Kimberley Budget

(Intended for Last week)

Mr. Wm. Walters received a cablegram on Monday stating that his son, Stanley, had been killed in action. This is the second son of Mr. Walters' to make the supreme sacrifice. Stanley was a fine type of young Canadian manhood and will be much missed. Mr. Walters has the sympathy of the community in his sad hour of bereavement. Wm. Fawcett also got a cable stating that his son, Ezra had been wounded. This is the third time Ezra has been wounded.

Mr. and Mrs. David Lawrence of Mount Forest, motored over to this vicinity last week and were the guests of their aunt, Mrs. Geo. Lawrence.

Rev. Dimnick of Eugenia, occupied the pulpit in the Methodist church on Sunday morning last and delivered one of the ablest sermons heard in our church for some time.

We are sorry to report Thos. Abercrombie on the sick list at present.

Squire Stuart is visiting this week with friends in Flesherton.

Mrs. Jasper Stuart visited with friends in Thornbury last week.

Our local nimrods up in the Parry Sound wilds killed four bear last week.

Mr. Geo. Cornfield, one of our progressive farmers on the fourth line north, has one of the most up to date barns and stabling in this part. He recently had his stabling remodelled in the most modern style. Kenneth Donnelly of Rocklyn was the contractor. 'nuff sed.

Mr. Joseph Kaake's threshing machine is busy in this vicinity and will finish this week.

John Camack was driving the rural mail from our burg to Heathcote on Sat. last, when a Ford car upturned the cart and landed John on terra firma. He escaped with a few bruises and the little Ford rambled right along.

(Intended for Last Week)

The very fine weather still continues. The farmers are taking advantage of it, though, and are rushing the plowing.

Irwin McKeown, wife and family, of Duncan, spent Sunday with Mrs. McKeown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kaitting.

Alex. Moore has returned from the West and one of our fair ones is wearing a pleasant smile these days.

Mr. Emerson of Collingwood is visiting his parental home here this week.

The brethren of L.O.L. 285 held their fowl supper in their hall here on Nov. 5, when the Orangemen, with their ladies, numbering about sixty, assembled and after a bountiful supper was partaken of there was a good program given by local talent An enjoyable social evening was spent by all. Bro. W. L. Kaitting filled the chair in his usual jovial style. W. M. Bro. T. W. Wilton thanked those taking part and also the ladies for providing the good things. Then all joined in singing the National Anthem.

A fatal accident happened at Thornton when Edward Gibson, butcher of that village, and Harry Hicks, a young man of the same place, went to the outskirts of the village to kill a pig. They used a fire arm with which to despatch the animal and after shooting it the weapon was laid on the ground while the men bled the dead pig. Gibson picked up the fire arm to take it away with him when there was a report and Hicks staggered for a second before falling to the ground. He was killed almost instantly and it is reported that he was shot through the heart, but this cannot be verified. Gibson is utterly at a loss to explain how the accident happened and is crazed with grief over the unfortunate occurrence resulting in the death of his friend,

We are sorry to report Mr. Blakely again on the sick list.

Messrs Becker and Sherson have bought and shipped several carloads of potatoes lately, and are now on the market buying oats. Highest prices will be paid. Patronize home trade.

Although the weather was very unpleasant on Sunday last, good congregations attended the Anglican anniversary services. Interesting and instructive sermons were delivered by the rector, Rev. Blackwell. Special music was rendered by the choir and a generous freewill offering was placed on the collection plate at each service.

Our hunters returned last week, with a goodly supply of game. The Watson Bros. had their alloted number of deer and a bear.

An exchange says: The leaves are falling, but that's about the only thing that is falling around here. The prices for things are still high up, and it will take a pretty hard frost to make them come down, to all appearances.

A Collingwood drover had thirty lambs destroyed by dogs. The loss will amount to between $400 and $500.
