W. L. Attridge announces himself a candidate for collector in another column for the town of Libertyville, subject to the approval of the Republican caucus. Mr. Attridge is a good man for the office.

The Methodist congregation adjourned their prayer meeting Wednesday night to allow all who wished to attend the revival service at the Presbyterian church. The church was crowded and intense interest was manifested in Mr. Buck's excellent "talk."

N. J. Pritzker, representing the N. J. Pritzker Company, dealers in tailors' trimmings, was guest of W. C. Sanborn over Sunday. Mr. Sanborn ordered a large line of trimmings for spring and summer goods of Mr. Pritzker before his return to the city, which arrived this week.

The Libertyville pleasure club will give a ball at the Town Hall, Libertyville, Monday night, Feb. 14. Music will be furnished by Prof. Smith and orchestra, of Chicago. Supper will be served in basement. These dances always prove pleasurable affairs and the boys hope the coming dance will be favored with as large an attendance as the last one given by them.

Services at the Presbyterian church Sunday at 10:30 a. m., 3 p. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. G. D. Henger will conduct the morning service. The other two services will be conducted by Rev. Geo. Buck. Sunday afternoon the meeting will be for men only, and Mr. Buck will address the men on a subject that will be helpful and exceedingly interesting. It is desired that a large number of men will be present.

Deputy Supreme Master, F. W. Kuebker, has succeeded in securing a sufficient number of candidates to organize a local lodge Mystic Workers of the World in Libertyville, which organization will take place the latter part of the present month. The organization is a good one and becoming very popular. Mr. Kuebker has the representative people of our village on his list and the lodge will start out under unusually auspicious circumstances. It is bound to become one of the strongest orders in Libertyville. Success to the Mystic Workers.

In response to invitations issued by W. A. Dean, proprietor of the Libertyville Hotel, about 130 guests partook of his hospitality on the occasion of the "opening" of his house. While the hotel has been conducted under his management for some time, there never had been a public "opening." The hotel dining room was converted into a hall room and Prof. Smith and orchestra, of Chicago, furnished music during the evening. Tables were laid in the hotel office and 120 partook of a sumptuous repast, after which all repaired again to the ball room and dancing was again resumed. All guests were presented with bouquets of flowers in the dressing rooms upon entering the house.

Directors Will Meet.

There will be a meeting of the directors of the Lake County Board of Agriculture at office of the Secretary next Friday, Feb. 18, at 11 a. m.

Bear in mind the Old Maids' Convention at Union church Thursday and Friday nights next.

The revival meetings held during the present week at the Presbyterian church by Rev. Geo. Buck, of Rockefeller, have been well attended. Mr. Buck is a fluent and ready speaker, impressing his hearers by his earnestness and devotion to the cause for which he labors. He is a man who talks rapidly, expressing himself clearly and emphatically. We wish Mr. Buck the success his ability deserves in the evangelistic field.

The Rev. Dr. C. E. Mandeville, Presiding Elder of the North Chicago District will hold his second Quarterly Conference at 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon. He will preach Saturday evening at 7:30. There will be a Love Feast Sunday morning at 9:30. At 10:30 the public service will begin, at which Dr. Mandeville will preach followed by the administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. At 7:30 p. m. the pastor, Rev. John Lee, will preach on the following subject: "Christ the Judgement Seat."

A sleigh load of twenty young people of the I. O. G. T. started out for Lake Bluff Tuesday evening, intending to attend installation of officers of the lodge at that place. The condition of the roads prevented their getting further than a couple of miles from the village, however, but the ride was none the less enjoyed and all declared that they had an excellent time. Three of their number were precipitated into a snow bank by the pitching of the sleigh, which was fun for all but the young men in question. To the two parties whom they met on the road and who apprised them as to the impassable condition of the thoroughfare and the impossibility of their getting to Lake Bluff they feel grateful, realizing that they turned back none too soon to avoid an unpleasant experience.

HELLO EVERYBODY!

Libertyville To Have Telephone Service.

An ordinance in the nature of a franchise was passed at the village board meeting Monday night granting permission to F. B. Lovell and Fletcher Clark to construct and maintain in Libertyville a telephone line. The ordinance as passed recites in detail the object, provisions and conditions imposed and is a lengthy document.

