Political Meeting Marks An Epoch

That was a remarkable political meeting held in the town hall on Monday evening of this week in the interests of Union government. The meeting was opened with prayer by one of the resident pastors and the chair occupied by another. The building was packed, with many standing, and in the audience were some thirty ladies. Most of this large crowd listened to the speakers from 8.30 to 11.45 with close attention, only a few dropping out before the end. The speakers were Major Hewton of Sherbrooke, Quebec, Mr. Ball, the Unionist candidate, and Rev. Dr. Geggie of Toronto. Mr. Hewton and Dr. Geggie gave addresses that will be long remembered to a mixed audience of old time Grits and Tories, but we fancy one in heart for the period of the war after listening to these addresses.

Major Hewton's address dealt with conditions in Quebec, and was, we fancy, an eye opener to many people present who came to the meeting with the odor of old partyism still clinging to their clothes. He said there was no such thing as Grit or Tory today. It was either Unionist or Laurier-Bourassa. He said that when war broke out Bourassa and Dr. Beland were both in Germany and both were arrested. Dr. Beland is still a prisoner but inside a fortnight Bourassa was on his way home and he was now busy telling his French compatriots through Le Devoir that German rule was preferable to British ! You can draw your own conclusions, said the speaker. He was through the Sherbrooke riot, which he described in a humorous way. Major Hewton pointed out that in case Laurier was returned to power it meant under the most favorable circumstances a delay of eight months in forwarding support to the boys in the trenches.

Rev. Dr. Geggie of Toronto had always been a Grit—never voted any other way—and disliked Borden, but Laurier had made it impossible for him to vote any other way except for the Union candidate. Union government should have been instituted long ago. It was a case of Democracy against Autocracy. The Hun is at the door and if we do not look out we will be in the same position as Russia. There was much humor in Dr. Geggie's address.

Mr. Ball spoke for about half an hour on government affairs. He is an out and out Unionist and has dropped all party sentiments for the period of the war.
