THE MIXING BOWL

BY Anne Allan HYDRO HOME ECONOMIST

Hello Hmemakers This is surely the bride's month for already we have been "showered" with questions relating to weddings, gifts for the newlyweds' purchases for the home.

In answer to these requests we have a few gift suggestions. Do avoid selecting something that only pleases the eye or excites interest. It is better to choose with the thought of the household for which the gift is intended, keeping in mind the personal taste of the bride. The couple who enjoy gardening would surly appreciate quite different gifts than the newlyweds who dote on entertaining. And when the dovecote is a one-room apartment gifts which will make it comfortable would be out of place in a suburban home.

A good tray is a gift for every home. The couple whose forte is hospitality would enthuse over modern glass and wooden buffet pieces. Cups and saucers are both attractive and acceptable. Pictures require the bride's approval because they involve personal taste to such an extent. There is no more practical gift than a good cook book filled with teated Canadian recipes or a filing cabinet with cards of friends' tested recipes —an idea for the chower program.

When planning a kitchen shower be sure the following gadgets are among the gifts: a durable rotary egg beater, a three-way sifter, standard measuring cups, a measuring spoon set, an egg lifter, a rolling pin butcher knife, bread knife, 2 peeling knives, knife holder, knife sharpener bread board, dish cloth and dish towels. The extras may be purchased later as the new homemaker finds places and uses for them. By all means, be sure the bride has a pressure cooker.

If possible, discuss with the bride's friends, the purchase of large items. Two saucepans and a large four-quart kettle belong in the basic equipment for cooking. Two cookie sheets and a shallow bake dish will find many uses in the new kitchen while two sturdy double-boilers and a heavy skillet are a necessity. Casserole dishes and custard cups of oven-proof glass are invaluable.

A pantry shower is a boon to the beginner cook and is a pleasant way for a small group to entertain. Guests may bring bottles of spices, extracts, jellies, pickles, canister sets and refrigerator jars.

An array of textile gifts will always be welcome—sheets, cases, table cloths, bath towels, hand towels, tray cloths and doilies. There is much interest in the attractive paper towels and serviettes, also the smart plastic mats and tray covers. Glass holders for sauces to insert in the top of the pudding servings, laminated book read, colored mirror trays, handmade clay or pottery flower vases and beautiful marble electric lamps are all new and attractive.

CHICKEN AND MUSHROOM PATTIES

Make as many pastry shells as you will need from your favorite piecrust recipe — 3 cups flour 1 cup shortening, 6 tbsps. water, ¾ tsp. salt for 24 shells and tops. Use small tart tins and bake shells the day before Heat filling when you're ready and put into shells at last minute.

Filling — Take meat off bones of a cooked chicken. Cut it into small pieces. Peel and cut fine into small fresh mushrooms and saute in butter. Scald 1 cup cream, 1½ cups milk and 1 cup chicken broth in a double boiler. Thicken wih 6 tbsps. of flour blended with 4 tbsps. butter. Cook, stirring constantly until as thick as heavy cream — and just as smooth. Add chicken and mushrooms; season with salt, pepper, paprika, and cook a few minutes longer. (Put wishbone-shaped of cooked pastry on top for an attractive finish.) Yield 20 to 24.

A young man, after eight years absence abroad, alighted at his home station, and despite his expectations there was no one there to meet him He then caught sight of the stationmaster, a friend since boyhood, and he was about to extend a hearty greeting when the other spoke first.

"Hello, George!" he said. "Goin' away?"

If all the calamity howlers were laid end to end — it would be a swell idea.

Ted: "My feet burn like the dickens. Do you think a mustard bath would help?"

Ned: "Sure! There's nothing better than mustard for hot dogs."
