night, when Joseph Oliver Fish, a young farm laborer, deliberately committed suicide before his wife, blowing out his brains with a double barreled shotgun, despite her efforts to prevent him.

Fish and his wife had been in town all evening, returning to their home in Mono township about midnight. On his arrival Fish went into the house and got a double barreled shotgun he had borrowed from a neighbor a week ago, ostensibly to shoot groundhogs. His wife followed her husband to the gate, suspecting he intended suicide. Fish placed the gun to the left side of his face and discharged both barrels, blowing the top of his head off, while his wife held his arm in a frantic effort to stop him. The victim fell to the ground dead and the body lay on the road all night beside the gun, as the wife was too terrified to notify the neighbors until this morning. Fish, who was 36 years of age, leaves two small children. He never gave any evidence of insanity, but the act was evidently premeditated, as he said on Saturday, when drawing in grain, that it was the last day he would be working.

Frank Thompson of Meaford, a returned soldier undergoing hospital treatment at Hamilton, died as the result of injuries received in the collision between an automobile and a B. & H. electric car.

Vandeleur Happenings

After a lingering illness John Holley, one of the few remaining pioneers of this district, died on Friday morning, Aug. 31, at the homestead where he spent the greater part of his life. Deceased was 84 years of age and was the last remaining one of those whose names are on the Pioneer Monument erected in the school grounds to perpetuate the memory of those who formed this school section in 1957. He leaves a family of eight sons and daughters. The remains were laid to rest beside those of his wife in the Meaford Road cemetery on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 2.

Harry Garner, wife and babe, of Taronto, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Gilbert.

Alex. Carson and wife of Pricsville renewed acquaintances here recently.

The government has sent a tractor and plow to this district to plow for the farmers who wish to sow fall wheat. Quite a number are taking advantage of it. W. Graham is the operator.

C. Lawrence and wife and Mrs. Baker, sr., were visitors at E. Baker's recently.

S. Warling of Holland Centre spent the week end with friends here.

William Reid and wife and son, Billie, of Oxford, Michigan, spent a few days with G. Pritchard.