The projectors are very reticent regarding their connection with and plan of operating the line, but we deduct from such particles of information as they divulge that they will, after securing permission of the supervisors, connect with the Bell Telephone company's line at Rondout and establish a toll station in F. B. Lovell's drug store. They are undoubtedly working in conjunction with the Bell company. However that may be, the proposed telephone is a very desirable acquisition for Libertyville, and if the gentlemen in question succeed in establishing the line as contemplated their enterprise is deserving of and will receive hearty co-operation.

A Fine Program.

It is seldom a program as meritorious in every detail is rendered in Libertyville, as that with which the audience at the Union church was favored last Friday evening. The numbers were rendered with a precision and nicety which was conspicuous by comparison with the chaos which so often prevails at entertainments given in small communities. To enumerate each particular selection and comment as it deserves is impossible. If there were any numbers on the program which met with special favor they were those rendered by little Mildred Poole and the instrumental renditions by Mrs. C. N. Durand.

Mildred Poole by her demonstration of extraordinary talent in reciting, singing and playing, by her modest demeanor and winning ways won the hearts of an appreciative audience. Encore followed encore, and the little lady responded graciously, thereby winning greater favor with her delighted admirers.

Mrs. C. N. Durand's instrumental selections were in each instance enthusiastically endorsed. The manifest ease displayed even in most difficult pieces and her faculty of inculcating into a mechanical construction, a spirit that speaks volumes in sweet strains of music, very deservedly makes her appearance the invariable signal for applause. Her technique is remarkable, her conception one which accords perfectly, hence the almost unexplainable power of her music.

The quartette composed of Chicago gentlemen was greeted with flattering approval, while the recitations by the Misses Kimball, Averill and Davis were in keeping with the excellent character of the entire program, each and every number of which is worthy of and deserves commendation.

The Program.

The entertainment to be given at the Town Hall on Saturday evening, Feb. 12, should be favored with a full house. The program below assures a good evening's enjoyment:

Dramatic and Literary.

The Catholic Club has made arrangements to give a dramatic and literary entertainment on Saturday, Feb. 12, at the Town Hall, Libertyville, commencing at 8:15 p. m.

The program will open with a comedette, entitled "A Happy Fair" by S. Thers, presented by Mr. Henry L. Hall, representing Mr. Honeyton and Miss Imelda M. Grace as Mrs. Honeyton, both of whom are members of the Chicago School of Acting. A short synopsis follows: Constance Honeyton, a wife of a few months, thinking there is a sad falling off in affections of her husband. She is gathering flowers and wishes she could unite the harmony which has been lost. She receives letters of congratulations from her friends regarding the sweet felicity of her married life. These letters make the loyal wife remarkably indignant towards her friends, yet at this moment Mr. Honeyton enters the room, but is very ill-natured. He tells her he married her simply to oblige her which adds more grief to poor Constance's heart. Thus after many amusing scenes and arguments her husband is thoroughly awakened at last and recognizes his wife's anger is due to his coldness and ill temper.

The Comedette is followed by recitations by Misses Clara Averill and Mary Davis and a song by Miss M. Alice Davis, after which will be presented a dramatic sketch, by J. W. Jones, entitled "On the Island." Jack Carlyton, Barrister at Law, is characterized by Mr. H. L. Hall and Missy Garland by Miss Imelda Grace. This is most charming. It depicts two former lovers who attended a picnic party and by chance they are left on the island. It appears sometime before said picnic Jack Carlyton requested Missy Garland to become his wife. She refused and they never after that exchanged words until they met on the island. He offers her assistance which she tries to make him believe she wishes to decline, though she is more anxious to regain his affections. At last she receives his favors with the understanding she is doing so in consideration of the past. Here she plays, like all women, a skilful game, and comes out victorious by regaining the once rejected hand and heart. The scene is laid on Lake Windmere in a boat house.

This entertainment is not only given by members of the Chicago school of acting but also by some of the leading members of society in Libertyville who are noted for their grand intellectual qualities in enlightenment, refinement and in all that tends to bring sociability and felicity to the human heart.

All are invited to attend, because by availing yourself of this you proclaim to the world you are a judge of some of the fine arts. The object of this entertainment is to liquidate the debt due on the furniture in the parochial residence. Admission 25 cents. Reserved seats 35 cents.
