

SLEEP SICKNESS VICTIM CURED BY CHIROPRACTIC

Highwood woman says her son was asleep five days until first adjustment

Mrs. Virginia McGath of Lewellyn Ave., Highwood, tells of what she considers a remarkable case of sleeping sickness, which was contracted by her son, John, aged 18, two months ago.

"When my son took sick with a sleeping sickness, declared Mrs. McGath, "we tried medicine for him but he became gradually worse, till he scarcely could answer if we tried to arouse him from sleep. He slept nearly five days almost constantly, and he complained of being so tired he could hardly breathe.

Some one suggested that we try chiropractic, so we employed Dr. J. E. Meyer of Waukegan. The first adjustment made some changes for the better. He is now able to return to work again. I believe that chiropractic saved my boy's life.

OBITUARY

Wilhelm Eismann was born August 6, 1851, in Naha, Province of Holstein, Germany. He was married to Doris Mansfield Brandt. In 1885 he arrived in America and lived for a time in Barrington. He moved to Diamond Lake December 31, 1885. His first wife died May 13, 1893, and Sept. 18, 1896 he was united in marriage to Elizabeth Beck, who survives him. After a brief illness, he passed away March 8, 1922, in his 71st year.

At the age of 15 he was confirmed in the Evangelical Lutheran church, and remained a member until the time of his death. Besides his widow, he leaves to mourn their loss one sister, Mrs. Barkman, three grandchildren, children of the daughter of his first wife, to whom he had been a good father, and a host of friends.

Mr. Eismann was a good man, highly respected by all his neighbors as upright in his dealings with his fellow-men.

Monday afternoon March 13th, the Rev. Charles J. Dickey conducted a brief service at the home at 1:30, and also preached a sermon at the church at two o'clock. Miss Carrie Chad sang three beautiful solos. The floral pieces were many and beautiful, and paid eloquent tribute to the exemplary character of the deceased.

The services at the grave were conducted by Libertyville Lodge No. 492, A. F. & A. M., of which Mr. Eismann was a member.

ANOTHER ARGUMENT IN FAVOR OF BUYING IN THE COMMUNITY.

Money sent out of town for merchandise that should be purchased at home does not come back and we and the town suffer for the thoughtless act of those who fatten the big city merchants at the expense of our commonwealth. If the trade of this community was kept at home, our town would be more prosperous. The money we have earned would be in circulation, and would, in the course of business, come back to us perhaps several times in the course of a year; but that sent out of town does not come back. It is gone forever.
